FIELDS' CASE IS REHEARSED BY DETECTIVE

McClaren Tells How He Secured Alleged Confession.

VISITED PEEK'S HOME IN KANSAS

Obtained Document Without Divulging Knowledge of Blevins Murder.

NEW STORY LEAKS OUT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

New Castle, Pa., Oct. 17.—Charles M. McClaren, prosecutor in the case against Frank J. Fields, charged with the murder of City Treasurer Blevins, talked to a reporter today regarding the history of the evidence. He believes firmly that the confession of Judson Fields is genuine. This, he says, he determined after a long and extensive investigation by himself. When Peek wrote the letter to Mayor Warnock several months ago, stating that he knew the confessed murderer, McClaren recognized in the writer an old friend.

Immediately McClaren conferred with C. H. Akens, member of the investigating committee, and asked whether or not the latter thought Peek's information would aid in capturing the murderer. Akens was of the opinion that, inasmuch as the letter had been made public the men who were alleged to have hired the job done could have had time to "fix" Peek so that he would divulge nothing. Later McClaren visited the Hon. Malcolm McConnell and other members of the investigating committee. He told the latter that he was going west and would stop and visit Peek. McClaren says:

"I started on my western trip soon after. On reaching Ellis, Kan., I met Calvin Bascom, superintendent of the water supply of the Union Pacific railroad. I inquired of him concerning Peek.

Peek Had Good Reputation.

"Bascom said that Peek had always been considered an upright man and that he was held in good repute by the citizens in that part of the country. I continued my trip to the west, and on my return stopped at Gorham for a week.

"I met Mrs. Peek on the street and she invited me to the Peek home. I did not tell her I was from New Castle, and they were still of the impression that I was living in Western Kansas, where I had resided previous to coming here. I inquired of Judge Monroe as to Peek's standing in the community and learned that it was good, he having a first-class reputation. Then I visited Peek and he told me he had in his possession a confession regarding the murder and related the circumstances surrounding the obtaining of the confession. I then went to Sumpter, Ore., and later returned to Kansas City, from where I mailed Peek a letter, asking him to tell me whether or not Judge Monroe was at home. I also wrote to the judge, apprising him of my intended visit. I returned to Gorham and satisfied Peek that I was in no way connected with any one implicated in the killing of Blevins, and that it would be safe for them to deliver to me the important papers. After securing them I returned to New Castle and the arrest followed.

Fields Was Despondent.

"I found that Fields had been employed on a railroad in Kansas, and men who worked with him told me he was not like the other men working there. They said he would often sit by the roadside, with his chin dropping on his breast as though he were in deep study. He was taken suddenly ill and his case was diagnosed as typhoid fever. When alone in his room he would talk of the 'bloody head' and hat, and was heard to say that he wished he had not committed the crime. He grew gradually worse until the physician decided his case was hopeless and he was told he would die. Immediately thereupon Fields called Mrs. Peek into the room and said he wanted to make a confession, that he could not die with the terrible secret in his heart.

"After making the confession he described minutely the killing of Blevins. The Peeks did not know what to do with the paper, and it is probable the matter would have been allowed to remain dormant has not Mrs. Peek become uneasy over the confession. Fields had told the name of New Castle's mayor, and at her instigation Peek wrote him a letter. Peek says that Fields told him that on the night he committed the murder he wore a pair of overalls and a jacket, in order to prevent blood getting on his clothes.

Found Shreds of Clothing.

"On his arrival here McClaren went to the spot directed as that at which the clothes were disposed of after the murder and found shreds of clothing and buttons, but it was impossible to determine as to what sort of garments they were from.

The contents of the various papers that comprise the evidence of the commonwealth will be made known at the hearing next Monday. Fields, the accused, is still confined in jail. He expressed great satisfaction on hearing that a statement had been made by W. R. Walters, who said that he can prove an alibi for Judson Fields, whom he says was at the Walters home all night on the date of the murder.

An entirely new story of a most sensational character as to the Blevins murder was told here today. One day last winter a Venango county farmer came to New Castle. He visited the office of one of the men engaged in investigating the murder. Accompanied by the officer, the Venango man went to City hall and was there shown the room in which the murder was committe. The two were about to go up East street, when the visitor is reported to have said:

"No, the murderer did not go that way; he went in this direction," indicating

FURTHER RELIEF BY TAKING BONDS

Twenty Millions More of the Treasury Money to Check Stringency.

MESSAGEFROMSHAW

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—Secretary Shaw telegraphed instructions from Chicago this morning to the treasury department to give notice that he will purchase for the sinking fund on Friday and Saturday any United States 4 per cent bonds of the loan of 1925, and pay for them at the rate of 137¾ and interest to date of purchase.

The department also will accept the bonds of the same issue until the close of business October 20, and pay therefor as of the 18th. This will give an opportunity for anyone to sell at the same price who may not be able to make immediate delivery.

Bonds may be presented to the treasury department, division of loans and currency, or at the office of the assistant treasurer of the United States at Chicago and New York.

The department announces that Secretary Shaw, when he was in Washington last Monday, secured the option on $5,000,000 of 4 per cent bonds of 1925 at 138 flat, and this offer has been accepted.

The sub-treasury, under the order of Secretary Shaw, disbursed during the day $11,293,789, representing principal and interest on bonds of the face value of $8,253,400. This included a block of $5,000,000 offered by a single interest. The syndicate consisted of the National City bank, Fiske & Robinson, Harvey, Fiske & Sons, Vermilye & Co. and Farson, Leach & Co. It is expected that the syndicate will offer another block of from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 tomorrow.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Secretary Shaw said today: "I have assurances indicating that the purchase will aggregate at least $15,000,000 face value, which will release a little over $20,000,000."

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—It was definitely learned at the National City bank today that a syndicate headed by that bank is to sell $15,000,000 in these bonds to the government.

PLOT REVEALED.

Alleged Conspiracy to Railroad an Innocent Man to Prison Causes Four Arrests.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—A special from Chicago to the World this morning says:

"An alleged plot to "railroad" an innocent man to the penitentiary and blackmail wealthy New York relatives of his was exposed today when two city detectives, a disbarred attorney and a First ward Democratic politician were arrested in the criminal court building. The men had come to the building to help convict William Hickey of New York, charged with the theft of $1,200 from Mrs. Hannah Jones on July 4.

The accused men are William Davis, a detective from the Thirty-fifth street police station; Joshua Tedford, a detective from the Cottage Grove avenue police station; David Dudenhaver, a lawyer who had been disbarred on account of a sentence of six months' imprisonment for perjury and who demanded a fee of $500 from Hickey, and Frank Cantwell, known as "Jumbo," who was a sergeant-at-arms at the Chicago Democratic convention of 1896.

SCHWAB HIRES A YACHT.

Proposes a Long Cruise, Possibly as Far as India.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—The World, in a special cable from Cowes, England, this morning, says:

"Charles M. Schwab has chartered "Tony" Drexel's steam yacht Margarita, paying $75,000 for its use for five months, exclusive of wages, coal and, of course, consumable stores. The yacht will sail tomorrow for Marseilles to embark Mr. Schwab and a party and make a cruise in the Mediterranean. Mr. Schwab even talks of going to India in her to attend the durbar.

GATES CROWD IN NEW RAILROAD ENTERPRISE

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—The Times this morning says: John W. Gates and his partners are said to have engaged in another railroad deal, this time in Oklahoma. The Oklahoma Central & St. Louis Railroad Company was chartered at Guthrie, Okla., recently, with a capital stock of $15,000,000 and with an estimated length of 600 miles. The money for the new enterprise is said to have been subscribed by the Gates-Lambert-Mitchell people.

ROOT'S SICK SON TAKEN TO VIENNA.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—A special from Washington to the World this morning says: "Mrs. Root took her son to Vienna to undergo treatment by Prof. Isidor Mueller for after effects of typhoid fever, with which he was afflicted last spring. It is only known here that Prof. Mueller is an eminent specialist in such cases. Mrs. Root and her son are now in Paris.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR'S WIFE ROBBED OF GEM

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—The World says this morning: "Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff, wife of the lieutenant governor, was robbed yesterday afternoon of a jeweled ornament for which she had just paid $300.

ZIEGLER TURNS DOWN EXPLORER BALDWIN

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—William Ziegler, who supplied the funds for the Baldwin-Ziegler polar expedition, announced today that the business relations between Evelyn B. Baldwin and himself had been severed. He declined to give any details.

ALLEGHENY MAJORITY IS PLACED AT 25,000

These Are Figures Furnished to Quay by Leslie and Marshall.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Public Ledger Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 17.

Reports received by Chairman Quay are that the Republican state ticket in Allegheny county will have a majority of not less than 25,000. This is the minimum figure fixed by Speaker Marshall and Councilman Leslie, both of whom have given this estimate to the state chairman. Mr. Marshall said:

"There is no occasion to feel any anxiety about the outcome of the contest in Allegheny county. We will give the Republican state ticket 25,000 majority, beyond all reasonable doubt. The Ballot Reform ticket will be supported principally by the disgruntled element among the Democrats. The best information that we can obtain is that it will receive little recognition among the Republican voters. We have made a careful canvass of the county, and find a general disposition among the Republicans to vote the straight party ticket."

Mr. Leslie used the same figures in framing his prediction. He said the Ballot Reform party would fail to make a showing; that a few personal friends of Senator Flinn might vote the ticket, but the number would be too small to have a perceptible effect. It was Leslie's opinion that, as far as politics is concerned, Flinn is no longer a factor who must be reckoned with.

Thomas L. Hicks, state chairman of the Wanamaker wing of the Union party, issued a long statement tonight. He advised his friends to vote either the Democratic or Ballot Reform tickets.

PRIVATE HEHS FALLS AND FRACTURES SKULL

Serious Accident to Member of Co. M, 18th Regiment, at Shenandoah.

BY GIBBONS M. MARSH,
Staff Correspondent.

SHENANDOAH, PA., Oct. 17.—Raymond Hehs of Company M fell from a trestle on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad at 6 o'clock this evening and fractured his skull. His condition is serious. At this hour he is lying in the hospital tent unconscious. He was walking on the trestle, tripped and fell 30 feet to the pavement. The physicians believe he sustained internal injuries.

The unions of the Ninth district of the United Mine Workers of America held special meetings here today and elected delegates to attend the special convention at Wilkesbarre on Monday. P. J. Sweeney, president of local union No. 1685, says the delegates were instructed in a general way, as they had no knowledge of the arbitration proposition.

It was a sort of a gala day among the miners here today. Speechmaking and street parades were numerous. The Socialists held a political meeting tonight, and many of the followers of this party here are miners.

Brigade Inspector S. W. Jeffries and Maj. L. C. Milligan made an inspection of the Eighteenth regiment camp this afternoon. Col. J. K. Weaver, division surgeon, said the surgeons of the division would assemble in Harrisburg during January to adopt plans for effecting a more proficient medical service.

SIXTEENTH'S CAMP IN EXCELLENT SHAPE

Col. Weaver Points Out Good Features During Inspection at Mt. Carmel.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

MT. CARMEL, PA., Oct. 17.—An inspecting party from brigade headquarters, headed by Col. J. K. Weaver, division surgeon, found the Sixteenth in excellent shape. Col. Weaver made a careful inspection of the camp, noting especially the way the men had arranged their quarters. He expressed his satisfaction at the work done, calling the attention of the other officers to the way quarters and kitchens and mess tents had been floored, walled and provided with means for seating, the company streets covered with ashes, the garbage furnaces and the drains lined with stone, doing away with all mudholes and muddy ditches.

Col. Weaver reports a small amount of sickness in the brigade and said the work of preparing winter quarters would be useless, as he expected to see the guard ordered home soon. Maj. Windsor was in command of the camp. Lieut.-Col. Rickards, acting commander of the regiment in the absence of Col. Hulings, accompaned the inspecting party.

Lieut. Robinson of Company C is captain of a regimental football team, which is practicing hard for a game at Mt. Carmel on Wednesday of next week with the Bloomsburg State Normal school eleven.

NEGRO WAIVES MONTH OF LIFE

Was Legally Hanged Two Hours After Trial to Escape Lynching.

TROOPS GUARD HIM

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Nacogdoches, Tex., Oct. 17.—Jim Buchanan, colored, the murderer of the Hicks family, was tried here today, a plea of guilty was accepted by the judge, and the negro was legally hanged within two hours after sentence had been passed.

Buchanan was brought to Nacogdoches under the protection of five companies of militia. Upon his arrival here the negro was immediately turned over to Sheriff Spradley, who told the people that he would be given a speedy trial. The town began to fill up rapidly and the excitement was intense. The telegraph wires were cut, the railroad tracks were torn up for a short distance, and it was announced that an attempt would be made to get possession of Buchanan.

District court was at once convened, a jury was empaneled without delay and the negro's plea of guilty was accepted by the court. The judge ordered that the death sentence be executed November 17, but many people announced that they would have no delay. Buchanan then waived the 30 days allowed him by law and was hanged by Sheriff Spradley in the jail yard in the presence of a large crowd.

Ten days ago the dead bodies of Farmer Hicks, his wife and daughter were found in the Hicks home. A week later Buchanan was arrested and confessed to the murder. A desperate attempt to lynch him failed.

THAT KILKENNY FIGHT IN VENEZUELA STILL ON

If the Worst Comes, United States Marines Will March to Caracas.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.—The greatest battle that Venezuela has ever known is still raging, according to a cable dispatch received at the state department today from United States Commissioner Bowen at Caracas. The dispatch is dated yesterday and reads:

"Fighting continue at Victoria. No communication is to be had with Valencia."

It has been decided at the state department that the one United States naval vessel now at La Guaira, the port of Caracas, the Marietta, is sufficient for present needs. The Marietta might, in case of need, quickly send a guard of marines and bluejackets to the United States legation at Caracas if Mr. Brown desires their presence.

GREAT SEND OFF FOR FOURTEENTH

Miners Prepare to Show Good Will When Regiment Moves Out.

TO BE BIG PARADE

By WILLIAM L. ROSS,
Staff Correspondent.

Mahanoy City, Pa., Oct. 17.—As a fitting climax to the hospitality which the men of the Fourteenth have received from the people of Mahanoy City during their encampment here, preparations are now going on toward the regiment's glorious farewell when their start is made for Pittsburgh. It is generally accepted that a week will see the end of the service. A parade of all the local lodges of the United Mine Workers of America, headed by the town band will be the main feature of the farewell, as planned. A committee of citizens has the matter in hand and negotiations have met with an enthusiastic reception all along the line.

At the same time there are evident indications here that it will need all of John Mitchells' great strength among the strikers to hold the convention in line with his wishes. There is a frequently expressed sentiment that actual open recognition of the union with direct dealing with its officers, as such, can and should be forced at the present crisis. Mitchell, through his lieutenants, is discouraging this.

All the commanders in the Second brigade today visited all the camps. The party was in charge of Inspector S. W. Jeffries, Surgeon Milligan and Commissary McNary of the brigade, the colonel, surgeon and quartermaster of each regiment and the captains of Battery B and the Sheridan troop composed the party.

Another dress parade downtown was held this afternoon, Lieut.-Col. Corbett reviewing the command in the absence of Col. Thompson, who was with the inspection party. As before, a crowd of several thousand watched the maneuvers and exercises. With each dress parade the perfection of technique grows greater. There was generous applause for the regiment this time, all doubts as to friendliness with it having melted away.

Corporal Ralph E. Johnson, Company I, has been appointed hospital steward. The appointment will be effective tomorrow. He succeeds Steward McGill, who is relieved on account of illness. McGill will probably return home tomorrow with Maj. W. McC. Johnson, regimental surgeon, who has been granted a leave of absence. McGill is not dangerously ill.

EARL ROBERTS ACCEPTS INVITATION TO AMERICA

British General Expects to Visit United States Next Year.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Gens. Corbin, Young and Wood have tendered Earl Roberts a cordial invitation to visit the United States, and the commander-in-chief replied at a late hour this evening that he had practically decided to accept the invitation in December of 1903, and that there was a possibility of his crossing in time to witness the international yacht races in that year.

It is Earl Robert's desire that Gen. French and Kelly-Kenny accompany him.

The American generals have been particularly anxious that Earl Roberts should visit America in order that they may have an opportunity to repay the many courtesies he has shown them during their stay in England.

Ambassador Choate gave an elaborate dinner at the Carlton hotel tonight in honor of Gens. Corbin, Young, Wood and Merritt. Among those present were Earl Roberts, Ambassador White, Admiral Seymour, Gen. French and Gen. Kelly-Kenny.

SAVED LIVES OF TWO CHILDREN, BUT ALMOST LOST HIS OWN

Joseph Tures, a carpenter, of Philadelphia, proved himself a hero, but almost lost his life in rescuing two children from what seemed to be certain death in front of a fast train on the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad at the Amity street (Homestead) crossing yesterday afternoon.

Tures arrived in Homestead from the east yesterday in search of work and was standing near the railroad crossing when a woman and two children attempted to cross the railroad tracks in front of a fast approaching train, which they failed to see. The children were in advance of the woman. Tures rushed to them and pulled them out of the road of the train. The children were saved, but Tures was not quick enough to escape himself and the engine hurled him to the side of the track. When picked up by Alexander McCallister and Joseph Spires he was unconscious and suffering from ugly cuts on the head and body.

He was carried to a physician's office near by, where his wounds were dressed, and he was taken to the home of a friend on Sixth avenue. The woman and children disappeared during the excitement.

DEFAULTING TREASURER KILLS ALBERT HAMILTON, W. J. MALLARD AND HIMSELF

Wm. C. Turner Promises Certified Check in Settlement of Shortage, and Produces Automatic Pistol Instead.

ROOM CROWDED WITH MEN WHO RUSH THROUGH DOOR

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Oct. 17.—In the Broad Exchange building, one of the busiest marts in the very heart of the Wall street district, a triple crime was committed today which cost the lives of three well-known business men.

William C. Turner, formerly president of the Climax Bottle Manufacturing Company of 37 Murray street, shot and instantly killed Albert Hamilton of Pittsburgh and W. J. Mallard of this city. He then put a bullet through his own brain, and the three men died together in a little room not more than 10 by 15 feet in area.

Turner's crime was completed in the private offices of John J. Adams, a former representative in congress, who was one of the witnesses and narrowly escaped being one of the victims of the tragedy. Mr. Adams is a member of the law firm of Cantor, Adams & McIntyqre, the senior member of which is Jacob A. Cantor, president of Manhattan borough, and the junior member is John F. McIntyre, a former chief assistant in the office of the district attorney. Had the assassin's plans not miscarried, Mr. McIntyre would undoubtedly have been shot also.

Victims of Assassin.

W. J. Mallard was the secretary and he lived at No. 3 West One Hundred and First street, and leaves a wife and two children. During the Bryan campaign he was the president of the Young men's Democratic league, and he entertained Mr. Bryan at his home three years ago.

Albert Hamilton, the other victim of Turner's deadly aim, was one of the oldest bottle manufacturers of Pittsburgh, and the founder of the firm of J. T. & A. Hamilton, flint glass bottle makers, with a large factory at Twenty-sixth street and the Allegheny Valley railroad. He had a charming home at 409 South Highland avenue, Pittsburgh, where he leaves a wife and four children, two of whom are students at Princeton.

Turner's weapon was a new automatic magazine pistol. A second revolver, loaded in every chamber, was found in Turner's pocket, and it is believed he planned to take more lives than he did.

The shooting was caused by a quarrel between the three men over an alleged shortage in Turner's accounts, for which he was threatened with criminal prosecution.

Cousin of Gov. Odell.

Turner, who was 45 years of age and lived at Mount Vernon, N. Y., a suburb of this city, was a cousin of Gov. Odell of this state.

Mr. Hamilton arrived in this city yesterday in responce to a telegram from Turner received at Pittsburgh which said:

"Meet me in New York Friday and I will settle with you."

The three men met in the law offices by appointment to allow Turner to make a partial settlement and he was asked for a certified check.

"I have it," he said, and then he closed the door of the room. An instant later he drew a revolver and began firing.

Mallard fell, shot through the heart, and Hamilton lived only a few moments. A number of other persons who were in the room, clerks and members of the firm, fled in a panic.

After killing Hamilton and Mallard, Turner shot himself in the head. Some moments later, hearing no more shots, the persons who fled ventured back into the room and found the three bodies.

Shortage Is Discovered.

Turner retired as president of the Climax Bottling Company last April, when he was bought out by Hamilton. After the sale it was discovered, in examining the books of the concern, that there was a shortage of $5,100 in Turner's accounts. The Climax Company engaged John F. McIntyre, former assistant district attorney, and M. Goodman, both of the firm in whose offices the shooting occurred today, to effect a settlement with Turner, and Turner engaged Edgar Leventritt to represent his interests. Some difficulty had been met with in the negotiations, but it was finally agreed to accept $2,700 and give Turner a release in full. Last night it was agreed that the settlement should take place in the office of Cantor, Adams & McIntyre today at 11 o'clock.

Before he left the conference last night Turner anxiously asked that Mr. McIntyre be present at today's meeting, and Mr. McIntyre said since the shooting that he did not like Turner's manner yesterday, as the latter seemed to bear himself recklessly and with the demeanor of a man who might do almost any desperate act.

Turner Is Ushered In.

At the appointed hour today Turner, with his lawyer, entered the law offices. Mr. Goodman ushered Turner and his lawyer into the private office of Mr. Adams. Leventritt, it is said, told Turner to remain outside. Turner refused, saying that he wanted to close the matter at once. Turner immediately after entering asked for Mr. McIntyre and showed anger when told he would not be at the conference.

Negotiations for a settlement began at once, Messrs. Hamilton, Mallard, Goodman and Adams being present, besides Turner and his attorney. The conference at first was in the firm's general office, but later, Mallard asked to see Mr. Adams and Mr. Hamilton in Adams' private office, Turner having refused certain propositions.

While the conference in the private office was going on Turner walked in. His lawyer asked him for his check to be used in the settlement, and Turner said:

"Yes, I'll let you have it."

Turner Opens Fire.

Then Turner closed the door of the office. He was facing Mr. Mallard, who had asked him for the check. An instant after he had shut the door he drew a revolver and pointing it at Mallard said:

"I will kill you, you ——."

Then he fired two shots at Mallard.

Instantly there was a wild scream on the part of the others in the room. All except Hamilton dashed for the door, but Hamilton, when Turner fired, sprang at him to grapple. Turner was too quick for him, however, and dropping his weapon to a level with his victim's breast, fired.

There is no witness to what followed. Mr. Leventritt at the first appearance of the revolver, rushed out of the room, leaving his hat behind him. Goodman followed Leventritt and Adams jumped to his feet as soon as Mallard was shot, brushed past Turner and got out of the office.

As they left the room, more shots were heard, followed by two heavy falls.

There was consternation in the office. Clerks, boys and several women employed were for a few minutes too frightened to do anything.

Bodies Lie Close Together.

When persons connected with the law offices ventured back into the room they found the three bodies lying close together.

On Turner's body was found an unsigned telegram, reading:

"Telephone message received. Will accept $2,700, either from Hamilton or Mallard."

On Turner's corpse the coroner also found a certified check for $2,700. The latter is regarded as throwing a peculiar light on the case, for it is thought to indicate that Turner went to the offices with the probable intention of paying the sum which was to have settled the difficulty. If he did intend to pay, he changed his mind suddenly and decided to kill.

Leventritt Defends Turner.

Edgar M. Leventritt, who was Turner's counsel in the affairs preceding the tragedy, and who was present in the room at the time the shooting began, made a statement tonight in which he defended Turner against the charge that he was a defaulter.

"Mr. Turner," he said, "was not a defaulter."

According to Leventritt, Turner originally put up $5,000 in cash. His overdrafts amounted to $2,800, leaving $2,200 as the value of his holdings. Hamilton offered $2,000 for Turner's share, which the latter accepted, and the deal was closed.

Asked why Turner had been prevailed upon to agree to giving up a check for $2,700, Leventritt said:

"Turner was expecting a political appointment, which would be made impossible if the least hint of irregularity should be made against him."

The body of Turner was tonight taken to his late home in Mt. Vernon. Arrangements have been made for the shipment of the body of Mr. Mallard tomorrow to Atlanta.

Mrs. Turner Faints.

MT. VERNON, N. Y., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. Mamie Turner, the widow of William C. Turner, was heartbroken when she learned of her husband's act. She is in a delicate condition and the shock caused her to faint.

"Oh, my God! Will dead?" she moaned. "What will I do? It is horrible."

Turner lived with his family in Fifteenth avenue, Mt. Vernon.

Turner's reputation has always been that of "a bad man," although he was popular among his friends, and was notorious as a good spender. He always seemed to have plenty of money.

Mrs. Turner was a Miss Stuart of Texas, sister of Dan A. Stuart of Dallas, Tex., the noted sporting man.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 17.—William C. Turner was born in Highland Falls. His father, Robert Turner, a contractor, was one of the earliest settlers in this section.

MURDERER'S VICTIM WELL-KNOWN HERE

Albert Hamilton Was Prominent in Glass Business in Pittsburgh.

Albert Hamilton, the Pittsburgh victim of the New York tragedy, is well known here as a man of some influence and of high character. He has been junior member of the firm of J. T. and A. Hamilton, glass bottle manufacturers, since that concern was organized in 1879. The company operates flint bottle factories at Twenty-sixth street and the Allegheny Valley railroad and at Butler. Some months ago another plant at Blairsville was destroyed by fire.

Members of Mr. Hamilton's family and his friends here corroborate the New York report of troubles in the glass jobbing house there, which led to the tragedy. It is understood that it was the discovery of the alleged shortage of Turner in his accounts with the company that led to his being removed from his office as president and Hamilton being elected in his stead.

Dissatisfied With Turner.

For some time before Turner was forced out of the jobbing concern, which operated as the Climax Bottle and Manufacturing Company, at No. 37 Murray

THE BEEF TRUST WAS ATTACKED

J. B. Blanchard Points Out Evils to Live Stock Commission Men.

POWER IS ABSOLUTE

Combination Will Have Entire Control Over Producers and Consumers—Delegates Gather from All Over Country.

The annual meeting of the National Live Stock association was begun yesterday at the Hotel Schenley. The opening session was in the afternoon, and in the evening there was a banquet followed by a dance in the assembly room of the hotel.

The opening session was made lively by a speech by J. B. Blanchard of Omaha, who attacked the proposed merger of the beef companies. Mr. Blanchard was followed by W. F. Wiley of Sioux City, who upheld the beef barons in terms as strong as Mr. Blanchard's. In the course of his address Mr. Blanchard said:

"The meat combination, or merger, that I am going to talk about, is one that we are all thinking more or less about, but have no definite opinion as to its effect upon us or our clients' business. I have no plan of action or solution of the question to offer, but I desire to call your attention to a few thoughts on the subject. In the matter of capitalization, it is the largest except one, the steel trust; in its effect it is the most far-reaching combination ever consummated.

Comes Home to All.

"It not only comes home to the producer, but to every family in the United States, and many foreign countries will feel the effect of this gigantic merger for better or for worse. This combination was scheduled to begin operations on October 20, but owing to the peculiar condition of the money market, the political agitation throughout the whole country in regard to trusts and the unfavorable utterances by the president of the United States, it has been temporarily abandoned, but will be taken up and consummated as sure as time is to come.

"Our understanding is that this combination requires a capital of $88,000,000 to absorb the properties of the various packing house interests included in the merger, which represents the entire number now prominently engaged in buying live stock and selling the product, dressed beef. It would take $100,000 a day, clear profit, to pay 2 per cent annual interest on this immense capital, and should they elect to add $1,000,000 more of the watered stock to their organization it would take the daily profit of a half million dollars to pay 4 per cent interest on the stock so floated.

Power Is Absolute.

"Whenever this organization sees fit to begin its operations and float its watered stock it will place a mortgage on every head of live stock in the United States and all that will be produced so long as the combination exists. That mortgage has to be paid by the producer and raiser of live stock because the organization can buy without competition at a price that will warrant a profit as large as it may elect to receive, and sell the manufactured product at a value it may elect to name.

"We have educated ourselves and been taught to believe that competition is the life of trade. In our business we have always been able to find some man who is willing to pay more for a certain class of stock than another man; under the new arrangement the producer will come to market with his stock and find one buyer and one price. He has but one recourse, if he considers the bid too low and that is to take his stock home and keep it.

Opportunity to Do Good.

"Other markets would offer him no relief, he would simply be adding railroad charges to the value of them. He is helplessly in the hands of the combination and must accept the price it bids, and the consumer must pay the price it concludes to ask for the manufactured product.

"On the other hand, there is an opportunity for this combination to do a great deal of good to the producers and consumers in the country. If the promoters are honest in their intentions they can pay men for stock and sell the manufactured product for less than they are doing now, they can cut off innumerable expenses in the handling of both the stock and product and they can do with one man what they are now doing with 20. They can remove from both the buying and selling feature all competition, all middle profits and place the manufactured products before the consumer at less money in proportion than they have ever done before. But the question is, will they do it? Will they be honest in their intentions and can their statements be relied upon, when the temptation of such large profits is before them.

Merchants Interested.

"We, as commission merchants, have something to consider in this merger of packers. We have worked all these years to adjudicate and equalize freight rates, between country points and the market, to inaugurate a system in handling the stock in the markets without confusion of risk, to keep the producer posted as to market values, to assist him with money to feed and handle his cattle from year to year, to fight his battles in the market every day and make his business as profitable as it possibly could be with our assistance and his ability."

The executive committee made its annual report. The committee corresponded with the governors of different states to bring about a concert of action between the live stock inspection boards of the states and of the United States, and the state boards are trying to work out a solution of the question. The committee reported that it had labored without success against laws in favor of the dairy cow and against the beef steer, had encouraged the passage of the national irrigation law and had opposed the press in condemning the beef packers for the high price of meat during the last six months.

Many Delegates Here.

One hundred and fifty delegates are at the convention representing exchanges from the meat packing and selling centers of the country. Among those who addressed the meeting were W. F. Keys of St. Louis, G. H. Damsel of St. Joseph and H. H. Fletcher of Indianapolis. The afternoon was spent in sightseeing and the delegates and their wives drove about the city in carriages.

The banquet in the evening was presided over by Attorney J. J. Miller as toastmaster. Attorney James F. Burke spoke on "Pittsburgh," and led a dozen others who spoke about the cities they hail from. These were M. P. Buel of Chicago, Horace Wood of South St. Joseph, C. B. Van Norman of Milwaukee, W. A. Moody of St. Louis, N. F. Rodgers of St. Paul, Ireland Hampton of Ft. Worth, Bruce McCulloch of Omaha, F. C. White of Peoria, T. S. Graves of Indianapolis and Barney McMullen of Buffalo. S. W. Allerton delivered the address of the evening.

Ft. Worth, Tex., was selected as the next place of meeting. The election of officers will be at 10 a. m., today.

DEFAULTING TREASURER KILLS ALBERT HAMILTON

street, New York, there was dissatisfaction on the part of Mr. Hamilton and other members of the company because of the reputed sporting proclivities of Turner. He was a patron of the prize ring and the race courses and is alleged to have lost heavily in backing prize fighters.

Albert Hamilton when a young man associated himself with the O'Hara Glass Company, whose factory was then located in the Lawrenceville district at about Thirtieth street. He left this business to go with the W. H. Hamilton company, which now operates an extensive factory in Charleroi. In 1879 he and his brother, J. T. Hamilton, withdrew from the Hamilty company and formed the present concern, widely known as J. T. and A. Hamilton. A few years later Albert Hamilton became interested in the New York jobbing house, buying out the interest of C. T. Nightingale, now engaged in glass manufacture in Dunkirk, Ind.

Became Head of Company.

For a time Albert Hamilton was secretary and treasurer of the company, which prior to the present organization was known as the Climax Bottle Stopper & Supply Company, and W. J. Mallard, the other victim of the tragedy, was secretary. At about the time the trouble arose in the company Mr. Hamilton was made president in addition to his office of treasurer.

The widow is prostrated from the shock of her husband's death. Dr. Charles Hoffman is in almost constant attendance.

Albert Hamilton was born in Pittsburgh 56 years ago. He was a son of Daniel and Ruth Telford Hamilton. While employed by the O'Hara Glass Company at the outbreak of the rebellion he was anxious to enlist. He was not received at first because he was too young, but reaching the necessary age was enlisted in the One Hundred and Ninety-third Pennsylvania volunteers and was in service for a short time before the close of the war. He is a member of Alexander Hays post No. 3, G. A. R.

Albert Hamilton has always been a devout Christian, and at the time of his death was a member of the Shadyside Presbyterian church. He was a member of Pittsburgh Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar. In 1873 he married Miss Amelia McCreery, daughter of Joseph McCreery. She and four children survive: Miss Grace E., who is in Boston; James W., engaged in business with his father, Frank Arthur and Albert G., at Princeton university.

J. T. Hamilton, a brother, left last night for New York to arrange for the removal of the murdered man's remains to Pittsburgh. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

DR. BARCHFELD'S SERIOUS CHARGES

He Accuses a Citizens Party Leader of Having Offered Bribes.

Having heard that Dr. A. J. Barchfeld, a machine candidate for congress in the Thirty-second district, was to talk about bribery of legislators, and expecting to hear that he had a bunch of warrants in his pocket for nefarious corruptors of the legislature, a big crowd gathered in the Bedford school house, Twenty-ninth ward, last night.

Dr. Barchfeld read an affidavit, signed by George Ambos, Joseph G. Armstrong and himself, in which they say that, at a meeting of the Thirty-sixth ward machine club, on September 25, Dr. Barchfeld congratulated the audience on having an honest legislative representative in the person of Charles F. Heselbarth, who had refused a large sum of money to vote in the legislature for the ripper bill.

The affidavit further recites that after the meeting, in the house of Morris Grabansky, Heselbarth pointed to a man in the house as the man who had offered him $20,000 to vote for the ripper bill, representing that the money came from a leader of the present Citizens party. The names of both men are in the affidavit. The affidavit says that the man named as having offered the bribe admitted that he had offered it at the instance of the Citizens party leader.

Dr. Barchfeld charged that the same Citizens leader attempted to bribe Select Councilman Constantine Gallagher and Common Councilman Thomas Rodgers to vote against the resolution ousting E. M. Bigelow from the office of director of public works in June, 1900, but that the man to whom the money was given to hand over to the councilmen took it to Clarence Burleigh, then city solicitor, who sent his check for $1,000 to the leader from whom the money came. Another councilman, Barchfeld said, was paid $500 to vote for the resolution commending the administration of Recorder A. M. Brown and E. M. Bigelow, but voted against the resolution.

CONNER WANTS TO WAGER.

County Delinquent Tax Collector Takes Strong Exceptions to a Statement.

S. P. Conner, the county delinquent tax collector, has issued another statement, in which he offers to contribute $100 to a public charity or hospital if certain things come to pass. Conner refers to the Leader's assertion that a mandamus will be applied for to compel him to issue tax receipts to 230 citizens of the Twentieth ward.

Conner asserts that no application for a mandamus will be made; that if mandamus proceedings are entered they will not be prosecuted to a conclusion before election day, and that any court in which the proceedings may be filed will not sustain them. Conner agrees that he will not appeal from the decision of the court.

If proceedings are instituted and prosecuted, and if a judgment is entered against him, Conner agrees to pay out $100, on condition that the Leader do the same in case its assertions are not fulfilled.

STRICKEN BY APOPLEXY.

Superintendent of Ohio Hospital in Critical Condition.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Dr. Eugene G. Carpenter, superintendent of the State hospital, suffered a stroke of apoplexy and his condition is considered very critical. He is a man of magnificent physique and has never had a day's sickness in his life up to the present attack.

The attending physicians stated that the patient remained wholly unconscious until about 10 o'clock this morning, when he rallied slightly and partially regained consciousness. Tonight it is reported that he is resting quietly and that his condition is slightly improved.

WILL WAIT FOR MINERS' ACTION

As Soon as Wilkesbarre Convention Acts Arbitrators Will Work.

NO PROVISION FOR PAY

Members Must Look to Congress for Compensation—Gen. Wilson Sees President—Congratulations from Home and Abroad

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
603 Fifteenth St., N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.

Formal organization of the commission appointed by President Roosevelt to adjust the differences between the anthracite coal operators and the striking miners will not take place until after the official notification has been received from Wilkesbarre that the convention of miners has voted to accept and return to work.

Brig. Gen. Wilson, the first member named on the commission, and Edward Parker of the geological survey called on the president today and formally accepted their appointments. The various members will call on the president from time to time to discuss the situation until the formal organization, after which they will immediately begin the real work of investigation.

There is no legal provision at present to pay the expenses of this commission. Congress alone can take the necessary action to reimburse them, but this is a minor consideration, and every member will serve if he has to go into his own pocket for expenses. In discussing this question today the commissioner of labor, Carroll D. Wright, said:

"I do not believe that congress will make any trouble about it. It could find that a $10,000 arbitration fund, assigned to the now defunct industrial commission and never touched by them, is available for the purpose, and the bill of expenses could then be added to the first appropriation bill reported, namely, the urgent deficiency bill. It depends on congress also whether the members of the strike commission are to serve without compensation or not."

Telegrams of congratulation from all parts of the country continue to come to the White House, as well as cable messages from Europe, sent by friends and admirers of the president.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—E. E. Quirk, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors, one of the arbitrators, is in this city to attend a railroad employes' meeting.

"I have not been officially informed of my appointment," he said; "I will accept with pleasure. I am a believer in arbitration, but not in compulsory arbitration. I have a general idea of the duties of the commission."

Thomas H. Watkins, another member of the commission, said he had not yet been officially notified of his appointment.

SCRANTON, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Thomas H. Watkins tonight received official notice from President Roosevelt of his appointment on the strike arbitration commission. He has notified the president of his acceptance. Mr. Watkins had intended starting next week with his family for Mexico to spend the winter, but will forego this pleasure for the public duty.

"I feel highly complimented to be one of those to whom the president has committed this important task," said Mr. Watkins. "Just at this time it entails a great personal inconvenience, but I feel that this and other like considerations must be subordinate to duty."

SHAMOKIN MINERS SELECT DELEGATES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SHAMOKIN, PA., Oct. 17.—United Mine Workers' locals in this vicinity this evening elected delegates to the convention which meets at Wilkesbarre on Monday. The delegates are pledged to secrecy, but it is known that the majority of them are instructed to follow President Mitchell's advice.

Many miners here are opposed to entering the mines before tangible concessions are granted. They object to resuming work before the finding of President Roosevelt's commission is given, and predict a long and bitter fight in the convention.

Inspecting officers of Brig.-Gen. Wiley's staff arrived from Ashland headquarters today and inspected the camp of the Tenth regiment. They were accompanied by the commanders of all the Second brigade regiments and the senior regimental surgeons.

WITNESS FLEES TO MEXICO.

Man Wanted in Pittsburgh Violates His Penitentiary Parole.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Eugene F. R. Rose of St. Paul, convicted of forgery, out of Minnesota penitentiary on parole, has violated his parole, and Pittsburgh authorities will be disappointed, as he is wanted in that city as an important witness in the trial of a number of get-rich-quick operations prosecuted by the federal government.

Because of a slight mishap Rose was not pardoned. At a recent meeting of the state board a clerk failed to forward the letters of recommendation, and as a result Rose was still restrained by parole.

When news reached him that his testimony is wanted in Pittsburgh he fled to Mexico, it is believed.

FOR POSTOFFICE SITE.

McKeesport Public Square Can Be Bought for $25,000.

Postmaster Harrison of McKeesport returned last night from Washington, where he had a conference with David R. McKee regarding the use of the public square in McKeesport for a postoffice site.

The city cannot give the government a clear title to the site for the reason that the heirs of John McKee, the founder of McKeesport, hold a claim to it. David R. McKee told Mr. Harrison that he would relinquish all claim to the property for $25,000, or that he would give enough of ground for the postoffice building alone for $10,000.

FIELDS' CASE IS REHEARSED

Neshannock avenue, which follows northward along the bank of the Neshannock creek.

According to the story, the farmer went up one side of the street and the official proceeded along the other. After walking a few blocks the two men met and the farmer said that in a little while a vicious dog would run out into the street. Both men continued their journey and in a few minutes the vicious dog appeared, but afterward slunk away to a nearby house.

A short distance northward, under the direction of the Venango man, the official turned into a small alley leading to the creek bank. On reaching the water's edge the Venango man is reported as saying that at that point the murderer crossed the river. The creek was dragged at that point, and, according to the story, clothes that may have been worn or carried by the murderer were found.

The narrative continues in the farmer's appearing before the investigators afterward. By some thing that was said he was deeply affronted and left the room abruptly. He has not been seen here since, nor will anyone divulge his identity. It is the general belief here that if the story is true the man may have held most important evidence in the case. The question that arises is, Did this man have a confession from the murderer, who told of his crime and escape, remembering the place of crossing the river only by a vicious dog that ran from a nearby house and barked as he passed?

COLORED PREACHER SAYS HE WOULD FIGHT

The Rev. I. J. Smith of Pittsburgh Advises Negroes to Protect Themselves Against Lynching.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WILLIAMSPORT, PA., Oct. 17.—The Pittsburgh annual conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church this afternoon discussed the subject of lynching and disfrachising the colored men.

The Rev. I. J. Smith of Pittsburgh said that a mob once got after him in Kentucky, fractured a brother preacher's head and compelled him to swim a river to escape from them.

Continuing he said: "What the negro wants to do in cases of lynching is to stand up like a man and fight for his rights, church or no church. Don't tell me about praying for relief at such a time. Let somebody come into my house and strike my Becky and you will see what happens to him. I am a preacher, but I will fight if necessary to protect my family."

NEW GENERAL AT PANAMA

Colombian Minister of State Takes Supreme Command of Forces on the Isthmus.

PANAMA, COLOMBIA, Oct. 17.—Gen. Perdomo has notified the foreign consuls here that he had assumed the functions of supreme commander of Colombian forces on the isthmus as well as those of the minister of state.

"Except the department of Panama, where Gen. Herrera has his forces and a few guerrilla bands in the departments of Magdalena and Bolivar, the republic is pacified," he said today. "I have been very agreeably impressed with the American forces on the isthmus. As a result of my conversation with the American consul, I have no fear that any difficulty will arise between Colombia and the American forces here or the railroad company. I think the landing of United States marines has been effective in maintaining free transit over the isthmus."

Gov. Salazar of Panama says the report that Gen. Ferrandez has declared himself dictator of Colombia at Bogota is without foundation in fact.

ACTRESS ASKS $100,000.

She Asserts That a Business Man's Broken Promise Caused Her to Leave the Stage.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—A declaration of inquiry was filed in the superior court today by Louise Montague against John A. Davidson of Chicago, president of the Davidson Bros. Marble Company. Miss Montague asks for $100,000 damages. The plaintiff was formerly an actress.

The declaration alleges that Mr. Davidson promised to buy a house in New York for Miss Montague, and also to heavily insure his life, making her the beneficiary in the policy, on condition that she should leave the stage.

Miss Montague declares that she broke the theatrical contracts which she had entered into and relinquished the place on the stage which she had earned. She also declares that Mr. Davidson did not keep the promises which he had made.

WESTMORELAND HEARS PATTISON

Mount Pleasant, Scottdale and Greensburg the Towns His Party Visited.

ON REPUBLICAN GROUND

The County, Which Twice Gave Majorities for the Ex-Governor, Will Not Repeat the Performance.

By WALTER J. CHRISTY,
Staff Correspondent.

Greensburg, Pa., Oct. 17.—Pattison made a flying trip through Westmoreland today, but he will be disappointed in November. Twice has this county given him a majority. This fall the spell will be broken and Pennypacker and the entire Republican ticket will be elected by a wide margin.

Pattison made speeches at Mount Pleasant, Scottdale and Greensburg. In each town large audiences were present. Tonight the opera house was crowded, but there were few Republicans in the seats. The independents of the county are all standing by the Republican ticket. The factions of the party have been harmonized.

Ex-Gov. Pattison, G. W. Guthrie and James Nolan came here from Philadelphia this morning. They were met here by Judge L. W. Doty, Capt. John B. Keenan, John P. Head, Thomas Lynch, County Chairman H. S. Ackerman, J. K. Clark, W. S. Guffey, Joseph Guffey and others. Most of the gentlemen accompanied the candidates through the county.

The party left the train at Derry and from that point was conveyed in trolley cars to Mt. Pleasant, in the same town that Judge Pennypacker visited yesterday. The opera house was well filled. The meeting was presided over by the Rev. Samuel Warden. The candidates made their old speeches. Guthrie tried to show the people that the Democrats would be able to hold down the Republican majority in Philadelphia.

By special train the campaigners and about 200 Mt. Pleasant rooters were conveyed to Scottdale. The arrival of the party was announced by the blowing of most of the whistles in the town. O. W. Kennedy, Democratic candidate for congressman in the Twenty-third district, met the spellbinders at this point. Burgess J. P. Owens presided at the meeting, which was largely attended. Pattison, Guthrie and Nolan recited their troubles.

The Democrats reached here shortly after 4 o'clock and a reception was held at the Fisher house. Democrats from all over the county were in to see the candidates, but few Republicans called. There were a number of Allegheny county Democrats here, among the number being Timothy O'Leary, R. W. Guthrie, County Chairman Thomas B. Alcorn, S. B. Griffith, Steele Clark, S. J. Graham, Capt. Kerr and Hugh Craig. Charles Heineman of Butler, the Democratic nominee for congressman in this district, was present to take advantage of the opportunity to meet Westmoreland Democrats.

The opera house was engaged and the Democratic managers had arranged for an overflow meeting. It was found that the hall, which seats about 1,000 people, would be sufficient to care for all who cared to listen to the speeches.

The stage was filled with old line Democrats, Gen. Richard Coulter being among the number. Other dyed-in-the-wool members of the party like James Moorehead, Paul Gaither and A. M. Sloan had prominent seats.

Ex-Lieut.-Gov. Latta presided. He made some of the leaders quite nervous by the length of his speech. Pattison and Guthrie had about an hour to divide between them. They had to cut their tales of woe considerably.

Senator Penrose of Philadelphia, who spoke with Judge Pennypacker at Mt. Pleasant last night, spent a part of the day here, meeting Republicans. He is satisfied that Westmoreland will give a good Republican majority. The senator went to Pittsburgh to consult with a few of his friends.

PENNSY GETS THE LINE.

Reorganization of an Ohio Road Gives New Outlet to the Lakes.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 17.—The Louisville & Western Railway Company, a reorganization of the Columbus, Sandusky & Hocking railway, was incorporated here today with a capital stock of $2,500,000. Under the reorganization the Hocking Valley will have control of the part of the line included in the incorporation papers, extending from Zanesville to Columbus.

The north end of the old system, from Columbus to Sandusky, is to go to the Pennsylvania lines and be operated in conjunction with the Norfolk & Western, giving that line an outlet to the lakes.

All the officials of the old Columbus, Sandusky & Hocking will probably be let out, as the jurisdiction of officers of other lines will be extended to cover this work.

Fifth Victim Buried.

The little body of Adelaid Cawley, the fifth victim of her brother's murderous mania, was taken from the Allegheny county morgue to the undertaking establishment of Michael Wall in Homestead early yesterday morning and kept there until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when it was buried in St. Mary's cemetery at Homestead, with simple ceremonies. The funeral was attended only by the surviving members of the family who are still in Homestead.

SEVEN DEATHS WERE REPORTED AT MORGUE

Coroner McGeary Has Many Cases to Investigate from Yesterday.

Charles O'Donnell, 23 years old, of No. 4507 Nilsin street, was instantly killed at Ben Venue station yesterday morning by attempting to board a freight train.

O'Donnell was standing on the platform with Edgar B. Small, and suggested that both board the train. Small objected, but O'Donnell told him not to be afraid.

When O'Donnell attempted to board the fast moving train he fell and the wheels of the cars tossed his body high in the air, landing him on another track. Small did not attempt to get on the train, but when he reached O'Donnell he was dead.

Mrs. Sarah Young of Swain, N. Y., dropped dead in front of No. 115 Anderson street, Allegheny, yesterday morning at 1:25 o'clock. She was here on a visit to her son, Charles Young.

Herman Hnog, a steel worker, 27 years old, of Bellwood, died at the Mercy hospital at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon of burns received at the open hearth furnaces at Homestead on Thursday.

Steven Hegeden of Bishop, Pa., died yesterday afternoon at the Mercy hospital at 4:30 o'clock. Hegeden was a miner for the Pittsburgh Coal Company at Bishop. He was injured by a heavy fall of slate.

Charles Baird of No. 712 Fulton street, Allegheny, died at the Homeopathic hospital yesterday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock. He was 52 years old, and was stricken with a stroke of apoplexy early in the afternoon and sent to the hospital.

Victoria Johnston, 4 years old, who was burned in a lamp explosion at her home, No. 2220 Tustin street, Thursday night, died yesterday morning at Mercy hospital. She was a daughter of a Polish laborer, who carried the child to the hospital in his arms.

John Swisher, aged 21 years, a well-known young man of Hays borough, was found dead under the trestle at the Becks Run coal mine early yesterday morning. Swisher attempted to walk along the high trestle, when he stumbled and fell to the ground, a distance of 40 feet. When picked up his neck was broken and death had been instantaneous. He had been employed at the coal tipple for a long time.

Great Company Being Organized at Baltimore—Railroad Work to Be Its Specialty.

BALTIMORE, MD., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Bankers and manufacturers of this city are organizing a company to establish a great plant for the manufacture of steel castings. Philadelphia and western capitalists are interested. The plan provides for a capitalization of $2,100,000, of which $1,500,000 will be common stock and $600,000 7 per cent preferred stock.

The new plant will be at Curtis Bay, near the South Baltimore car works, and at the start will employ 500 workmen. The company will make a specialty of railroad castings, including car couplers. The concern will not compete with the Maryland Steel Company, but will purchase from the latter corporation much raw material. The South Baltimore Car Works Company is interested in the new concern.

DIED.

FROST—On Friday, October 17, at 3:30 p. m., MARGARET LOUISE, only child of Emil and Anna S. Frost, aged 8 months and 13 days.

Funeral from the parents' residence, 382 Edmond street, this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

MANY PIANOS

Purchased on Saturday Evening at Hamilton's Old Reliable Music House

Persons who are so occupied during the week that it is inconvenient for them to visit a store except on Saturday evening should remember that Hamilton's music house always remains open Saturday evenings till 10 o'clock. You can get just as good attention at this old reliable store Saturday evenings as at any other time.

It is quite probable that you have long been thinking of a new piano for your home. Well, now is the time to make up your mind where to purchase the instrument, for Hamilton's special prices are offered to induce prospective purchasers like yourself to make their selections before the rush incident to the busy winter season. Your instrument will cost you more if you buy it later. This is as certain as if you had already paid a higher price for it. And this announcement is for the benefit of all persons who are anxious to save something of the regular price.

Of course, it is not necessary to call your attention to the character of the stock assembled at Hamilton's, for this is not only the best known music house in the state, but it does the largest business and at all times carries more instruments than any other concern. The most famous pianos are included in this stock, which numbers the great A. B. Chase, justly called an art piano for artists; the J. & C. Fischer, the Schumann, the Hamilton, the Smith & Barnes, and numerous other high-class instruments. However, "high-class" does not imply high prices—at Hamilton's. Here you can buy a really meritorious piano for $200 and upward. The reputation of this great music house is the customer's guarantee of satisfaction. You know just what to expect when you select an instrument at this store. You know that you will be pleased, for Hamilton's simply cannot afford to sell any but reliable makes.

Come in and learn how much you will be allowed for your old piano as part payment on a new one. It will be accepted at its full value.

Write if you cannot call.

RING DENOUNCED IN ALLEGHENY

Greatest Meeting in City's History Was Held in Carnegie Music Hall.

CROWD WAS ENORMOUS

Speakers Bombarded Machine and Throng Roared Its Approval—Best Citizens Were Out in Force.

The lecture room of the Carnegie library, Allegheny, was filled to overflowing last night with a meeting of the Citizens party. The meeting was enthusiastic throughout, and the denunciations of the machine were heartily applauded. It was the greatest meeting in Allegheny's political history. David B. Oliver presided and made a brief speech opening the meeting.

The audience arrived without the aid of a street parade and all its red fire embellishments. It was a gathering of representative, honest voters, while a number of women, having the welfare of their city and county at heart were present. The entire meeting was marked with a refinement unknown to average political gatherings, and the fact that the lecture room, with 1,100 seats, was packed to the walls and out into the street, amply attests the popularity of the Citizens movement.

Mr. Oliver introduced as the first speaker the Rev. B. F. Woodburn, pastor of the Sandusky Street Baptist church, Allegheny, who made a spirited address, urging the defeat of the "iniquitus gang now in power," and earnest support for government by the people.

Is a Public Duty.

He said that he did not intend to apologize for his presence at a political meeting, but rather to apologize for others of his class who were afraid to ally themselves on the side of right. "It is within the province of a minister of the gospel," he said, "to criticize the king if he be unfit for office. It is not only within the province of we ministers to protest against the deplorable state of affairs in this county, but it is our duty."

Dr. Woodburn was followed by D. F. Patterson, a Democrat and a prominent member of the bar of Allegheny county. He said in part:

"Political parties should be equally divided so that the minority power party can hold those in power in check. But there comes a time when all intelligent and honest voters must sink all party differences and take up arms against a common enemy. During the civil war Democrats and Republicans marched shoulder to shoulder in battle to preserve the union. Is there a principle now in danger?

People Face a Great Issue.

"Have we government for the people and by the people? Or have we a government by a great machine run for the benefit of the people on the payrolls and those that placed them there? A thousand times the latter. This is the greatest issue the people have had to face since the civil war.

"Honest voters and workers are not wanted within the ranks of the party in Allegheny county. That is why hundreds of people are here tonight and have been attending other meetings in the cause of reform.

"It is true, too, that those whose names are signed every month to the payrolls know the constitution. But it is not the constitution of the United States they know, nor yet the constitution of the state of Pennsylvania. The constitution they know and they are letter perfect in that, is their own robust, fat, well-taken-care-of constitution.

"What we want in this county and city is a police department for the people, not for the police; a fire department for the people, not for the firemen; a department of public works in the interests of the people, rather than in the interests of a corrupt gang of polluted ringsters. The system of affairs we want is one which the people can attain alone by voting for the candidates of the Citizens party irrespective of party politics."

George R. Wallace, a Republican and a member of the Pittsburgh bar, spoke upon the controlling of elections by the ring. He said that he believed in fighting corruption in the party within party lines, but that things had reached such a state in Allegheny county that this was impossible. And that the only solution was a coalition with the opposing party against a common enemy of all the people. He expressed his confidence in the success of the Citizens ticket.

Mr. Wallace was followed by Dr. Cadwallader Evans, chairman of the committee of 32. Several new political songs were sung by the Anthracite Miners' Glee club.

CITIZENS HAD TWO BIG MASS MEETINGS

Democrats Also Gather Voters—Appeal for Fusion in Third District.

Numerous Citizens mass meetings were held last night. One of the most enthusiastic was in Vorwaert's hall, Eighteenth ward. Prior to the meeting there was a street parade in which several hundred voters joined. Campaign issues were discussed by H. Kirke Porter, W. S. Woods, George H. Stengel, W. B. Rodgers, James A. Wakefield, Jere Doherty and John W. Moreland.

Another large meeting was that held in Charles hall, in Bellefield avenue, in the Fourteenth ward. Among the speakers were Jeremiah Dunlevy, H. K. Porter, Samuel J. Graham, H. L. Goehring, E. Y. Breck and U. G. Vogan. Citizens mass meetings were also held in Knox school, Thirtieth ward, in West Liberty, Brushton avenue school and East McKeesport last night.

Meetings are scheduled for tonight as follows: Wickersham school, Twenty-fourth ward; Monroeville school; Lyceum building, McKeesport; Citizens club, Pitcairn; Duquesne headquarters for colored men, and West End auditorium. Two big Democratic mass meetings will be held tonight, one at the Carnegie auditorium, Braddock, and the other at Penn hall, Wilkinsburg.

At a Democratic mass meeting held in Licht's hall, Fifth avenue, Thursday night, the following resolutions were adopted under pressure of the Alderman Martin faction:

> We, the Democratic citizens of the Sixth ward, in public assembled, do herewith earnestly request that the Citizens party of this legislative district, in the interest of good government, harmony and that we may be better able to crush the gang in this legislative district, withdraw one of their candidates for legislature, in favor of one of the Democratic candidates, so that a complete and united fusion ticket may be had in this Third legislative district.

LEWIS IS CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL

Buffalo Man Arrested for Attempt to Fleece Pittsburgh Millionaire and Others.

Charles Lewis, alias James Butler, of Buffalo was lodged in jail last night charged with barratry. The commitment was made out by Alderman Anderson and the arrest is credited to Roger O'Mara. This is the first time in many years that a case of this kind has come up before the local authorities.

Lewis is charged with attempting to get money from many residents of Pittsburgh under the threat of prosecution. It is said that his attack here has been on a certain millionaire and that Lewis has given him quite a lot of trouble.

The Pittsburgher, whose name could not be learned last night, did not respond to the threatening letters, but placed the case in the hands of detectives, with the result that Lewis was run down yesterday afternoon and lodged in jail.

When brought before Alderman Anderson yesterday afternoon and charged with barratry Lewis refused to say a word. Lewis came here from Buffalo several days ago. He is a rather fine looking man and well dressed. He first began his operations in Pittsburgh, so it is alleged, by sending threatening letters to the various proprietresses of disorderly houses in the lower avenues.

He is said to have sent letters to nearly every woman in the district, and Detective O'Mara last night secured quite a number of these letters. The appeals for money were accompanied with the threat that if a certain sum was not sent to a certain place by a certain time suit would be entered against the proprietress.

Lewis was held last night in default of $300 bail. He will be kept in jail until next Tuesday, when additional evidence will be collected and furnished against him. His hearing has been set for Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

SOUTH SIDE LIBRARY.

Site at Ninteenth and Mary Streets Opposed by League.

The South Side Library league last night decided to oppose the site at Nineteenth and Mary streets for a branch of the Carnegie library. An offer of a room in the Morse school as a distributing branch was declined.

The Rev. S. A. Hunter reported that in a conversation he had had with W. N. Frew and Director McCandless, he had been told that if the South Side people would take vigorous action they would get a library within a short time. A committee, composed of the Rev. J. M. Thomas, Dr. William McCracken and Dr. J. P. Kerr was appointed to draw up resolutions to be presented at a public meeting to be held on November 13, when the matter will be thoroughly discussed.

Prisoner Created Sensation.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Adam Kirkwood, a 25-year-old fugitive from justice, who escaped from the officers at New Castle after sentence to the workhouse, was arrested here yesterday. Sheriff Brown of Lawrence county came here today after him. Kirkwood created a sensation on the street by shouting that he was being kidnaped and succeeded in attracting such a large crowd that the officer was compelled to draw his revolver. The fugitive was finally landed on the train in safety.

Objections May Be Dropped.

Attorney John P. Hunter, who on Thursday filed papers attacking the indorsement by the Democratic party of the nominees of the Citizens party, on behalf of the Ballot Reform party, said yesterday that the proceedings might not be pressed to an issue, as he had filed the objections only because the nominations of the Ballot Reform party had been attacked in the Dauphin county court. Since then the Dauphin court has sustained the nominations of the Ballot Reform party.

HAPENINGS OF THE DAY.

—Four cases of typhoid fever, four of scarlet fever and two of diphtheria were reported to the bureau of health yesterday.

—Charles Beard of No. 712 Fulton street, Allegheny, died yesterday at the Homeopathic hospital. He was stricken with apoplexy.

—The district council of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators last night indorsed the candidacy of Joseph G. Armstrong for the legislature from the Fifth district.

—The regular meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce will be held next Monday at 2:30 p. m. The railroad ordinances before councils will probably be discussed.

—The Sheet Metal Workers' union last night voted $200 to the fund for the striking miners.

—North Braddock councils last night awarded a contract for the building of a new $1,900 fire engine house in the First ward to Frank Rossell.

—At a hearing before Magistrate McGarey at the Central police station yesterday morning J. E. Hensler, colored, was fined $10. Police Inspector Fred Will investigated the case, and Officer A. J. Kelley was vindicated of the charge of drunkenness made by the prisoner.

Y. W. C. A. CONVENTION OPENS AT INDIANA

Young Ladies Discuss Questions Pertaining to the Association.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

INDIANA, PA., Oct. 17.—About 75 delegates are here in attendance at the annual convention of the Young Woman's Christian association of Pennsylvania. The convention will be in session three days. The morning prayer service was led by the president, Mrs. L. M. Yates of Scranton. Miss Jane E. Leonard, preceptress of the Indiana Normal school, made the address of welcome. S. D. Gordon of Cleveland led a quiet hour service, his theme being "The Channel of Power."

A conference on college work was held in the Presbyterian church at 10:30 o'clock. It was led by Miss Ruth Paxton, student secretary of the American committee. At the same hour Miss Emma Hays, city secretary of the American committee, conducted a conference on city work in the Methodist Episcopal church.

Miss Alma F. Hunt of Reading, was in charge of the afternoon service of song. At its conclusion Mrs. S. B. Linhart of Blairsville College for Women, led a season of prayer for college work in which a number of the girls made fervent supplication for help in this branch of Young Woman's Christian association work. In the general conference on "How may associations and state secretary be most helpful to one another," remarks were made by Miss Brown, Pittsburgh; Miss Lorena Given, Clarion; Miss Alma Hunt, Reading; Mrs. Samuel Leinbach, Reading; Miss Emma Hays and Miss Lilly Strong, Scranton.

At the evening session the Rev. W. H. W. Rees of Pittsburgh delivered an address. Saturday morning the convention will be tendered a reception at the State Normal school.

PHYSICIAN IS ALARMED.

Tells the Court that Health Conditions of Washington County Towns Are Deplorable.

WASHINGTON, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—As the result of a statement to the court by Dr. Alden Davis of Charleroi, the court has appointed William Davis of Allenport health officer for Allen township, to succeed A. M. Biles, resigned. Dr. Davis alleges that the health conditions in Allenport, Dunlevy and Vesta, this county, are deplorable. He says:

"In Vesta alone I have attended 63 cases of typhoid fever since July 1, while scarlet fever and smallpox have run rampant without notice. The schools are crowded, with at intervals a case of smallpox in their midst, and yet not more than 20 pupils have been vaccinated. Children are permitted to remain in school while there is contagious disease at home."

ELECTED TWO BISHOPS.

United Evangelical Conference Chooses Officers at Williamsport.

WILLIAMSPORT, PA., Oct. 17.—The general conference of the United Evangelical church elected the Rev. H. B. Hartzler, D. D., of Harrisburg, former editor of the Evangelical, and the Rev. W. F. Heil of Allentown, formerly corresponding secretary of the general conference, as bishops for four years at a salary of $1,400 per annum. S. L. Weist was elected a publisher; Bishop W. M. Stanford, editor of the Evangelical; Bishop Dubs, editor of the Evangelichse Zeitschrift; the Rev. W. H. Finks, editor of Sunday school literature and Keystone League Christian Endeavor Journal.

Conference elected these officers of the missionary society: S. L. Weist, president; U. F. Swengel, secretary; A. M. Sampson, corresponding secretary, and J. G. Mohn, treasurer.

ADDRESSED BY PITTSBURGHER.

Y. M. C. A. Begins District Convention at Beaver Falls.

BEAVER FALLS, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The Young Men's Christian association of the Pittsburgh district began its annual convention here this afternoon with a large attendance of delegates. It will continue tomorrow and Sunday. At the First Presbyterian church a fraternal conference, conducted by Robert A. Orr of Pittsburgh, was held. His subject was "What Specific Thing Do You Do in Association Work?" The Rev. J. D. Moorhead, D. D., pastor of the church, delivered the address of welcome.

After the conference a supper was served to the delegates and members by the women of the different congregations of the town. One hundred and fifteen people sat down to the banquet, 85 of whom were out-of-town delegates. Many delegates will not arrive until Saturday morning.

Big Coal Plant Sold.

GREENSBURG, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—A big deal involving a half million dollars was closed today, the Painter & Fogg interests having sold their two works along the Sewickley branch spur of the Southwest Pennsylvania railroad to the Leetonia Iron Works Company of Ohio. The deal includes the transfer of a large acreage of coal, two mines and over 100 coke ovens. The new company will increase the output of the plants.

STATE AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

WAYNESBORO, PA.—Mrs. Anna Cook hanged herself at her home at Russell, near here.

STEUBENVILLE, O.—An Italian railroad laborer, John Cromil, was killed at Rushrun by a train.

WARREN, O.—The National Electric Lamp Company, already having six factories in the United States secured a site in Warren for a brick plant to be built at once and to employ 500 persons.

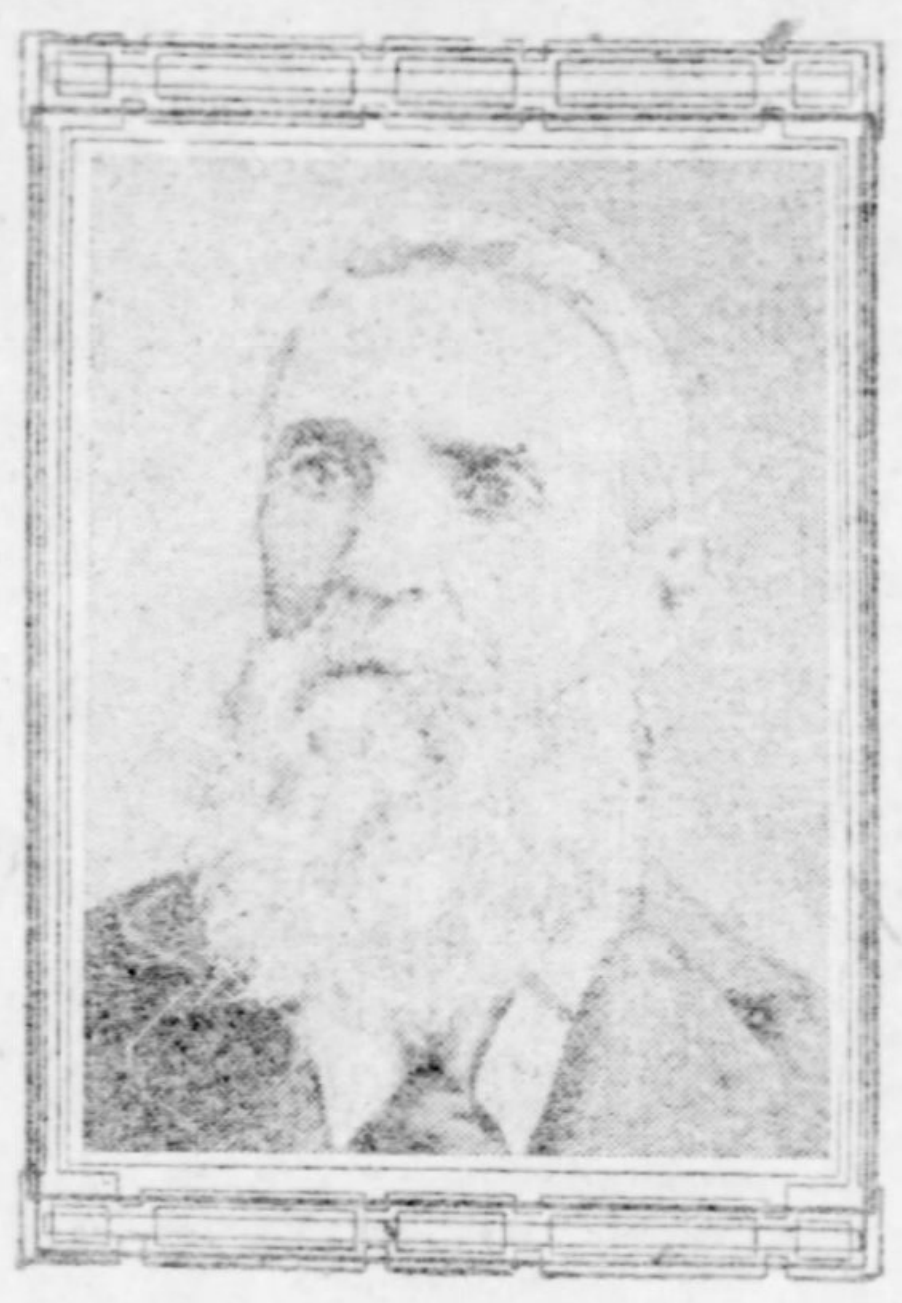
FRANKLIN, PA.—John D. Graham fell over the banister of a porch at the Grant house to the basement, a distance of 12 feet, breaking his neck and dying instantly. He was a printer from Clarion, Pa., aged 24 and unmarried.

GREENSBURG, PA.—Lewis Liverpool, a negro, of Mt. Pleasant, died at the county home of hydrophobia. He was bitten five weeks ago by a mad dog, but it was not until this week that the symptoms of the disease developed.

YOUNGSTOWN, O.—John McKee, who came here from New Castle, was found dead at the foot of a 20-foot wall being constructed by the Youngstown & Sharon electric railway, with his back broken. The police believe he was assaulted, robbed and thrown over the wall.

STEUBENVILLE, O.—The Jefferson county grand jury reported for the second time Daniel Scott, colored, has two first degree murder indictments against him and Andrew Anderson one for second degree. The condition of the jail was scored severely and some alterations recommended.

HAS BEEN COUNTY CLERK FOR OVER THIRTY YEARS



David Hickman.

SISTERSVILLE, W. VA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—There is perhaps not a clerk of any county in any state more conversant with the records than David Hickman, who has been clerk of Tyler county for over 30 years. In 1863 he was elected clerk of the board of supervisors. In 1873 he was made clerk of the county court, and has held the position ever since. Mr. Hickman is the candidate on the Republican ticket for re-election in November.

YOUNGSTOWN FAMILY POISONED BY COFFEE

One Woman Is Dead and a Man Has Been Placed Under Arrest.

YOUNGSTOWN, PA., Oct. 17.—The death of Mrs. Mary Joseph, an Arabian, aged 53, by poisoning revealed what the police think is a wholesale attempt to poison the family. George Iupe and Chady Joseph, cousins, and William Abraham, a son-in-law, are in a serious condition after drinking the coffee supposed to have contained the poison.

Nicholas Joseph is under arrest on suspicion. The coffee was made late last night and this morning when the family assembled for the breakfast, the men began to drink it and became suddenly ill, but the woman swallowed half a cupfull. She was at once taken ill and died this afternoon. The family had been living in a house with Nicholas Joseph, but left there yesterday. Joseph went to the house last night and according to the story of Abraham, Joseph was looking into the cupboard when he returned with a pail of water.

It is said that Joseph, whose wife is an Arabian, did not object when the dead woman and the son and daughter-in-law lived at the house, but when other relatives came, there was a quarrel. When they left Joseph was angry.

TRACKS GORGED WITH COAL.

Railroad Unable to Haul Product from Monessen Mines.

BELLEVERNON, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Sixteen hundred coal miners in this immediate vicinity are losing two days of work every week because the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railorad has not sufficient tracks to store loaded cars. The coal cannot be shipped as fast as it is mined and is left standing until Sunday, when a general clean-up is made.

The 10 mines south of Monessen put out 313 cars of coal a day. The tracks at the mines hold but 248 loads, while the storage tracks will accommodate 306 more. Other sidings, holding 113 cars, can be used. This makes a total track room of 803 cars. Deducting what coal is taken out on Sunday, by Thursday night every track is full and the mines are compelled to close down.

PANIC ON FERRYBOAT.

Overhead Wire Broke and Craft Floated Toward a Dam.

BEAVER, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Great consternation was created at Vanport this afternoon by the breaking of the overhead wire cable of the ferry between Vanport and Bellowsville on the Ohio river. A horse and buggy and several ladies were on the ferry at the time and the current carried the boat rapidly down the river towards the dam at Merrill.

The ladies were almost frantic with fear of being drowned or dashed over the dam. The plucky ferryman and his assistants finally landed the ferry by towing it ashore by means of a skiff, and all were landed safely. A great crowd gathered on the bank to render any assistance.

JUSTICE SUED FOR DAMAGES.

Bellevernon Man Wants $10,000 for Alleged False Imprisonment.

BELLEVERNON, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—John Miller has brought suit against Jacob Roley in the Uniontown courts to recover $10,000 damages for false imprisonment. Mr. Miller is a carpenter here and Mr. Roley is a Bellevernon justice of the peace.

Mr. Miller had made an information against Mike Serco before Justice Roley, charging him with assault and battery. Serco had a hearing and was discharged. Mr. Miller was directed to pay the costs. This, it is said, he refused to do, whereupon Justice Roley is alleged to have committed him to the lockup.

FRANK RILLING KILLED BY FAST TRAIN AT ERIE

Brother of Former Democratic Chairman Meets Instant Death.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ERIE, PA., Oct. 17.—Frank Rilling, brother of the Hon. John S. Rilling, ex-chairman of the Democratic state committee, was instantly killed early this morning on the outskirts of the city.

He was in a carriage with a well-known woman, Minnie Decoursey, and attempted to cross the Lake Shore tracks ahead of the Twentieth Century limited express. He was badly mangled, as was also the horses, and the carriage was completely wrecked. The woman escaped with only a few slight bruises.

TO BUILD A FOUNDRY.

Contract Awarded for a New Industry at Claysville.

CLAYSVILLE, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Ground will be broken in a day or two for a foundry and machine shop in the Brockman field, below the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. The contract for the building has been let to the Riverside Bridge Company of Martins Ferry, O., and they are to be completed in 90 days.

A charter was recently granted to N. B. Brockman, H. H. Miller and J. W. Grimes, the company to be known as the Claysville Foundry and Manufacturing Company. The machinery and all necessary equipment have been contracted for and will be delivered as soon as the building is under roof. The railroad company will run a siding to the building.

MAJ. BROWN LAID UP.

Rheumatism Compels Him to Cancel Speaking Engagements.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Isaac F. Brown, Republican nominee for secretary of internal affairs, is confined to his house in this city with a severe attack of rheumatism, which may compel him to cancel his speaking engagements for the campaign.

Brown arranged to make his initial speech next Thursday at Meadville and to accompany Judge Pennypacker on his tour. He has been in ill health for a month.

Killed by a Cider Mill.

KINGWOOD, W. VA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Eli Moore, a prominent farmer, was fatally injured and his son Walter was killed by the bursting of an improvised cider mill near here today. They had taken an old mill stone and rigged it up in a threshing machine for an apple crusher. They attached steam power and the mill revolved so rapidly that the stone burst, hitting both men.

Two Injured in a Wreck.

IRONTON, O., Oct. 17.—The westbound express on the Norfolk & Western railway collided with an eastbound freight train near Portsmouth today in a heavy fog. Engineer "Bally" Haynes of the passenger train suffered a broken jaw and other injuries. Engineer Brown of the freight had his ankle broken. Eighteen passengers were badly shaken.

Arrestd While Praying.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Mike Mills, excited and almost breathless from incessant praying, was taken from St. Joseph's Catholic church here today by an officer. Mills entered the church and began praying. He would not stop, and as his prayer was disconnected and at times incoherent, an officer arrested him on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

LARGEST PIANO HOUSE BETWEEN N. Y. AND CHICAGO.

Largest Stock of Pianos in Pittsburgh

It is a fact worthy of note that Pittsburgh has a Piano House that handles annually more pianos than any other in the country outside of New York city and Chicago.

But more than that, W. F. Frederick, whose house is referred to above, has the exclusive agency for a very large territory for a greater number of recognized high grade "standard" pianos than any other dealer in the United States, without any exception.

This is a distinction and is full of meaning to all who want to buy a piano. A dealer whose business is sufficiently large to justify many manufacturers of fine instruments in giving him exclusive agency is worthy of your patronage.

W. F. Frederick has exclusive agency for (genuine) Chickering, Hardman, Kroeger, Behr Bros., McPhail, Haines & Co., Gildermeister & Kroeger, Strich & Zeidler, Gabler, Schubert, Foster & Co. and other pianos, not merely pianos with a title, but with a name known and respected.

Where can you see so many?

What's more, our list starts off with the world's very greatest—the greatest of the great, the Chickering, the oldest piano in America and accredited by the leading musicians and critics of the day as the best piano ever produced—best today as it has been the best for nearly a hundred years—the leader at beginning of the 20th century as it was the pioneer at the beginning of the 19th century.

Besides having the agency for the above named pianos we sell Estey and Mason & Hamlin Organs, and the latest and beyond doubt the best of all, the Chase & Baker Piano Player. So, does it not strike you that when you want a musical instrument you should go to W. F. Frederick, 633 Smithfield street, near Seventh avenue. Entire building. G. Schroeder, Manager. Easy terms.

THREATENED DEATH FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE

Saved by Pe-ru-na.

The Remarkable Experience of an Old Lady 84 Years of Age Whom Pe-ru-na Cured of Catarrh of the Kidneys.

CONFINED TO HER BED.

BEGAN THE USE OF PERUNA.

Rode Seven Miles in a Carriage to Do Some Shopping After a Few Weeks' Use of Peruna.

MRS. SUSANNAH McHENRY OF BURBANK, CAL.
HALE AND HEARTY AT THE AGE OF 84 YEARS THANKS TO PE-RU-NA

BURBANK, CAL.—Mrs. Susannah McHenry, now of this place, was attacked with kidney complaint while living at Billings, Mo., and was advised to come to California in the hope that a change of climate might help her, but this it failed to do, as she was confined to her bed, and the doctors in attendance had finally told her they could do nothing for her.

It was then she began to use Peruna, and had improved so much within a few months that on April 8 last, she rode seven miles to Los Angeles, spent the forenoon on a shopping tour, and at noon tripped up a long flight of stairs to have her photograph taken. Her letter reads as follows:

"I think I owe my life to the use of Peruna. I have tried innumerable doctors and medicines, but of no avail. The doctors gave me up, saying they could do nothing for me, as my death was only a matter of a short time.

"Then I began the use of Peruna and am glad to say that instead of being confined to my bed with the dread kidney complaint, I am up and about.

"I am 84 years of age, yet I rode seven miles to Los Angeles, spent the forenoon shopping, and climbed a long flight of stairs to have my photo taken to send to the Peruna manufacturers as a sample of what their valuable medicine has done for me.

"I candidly believe I would have been in my grave today but for the use of Peruna."—Susannah McHenry.

Kidney Trouble in October.

Look out for kidney trouble in October. The heat of summer is past. The activity of skin perspiration has ceased. During the hot months a great portion of the blood poisons have been eliminated through the skin by sweating.

In October the cold days and nights put an end to this and throw the whole responsibility upon the kidneys. The kidneys are obliged to do an extra amount of work. This is very likely to lead to kidney diseases.

More cases of kidney disease originate in October than all the other months in the year. Catarrh of the kidneys is very apt to set in when free perspiration of the skin is stopped. A short course of Peruna is very desirable to prevent this. At least those who have experienced any warning symptoms of kidney disease should begin Peruna without delay.

Catarrh of Kidneys.

Peruna reaches the seat of the difficulty by eliminating the catarrh from the kidneys. Even after all other remedies have failed, Peruna brings prompt relief.

Catarrh of the kidneys in October has become so established in this climate that it is stupendous folly to neglect any precaution. There is no use to take diuretics. There is no use to take remedies that simply stimulate the kidneys. What is needed is a remedy that operates to cleanse the kidneys of all catarrhal taint.

This is what Peruna will do. Peruna is absolutely unique as a remedy for this class of diseases.

Take No Substitute.

Substitutions for Peruna are, without exception, frauds. Peruna is in a class all by itself. Nothing is just as good. Nothing can be substituted with any success whatever. Insist upon having Peruna. Beware of substitutes. Be sure that you are using Peruna. Never allow anyone to persuade you that he has a remedy that will do the same thing that Peruna does.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

SIXTEEN PAGES.

It seems impossible to hold an election under our present ballot system without a great deal of litigation. The courts have gotten far enough along with the task of deciding who have been nominated to enable us to know that there will be eight party tickets on the official ballot in this county. The process of nomination has become so complicated that the opportunities of voters may at any time be restricted or even closed up upon technical points. And then when the ballot gets into the hands of the average voter it is often a puzzle for him to determine how he shall manage to vote as he desires.

This complicated ballot system is curiously enough an outgrowth of the Australian ballot system, which as used in the country of its origin and as adopted in England and Canada is simple, secret and sure. In none of these countries, however, are administrative positions filled by popular election. The people control the government and do not impair their control by direct participation in administration. Very few names appear on the ticket—usually three—and voters readily pick the representative of the party they wish to support. In this country elective offices are so numerous that the ballot assumes a monstrous size, and in practice is neither simple, secret nor sure. The present tendency is to swell the ballot by multiplying party tickets, a practice encouraged by the fact that the ballots are supplied at public expense. In Australia any party presenting a candidate for the official ballot must pay its proportionate share of the expense.

There was never any popular demand for the present ballot system, and it has not worked well anywhere. It is often claimed that if the candidates should be grouped by offices, and voters be thus debarred from voting a party ticket by a cross in the party circle, the system would work well, but that has been tried in Massachusetts and misplaced or doubtful markings vitiate many ballots in every election there. A system has been worked out in Connecticut which is consonant with traditional American practice, and which accomplishes all that has been claimed for the Australian system. Political parties print their own ballots, but must use paper furnished by the state. A voter can scratch and alter his ballot as he pleases, leaving on it only the names of those for whom he wishes to vote, but when the ballot is cast it must be enclosed in an official envelope furnished at the polls. This sort of ballot really is simple, secret and sure, whereas the present burlesque upon the Australian ballot is complicated and uncertain, and from the length of time a voter struggles with it a pretty safe guess can be made whether he is voting straight or trying to split the ticket. Under the Connecticut system nominations can be made by any party that chooses to do so without having to go to court for the privilege, and voters can take their own time to fix their ballots before coming to the polls.

In the lives of nations as in the lives of men events of cardinal importance come on the stage of affairs quietly and unobtrusively and their significance is not usually appreciated until their results are experienced. Such an event may turn out to have been the recent order of the navy department organizing a West Indian squadron under Rear Admiral Coghlan, with the Olympia as flagship, and including also the Cincinnati, Montgomery, Newark, Raleigh, Detroit, Marietta and Machias. The battleship Wisconsin, under Rear Admiral Casey, is at Panama keeping open the isthmian railroad. With chronic revolution in the countries around the Caribbean sea there will be steady work for a squadron there to safeguard American interests, and this will in the end lead to definite control of Central American affairs by the United States. It ought not to have been left to a German gunboat to destroy the insurgent Haitian vessel Crete-a-Pierrot, and perhaps that event acted as a hint to our navy department that if we do not want to see European fleets policing American waters we must undertake that duty ourselves.

The Cincinnati was sent to Haiti after the German exploit there, and has just given refuge to the revolutionary leaders who have been whipped out by the government forces. In Colombia and Venezuela, as well as in Haiti, revolution appears to have reached its final stage, but nobody supposes that stable government will follow. After a breathing spell the revolutionary game will be renewed. If this sort of thing went on in Europe there would be a general demand for action by the great powers to suppress anarchy and establish orderly government, and it is difficult to see why a similar moral duty does not rest upon us as regards countries within our sphere of influence. Events are forcing such a duty upon us whether we like it or not. We have at present practically assumed sovereignty over the isthmus of Panama, and the government of Colombia was not allowed to use the railroad for the transportation of troops or munitions of war while such shipment incurred danger of attack upon the railroad. We take this position in discharge of our obligation to maintain free transit across the isthmus, but it is plain that in practice this means that the United States wields actual sovereignty, and hence has incurred the duties of sovereignty—the protection of life and property and the discharge of the functions of government.

With the example of other Central American countries before us it is amazing that we should have ever entertained the idea of thrusting Cuba out to shift for herself. It is still more amazing that there should be any idea in any quarter of allowing the islands of the Philippine archipelago to become political derelicts. Nothing is more certain than that such action would turn the islands over to anarchy. The Malay race has never produced a nation, but left to themselves always break up into warring tribes. With some of them warfare and piracy are the most honorable employment in which good and brave men can engage, and only force can compel them to live by industry rather than rapine. If we freed them from control and guaranteed their independence we should need to keep a big navy in these waters to keep order and prevent European intervention. Indications are that we will need all the naval strength we can muster to uphold the Monroe doctrine in our own part of the world.

COSTLY ROADS ARE NOT GOOD.

Complaints have been frequent concerning the high cost and inferior quality of the macadamized roads constructed in this county under the Flinn law of 1895. These complaints are well founded. The roads are not satisfactory, either in materials used or methods of construction, though they have cost so much or more than first-class roads built in other parts of the country. Attention is freshly called to the matter by James Evans, Citizens party candidate for county commissioner, who has given the subject careful attention. Mr. Evans says in his statement:

> Of the 63 miles completed, according to the controller's report, the average cost has been about $17,660 per mile, on which repairs for two years after completion have cost annually an average of about $459 per mile. Considering the very high construction cost of this work it should certainly have been of a more permanent character, and $450 a mile per year for repairs for the first and second years is by no means a nominal charge. In a very few years at this rate the annual repairs would consume the whole tax contemplated by the act of '95.

An average cost of $17,000 a mile, as Mr. Evans says, should procure a roadway less costly in repairs than the $450 a year, per mile, expended upon these. The average cost in New Jersey has been from $10,000 to $12,000 a mile, and the repair bills are materially lower than those of Allegheny county. New Jersey is not favored to the extent shown either in cost or character of available materials, or in conformation of territory traversed. Data compiled by the bureau of road inquiry, United States department of agriculture, shows few roads, indeed, as costly as our own in first construction or annual repairs. The information so succintly given by Mr. Evans is available to every citizen who cares to ponder the public reports or examine the roads. In fact it has been a matter of general public knowledge.

This brings to the question of what is the cause of the deplorable state of these roads and the remedy. No one longer questions the public policy of having good roads. The cause is a lack of rigid requirements in contracts specifying material and construction; of effective inspection or of enforcement of penalties. The remedy is a thoroughly business administration in the county commissioners' office to secure what has been lacking, regardless of the interest of contractors. In brief, to get for the taxpayers what they pay for.

An opportunity is offered in this direction by voting for Mr. Evans, who fully understands the matter, and who, as the servant of the people, would bring to the conduct of public affairs those qualities that have brought success in his private business. Unless such a check is put upon the methods that have prevailed it will not be long until the entire amount of money available for road purposes under the law of 1895 will be absorbed in making repairs to the roads, leaving a vast portion of roadways unimproved. It is susceptible of proof that better roads can be built of furnace slag at less cost than with the materials that have been imported into this county where slag is abundant. The same results may also be had with other materials.

AN AMERICAN INVASION.

We have heard much for some years past of "the American invasion" of Europe and of England, and across the water many statesmen have been in a somewhat perturbed frame of mind because of it. Owing, however, to the great prosperity of our own country, the American invasion of Europe that took the form of manufactured products has slackened and Europe has been called on to supply a part of the increasing American demand, so that European alarm is now less in evidence. But the invasion that took the form of working capital, projected into foreign enterprises, continues to be no less active, particularly in England, and more especially in London, and American men of millions are using them with good effect. The Westinghouse invasion from Pittsburgh is a phase of the movement that is of local interest, and closely associated with it are the efforts of J. P. Morgan and Charles T. Yerkes, who have been rivals for underground railway privileges in the British metropolis, but who now, according to special advices to The Gazette, are considering whether some combination of interests does not promise greater profits than keen rivalry and competition. It is interesting in this connection to learn that the combined capital involved in these subterranean enterprises exceeds the capital of Mr. Morgan's newly floated ship combine by $30,000,000. As the British Westinghouse concern, aided by the Pittsburgh Westinghouse interests, will supply much of the electrical and other equipment for the London underground railways, this large feature of the American invasion is of importance to local capitalists. Other American interests have also found the British metropolis a profitable field, but they have been somewhat overshadowed and concealed from view by the greater operations.

An American invasion of British territory that has attracted less attention from Americans has created a considerable stir in Canada, which is the beneficiary of it, where it is welcomed. The American invasion of the gold fields of the Canadian Yukon country made more noise, but the American invasion of Canadian wheat fields greatly exceeds it in real importance. It has been going on for two years, and long enough for the Americans to raise at least one crop that is now on its way to the markets of the world. The Canadian papers discussed it all summer and into the harvest and are not yet done congratulating Canada on it. The American invasion of Canada is an invasion of men and money. In 14 months about 36,000 Americans have gone to Canada to stay—at least until they sell out at a good profit. A report by Mayor Arbuthnot of Winnipeg, Manitoba, that American settlers have bought 5,600,000 acres of the Canadian northwest this year shows where most of them have gone. Large numbers of these settlers went from North Dakoto, and they went in lesser numbers from other prairie states. They were able to sell their American farms at good prices and buy farms in a part of Canada where the land is just as fertile for one-quarter to one-half as much per acre as their old farms netted them. They, therefore, appeared in the Dominion as capitalists, and as such they were gladly received. Their places in the Dakotas and elsewhere in this country were filled before their departure, so that in Canada's gain the United States suffered little material loss from its abundance. But for Canadian rejoicing it might have been unnoticed here. Perhaps the northern movement will continue, though there is a limit beyond which it cannot go. If nothing else the influx of population into Canada will work an equalization of land values that will check the folk movement. The strong position of the United States in the financial and industrial development of the world is indicated in the invasions by its people of diverse foreign fields, and in the circumstance that this country is no loser through them. On the contrary the exercise of our surplus energy in the new directions has been an additional source of profit.

THE BUSINESS SITUATION.

It is customary during periods of extremes in business for large interests to supplement the public agencies for gathering information by making private investigation as to real conditions. All the surface indications continue to testify to large and prosperous trade. Is the foundation for this trade actively sound? This question has received more attention during the past few weeks than ever before, and it is gratifying to record that the answers to private inquiry are generally satisfactory. One large New York bank, for instance, reported during the past week, after an extensive investigation in mercantile circles, that there has been no undue expansion of credits and that the trade outlook is good. Similar investigation in the west of trade tributary to Chicago and St. Louis resulted in like reports, with the addition that jobbers are increasing earlier orders for merchandise. The practical settlement of the anthracite coal strike not only removes a source of national apprehension and clears the industrial horizon, but it will revive activity in a section where business has been prostrated for several months.

Our foreign commerce also shows remarkable expansion. The imports of merchandise for September were, with one exception, the largest for any month in the history of the country, reflecting an unprecedented demand for consumption in the face of an almost unexampled output of domestic products. The exports were valued at $115,500,000, an increase of $8,000,000 over the corresponding month last year, and with one exception the largest September total on record. For the first time this year the exports of farm products exceeded those for the like month of last year, and the abundance of our crops and the demand from foreign consumers warrant the expectation that this class of shipments will increase to the maximum of previous years.

There has been some relaxation of the monetary stringency which prevailed during the first two weeks of the month, but the extraordinary demands of general trade, financial syndicates and the stock market upon banking credit promise to maintain firm rates for the remainder of the year. Accommodation of these varied interests comes in the order enumerated, and the official reports of the comptroller of the currency make it plain that all cannot have their wants simultaneously supplied. The consolidated statements of the 4,601 national banks showed that on September 15 there had been an increase during the two preceding months of more than $58,000,000 in loans and discounts, and a decrease of nearly $62,000,000 in cash, while the average reserves held barely covered legal requirements. Domestic sources of relief in the way of additional supplies of loanable funds have been practically exhausted, and thus far foreign government banks have succeeded, by the usual policy of raising rates of discounts and advancing the price of gold, in obstructing imports of gold.

With general business apparently on a sound basis, with the largest crops ever harvested now ready for market, and with the consumption of manufactured products still greater than the production, there is nothing in the situation to cause uneasiness to anyone unless it be to the speculative trader on margin, in the stock market. The available banking credit of the country is already strained in meeting the requirements of legitimate trade, and a resumption of the wild speculation of last summer would likely bring trouble for participants when settlement day came around at the end of the year.

Nacodoches has set a good example for the remainder of Texas to follow in the legal execution of a negro, albeit public opinion hurried the expiation. The delay of 30 days, granted by the court, between conviction and execution was not unreasonable, though the crowd seemed to think it so. The condemned man, however, prevented the disgrace to the community of a probable lynching by waiving his rights under the law and permitting the hanging to take place at once. Most of the credit of an orderly procedure belongs to the victim, yet the case is an illustration of the effectiveness of the law, when rightly applied, and of its superiority to the mob spirit.

One American, the Boer generals say, has contributed more to their fund than all Germany. They wish they had come here first. It would have been good policy had they done so, but they will still find money and sympathy here when they do come. American sympathy goes to the under dog in a fight and does not expire with his defeat after a plucky struggle. It is to be feared European sympathy with the Boers was merely hatred of England, and its expression based upon the hope that the Boers would win. It is not so in the United States. It is the Boer defeated who needs assistance to rebuild his home.

A bad situation is created in the Twenty-fourth congressional district by the decision of the Dauphin county court that Congressman E. F. Acheson has not been legally nominated. It is a situation that warns emphatically against a continuance of the go-as-you-please conferree system with its hold-up attachment. A general law governing district nominations is a necessity of th time.

Secretary Shaw's announcement that he will buy 4 per cent bonds of 1925 for the sinking fund is an evidence that the government has money to spend if any one desires to part with the goods. Things were different when Mr. Cleveland's secretary of the treasury was selling bonds to get money with which to run the government in a time of profound peace.

The government's crop summary for the world indicates a wheat yield everywhere that is larger than that of last year. Even in Australia the long and disastrous drouth has been broken by copious rains. Yet it is quite certain the surplus wheat of the United States will find a market at good prices, mainly in Great Britain and Germany.

Celebration of the centennial of the Presbyterian Home missions is an event of importance in church history. During that period no man can compute the good that has been accomplished by that auxiliary of a great church establishment.

Though Mr. Zeigler announces a severance of his relations with Explorer Baldwin he intimates he is not ready to abandon the pole discovering business without making another attempt. The pole will not move while he is preparing his expedition.

Naturally there is some disappointment on the part of the Democrats that their scheme to capture the Union party by making up a fraudulent roll went awry, but they ought not to expose their disconsolateness to the populace.

TAMMANY DIFFERS WITH DAVID HILL

Not Quite So Much in Favor of Gum-Shoe Campaigning as the Big Leader Is.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

Democratic politics in this city has led to differences of opinion between David B. Hill's immediate followers and Tammany hall. There is nothing remarkable about this. Hill has issued orders to his henchmen not to talk through the newspapers, because he believes he would not get fair play, he says; while the braves at the Fourteenth street wigwam favor a statement in the newspapers of the exact plans for carrying on the campaign. The assertion that, in a city of Democratic ascendency, the newspapers are not likely to give the Democratic candidate for governor fair treatment, will strike most people as peculiar, suggesting, as it does, that there must be something wanting in the candidate when the organs of his own party will have none of him. This is the argument of Tammany hall. It cannot see why Bird S. Coler should not be properly supported by the press of New York, considering that, personally, he is a commendable young man with a record of which he has no reason to be ashamed. That Coler has little chance of winning is confessed by everyone. The question is whether Hill's plan of campaign is not likely to make his showing on election day worse than it needs to look upon Coler's candidacy as something of a joke, notwithstanding that the young man has always taken himself seriously. The half-smiles with which his name is usually greeted are partly his own fault, however. His determination not to know that he was nominated until his official notification of the fact has had something to do with it, and his self-satisfied acceptance has completed the job. Hill believes in a silent campaign. Whether that will prove to be a wise method will be seen in due course; but against that there is the obvious determination to be exceedingly active in every other way. Hill has buried the hatchet with Tammany. How he will stand with them after that fateful Tuesday in next month, when the votes are counted, is another story.

Pittsburgher's Murder a Great Shock.

The tragedy in the Wall street district, which included the death of one of Pittsburgh's prominent residents, has caused a great sensation here. New York is used to murders; but the cold-bloodedness of the homicide of this morning, with the prompt suicide of the murderer, startled the people out of their ordinary attitude of impassiveness. It was just a little too much, even for New Yorkers.

Actress Hit With a Brick.

Things are coming to a pretty pass when actresses must be hit with bricks in the interest of their press agents. Alice Fischer, an artist of talent and repute, was going home in a cab after last night's performance when a man in evening clothes hurled a brick at her cabman and hit her on the cheek. Let no false impression be entertained, when it is said that her cheek was not seriously hurt. It happened to be a glancing blow, that is all; but it makes a good newspaper paragraph today. I believe Alice Fischer is booked to play in Pittsburgh some time this winter.

Coal Famine Closes a School.

Even though the strike is over, 700 pupils of a public school in Brooklyn were dismissed today because there was no coal to keep the building warm. The principal would not take the responsibility of keeping the children shivering all day, saying that they could be better cared for at their homes. This incident shows that, while the strike may be over, certainly the coal famine is not.

Margaret Carnegie's Pet at Home.

Margaret Carnegie's "hairiest-headed and biggest lion in the world" was brought ashore from the steamer Pennsylvania today and taken to his new home in the Bronx zoo. It was a chilly morning and the winds that blew across the pier seemed to ruffle the lion's temper. He was in a rampageous humor throughout the entire process of getting him to the pier and thence to the wagon which conveyed him uptown, and his roars kept the hundreds of spectators at a considerable distance. Andrew Carnegie's young daughter may pride herself on the fact that she has indeed presented a royal lion to New York city.

Watching the Registrations.

Mobs of men gathered about insignificant doorways today might have caused curious speculation as to what they could be doing there, were it not that everyone with a vote is anxious to be registered. The mobs were merely the hangers-on of registration places, trying to calculate what the vote will be from the personnel of those that registered. It was mostly guess work, however, for there is an exceedingly close watch kept on all proceedings connected with the ballot this year. McCullagh, state superintendent of elections, and his deputies have sent several fraudulent registering voters to jail already.

Molineux Watching Every Point.

Only 11 jurors have been obtained in the Molineux trial, although it was hoped that whole 12 would have been sworn in before adjournment this afternoon. The panel was exhausted, however, and the case has gone over until Monday, with one juror still to be found. It is believed that little time will be occupied in completing the jury, and that Osborne, the prosecuting attorney, will get through his opening address in the course of the day. He has said that he will occupy about four hours. Molineux takes a marked interest in the proceedings in court, seeming to pay much closer attention than he did at first. He is working up into the case, as it were, and it was remarked more than once this afternoon that his attitude was rather that of counsel than the prisoner on trial for his life.

Wall Street Property Going Fast.

Sales of real estate in Wall street follow one another rapidly. It is a common thing to read of some valuable plot, on which are old-fashioned buildings, in this district, being sold for large sums, and it is fair to presume that there will be very few of the ancient structures left there in four or five years. Fraunce's tavern seems to be safe, but it was a hard job to keep it out of the hands of building speculators. The latest sale in that neighborhood announced is that of a five-story building at the corner of Wall and Front streets, with a plot 33.9 by 35.5. The price is about $80,000. Frederick Beadel is the purchaser, and as he already owned adjoining property, he has a lot fronting 84.6 feet on Wall street and 71.10 feet on Front street. This is taken to mean that a gigantic office building will go up on that corner.

One of the Old Guard Drops Out.

Police circles are excited over the resignation of Inspector Harley, one of the old guard. Harley had been on the force more than 30 years, beginning as a patrolman, and promoted as sergeant, roundsman, captain and inspector, and was regarded as the best man in the department to handle street mobs, parades and other gatherings calling for particular executive police ability. He had been somewhat under a cloud of late because he could not, or did not, repress gambling, and it is understood that this was the main reason for his resignation. He was a popular man with his associates, and the public, but no one can be found to deprecate his getting out when he felt that his day of usefulness had fled.

The All-Powerful Doorkeeper.

The double murder and suicide in the Broad-Exchange building was being discussed in the Waldorf-Astoria lobby by a group of business men this evening. Said one: "The affair suggests that it is absolutely necessary to keep a man on guard at the doors of offices, to prevent Tom, Dick and Harry getting to representatives of a firm. Yes, I know that the men concerned in this tragedy this morning were all admitted properly, and that a doorkeeper had no reason to keep them out; but the fact that a murder can be done in a business place, in the heart of the liveliest quarter of the city, shows how cautious New Yorkers are obliged to be. Suppose that man Turner had not had an appointment with his victims, but had gone there to kill them, without any other business. Do you suppose he could have got at them? Not if he had been as strong as an elephant. He would have been held up at the door, and if he had been known as a desperate man, with possibly bad intentions, he would not have got past. As we all know, there is no tougher proposition in a day's experience than the boy or man guarding the outer portals of a suite of downtown offices. He is deaf, dumb and stupid when it comes to trying to persuade him to let you pass, and his monumental vacuity when asked personal questions about his employers is simply appalling. Yes, Hamilton and Mallard would be alive tonight if Turner had been compelled to deal with the law firm's doorkeeper." And the other men all nodded a grave acquiescence.

A Bit of Sentiment Lost.

It is reported, on the authority of an assistant district attorney of this city, that Mrs. Roland B. Molineux has been estranged from her husband for many months. The story goes that she did not answer several letters written to her from the Tombs by her husband, and that he ceased writing to her. If this report is true, it robs the murder case of one of the most interesting romantic features, and one which brought more sympathy to the accused man than anything else in connection with his case. Now that Blanche Cheesebrough Molineux is said not to care for him any longer, he is not such a charming sufferer in the eyes of sentimental women as he used to be. There is no justice in this, but very much of human nature, particularly feminine human nature.

Buncombe Coal Schedules.

The price of stove anthracite coal was today fixed officially at $15 a ton. About 150 members of the retail coal exchange met and decided on these figures, which is a cut of $5 a ton from yesterday's ruling figure. The schedule might be of a little more utility were there more coal to be bought. Unfortunately, it is as scarce as it has been any time during the strike, and the general feeling is that by the time one can buy coal freely it will have got down to a price not much above what it was at the beginning of the strike. There is a great deal of buncombe about these coal schedules, anyhow.

Parkhurst as Strenuous as Ever.

Dr. Parkhurst and his merry men are busy. It seems as if the reverend gentleman inhaled a lot of extra energy with the Swiss mountain air he breathed all summer, for his Society for the Prevention of Crime was never more active than now. Three of his detectives raided a pool room late this afternoon with much theatrical eclat. They found the place at the back of a saloon two or three blocks' from the doctor's own residence in East Thirty-fifth street, and they rushed seven men down to the criminal court building for arraignment. Dr. Parkhurst did not take a hand in the raid personally, but it is understood that he suggested the wisdom of seeing what was going on behind the saloon to attract so many men at all hours. The doctor is still resolved to clean up the city, whether he has the backing of the city government or not.

J. P. Morgan Will Help Defend Cup.

Now that he has the coal strike off his mind, J. Pierpont Morgan is giving attention to his favorite recreation, yachting. It is unofficially announced that he will again head the syndicate of yachtsmen that is to build the new America's cup defender. If there is anything that will make Mr. Morgan forget the worries incidental to his business in Wall street, it is a controversy on the merits of 90-footers he has known, with the chances of Sir Thomas Lipton "lifting" the cup next time. He smiled as he talked about the racers this afternoon, and was altogether the genial old salt that his friends know him whenever he gets on his favorite topic.

Carnegie Libraries to Absorb Others.

It is likely that a number of smaller public libraries in New York city will be absorbed by the Carnegie libraries. This was the tenor of a statement made at the meeting of the board of estimate this afternoon. Controller Grout asked whether this would happen if the Carnegie buildings were placed near the small libraries, and the library authorities said that there was little doubt that this would be advocated and effected. There is every indication that in the course of a few years Carnegie libraries will be virtually the only kind in the city, aside from the great Astor-Lennox-Tilden library on the site of the old waterworks in Forty-second street.

Women's Show a Successful Venture.

The woman's exhibition at Madison Square garden will come to an end tomorrow. While the affair has not set the town in a ferment of joy, it seems to have been a fairly prosperous venture. All kinds of funny rows have sprung up in the course of the two weeks, and an honorary president of the F. W. L. retired in dudgeon. But, taken on the whole, the lady policemen, lady waiters, lady ushers and lady stallkeepers have had a pleasant time and made everyone comfortable. William A. Brady, as director-general, has covered himself with glory and the box office returns are impressive enough to vindicate the opinion of the women at the back of the show that they knew what they were about when they planned it. MORE CROP SAMPLES.

Sam Frum of Clinton district has handed the Post the largest ear of corn seen this year. It measures 13 inches in circumference and is a very fine specimen.—Morgantown Post.

James Trilley of Housum brought to the Opinion office a beautiful specimen of the mulatto corn, of which he has 26 acres. Two of the stalks in his field were of unusual length, one of them 14 feet 5 inches and the other 15 feet. The variety is very prolific and will yield handsomely when husked. Mr. Tulley formerly recided at Ft. Loudon and is well pleased with his new home.—Chambersburg Public Opinion.

James Billett of Monroe Center brought to this office the largest pair of pears that it has been our pleasure to see this season. Each one weighs a pound and a half. Mr. Billett remarked when asked what variety they were "The Carey Sheldon kind, true Republican." The tree upon which the two mammoth pears grew was planted by our townsman, W. W. Kinney, when he occupied the farm now owned by Mr. Billett.—Conneaut Post-Herald.

THE DEATH ROLL.

James Hunter, Sr.

James Hunter, Sr., a former president of Allegheny common council and for many years a prominent politician of the North Side, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home, No. 3623 Perrysville avenue, Allegheny, of heart disease, in his 59th year. Mr. Hunter was born and reared on the North Side. On reaching his majority he entered politics and in 1876 was elected to common council. In the year following he was chosen president of that branch, which position he held until 1889, when he retired. Mr. Hunter was a popular politician and on the North Side was familiarly known as "Jim" Hunter. Mr. Hunter was for many years engaged in the lime business in River avenue and for about 30 years was a leading business man. He retired about one and a half years ago. Mr. Hunter was a veteran of the civil war and a member of Col. Alexander Hays post No. 3, Grand Army of the Republic, of Allegheny. He was a member of the First United Presbyterian church, Allegheny, and is survived by nine children: H. M. L., Percy E., James F., Jr., Samuel K., an employe of the Allegheny city engineer's office; Jack R., Chester A., Helen Rainey, Mary Lois and Curtis Carr Hunter. He is also survived by one brother, John K. Hunter, and four sisters, Mrs. W. F. White, Mrs. A. S. Glenn, Mrs. J. W. Thompson and Mrs. F. J. Cluley. Mr. Hunter's wife died seven months ago.

JAMES HUNTER, SR.

Arthur Kidd.

Arthur Kidd, a pioneer resident of Turtle Creek, died at his home there yesterday morning after a long illness, resulting from asthma. Mr. Kidd was born in Scotland, April 10, 1836, and came to this country in 1863, settling with his family at Turtle Creek. For a number of years he was employed by the New York and Cleveland Coal Company, but during the past 12 years he has conducted a general store. He was a member of the Methodist Protestant church, the Ancient Order of Odd Fellows, Daughters of Rebeccah and of the Ancient Order of the Knights of the Mystic Chain. A widow and three daughters survive him.

Charles T. Tomlinson.

Charles T. Tomlinson of Braddock died early yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Bunn, No. 222 Woodville avenue, West End. He was born in England 58 years ago, and came to America, settling in Braddock 20 years ago. He was a bricklayer at the Edgar Thomson plant of the Carnegie Steel Company. Two months ago he went to make his home with his daughter. He is survived by his wife and three children, Mrs. John Bunn, Pittsburgh; Charles and Earnest Tomlinson, Braddock. The deceased was a member of the Congregational church.

Obituary Notes.

Mrs. Richard Schoenian, 28 years old, is dead at the family home in Bauerlein street, Millvale. She was a member of the German Lutheran church and is survived by her husband and two children.

Mrs. Annie E. Colbert, 31 years old, wife of George F. Colbert of Butler, is dead at the home of her mother-in-law, No. 409 Lincoln avenue, East End. Besides her husband, two children survive.

Francis G. Keilerman, 76 years old, a former hotel proprietor of Penn avenue, is dead at his late home, No. 317 Wylie street, Esplen. He was a native of Germany and is survived by his wife and five children.

Wilford Dwight Thompson, 35 years old, a well-known oil man, is dead at his home at Traveskyn station from injuries received by being struck by a lever on Wednesday. His wife and one child survive.

John H. Lehner, 67 years old, a member of Company G, Fifth regiment, Pennsylvania heavy artillery during the civil war, is dead at his late home, No. 1929 Sidney street, South Side. His wife and eight children survive.

PERSONALS.

It was a jolly crowd of 50 which gathered about the banquet board at the Hotel Victoria to celebrate the 70th birthday anniversary of Joseph Buffum, the Market street business man, last night. Mine Host Smith had elaborately decorated the room and tables, and with the excellent menu of the season's dainties, made the material part of the occasion a success. Mr. Buffum had for his guests his employes and Judges E. H. Stowe and Josiah Cohen, the Hon. Henry Caurs, ex-mayor of Rock Island, Ill.; Attorneys W. M. McElroy and Leon J. Long. J. E. Baylor acted as toastmaster and introduced the various speakers in a happy manner. Speeches were made by Mr. Buffum, Judges Stowe and Cohen and others, all in a style that added joy to the occasion. Before the guests departed they presented Mr. Buffum with a memento of the occasion and joined in wishing him many happy returns of the day.

At a meeting of the national board of underwriters at Cincinnati yesterday Charles W. Scovel of this city was one of the principal speakers. He was called upon to make the presentation speech in an essay contest, in which the Ben Williams vase was awarded to Williard J. Hamilton of the New Jersey association.

Col. Samuel Harden Church, secretary of the board of trustees of the Carnegie institute, went to New York last evening to visit Whitelaw Reid, the editor and proprietor of the New York Tribune, who has been invited to make the principal address on Founder's Day at the Carnegie institute.

Senator Boies Penrose, the Hon. S. W. Pennypacker, William H. Brown, William T. Schaffer, Col. N. E. Flood and J. A. Leeds were in the city yesterday for about two hours and registered at the Hotel Duquesne, as "the Republican campaign party."

Atorney Frank H. Guffey has returned from Nome, Alaska, where he spent the summer months. He has made a trip to Nome each summer for three years.

The Bucknell university football team is registered at the Monongahela house.

CLOTHES DO NOT MAKE THE MAN

An Incident Taught One Boy a Valuable Truth He Remembers.

"YOU can't judge a man by the clothes he wears," said Edward H. Hill. Twenty years ago my father had a jewelry store in Smithfield street and I was employed as boy of all work. One evening a poorly-dressed, rough-looking man came into the store, and my father, thinking he was after alms, told me to see what he wanted. I stepped up and was about to tell him we could do nothing for him, when in a gruff voice he asked to look at a gold watch.

"I was completely surprised, and thought I would cut his curiosity short by showing him one of the most expensive timepieces we had. He took the watch, examined it in detail and asked if that was the best we had. On being told it was valued at $150 he said it would do. You can imagine my surprise. I had never made a big sale before.

"'Now, sonny,' said the man, 'have you got a chain to correspond with the watch?' I showed him one of our heaviest gold chains. He then wanted to look at watch charms and selected a good locket. He put the locket on the chain, fastened the chain to the watch, put them all in his pocket and asked me what the damages were.

"'Two hundred and fifty dollars,' I replied, expecting to see him hand back the goods. Instead he loosened his vest and reaching into a leather belt around his waist drew out a number of large gold nuggets, gold coins and several valuable stones. He counted out the amount of his bill and started to leave the store. Upon reaching the door he turned and in a gruff but earnest voice said:

"'Say, my boy, Kinney is my name—M. P. Kinney. I am a miner just returned to the east from the diggins in California. I have been in Pittsburgh all day and tried to buy this outfit at several jewelry stores, but you are the first person who has treated me like a man.'"

A gray-haired man, bowed with age, whose wrinkled face showed the effects of exposure to sun and wind, stepped from a Baltimore & Ohio train from the west Wednesday morning and walked slowly up Smithfield street. Stepping into Mr. Hill's store he laid a gold watch on the counter.

"Say, mister," he said in a feeble voice, "my name is Kinney—M. P. Kinney of California. Here's a watch I bought here 20 years ago, and bein' around these parts again I thought I'd just drop in and see if the piece needs cleanin'. I have been all over the country since I bought that watch, and it's more'n likely got a little dust in it."

Mr. Hill took the watch, and shaking hands with the old man told him of how, 20 years ago, in the garb of a California miner, he impressed upon him the truth of the old saying "You can't judge a man by the clothes he wears."

⁂

A FEW days ago the president of a big manufacturing concern, which has its offices in the Frick building, received a letter from a friend in New York to the effect that he had made him a present of a fine, large, St. Bernard dog. The letter stated that the dog had been comfortably crated and would arrive in Pittsburgh the following morning. The president, being a great admirer of dog flesh, could scarcely wait until this shipment of live stock arrived. The next morning he instructed his office boy to purchase a collar and chain and go to the depot for the dog. Arriving at the depot the boy made known the object of his early visit.

"Yes," said one of the depot men, "there's a St. Bernard dog here, and the sooner you get it out of this place the better we'll like it."

The dog had become tired and cross as a result of its long journey, and when it arrived in the Smoky City it was in what might be called a "touch-me-not humor." The office boy strutted up to the large cage with the air of a lion tamer, but at the first glance from the canine he turned a back somersault out of harm's way. The little fellow was determined to land his game, however, and made a request for a hatchet, which was granted. The depot gang by this time were scrambling in all directions for places of safety. With a more cautious step the boy again approached the dog (this time from the rear) and proceeded to open the crate. The animal, to the amazement of the depot men, never made a move. The boy then fastened the collar and chain and started for the Frick building.

The second chapter, however, is not so much in the boy's favor. He had been so successful thus far with the wild beast that he began to have visions of riding in one of P. T. Barnum's gold-painted wagons at a salary of $10,000 per ——. In order to display the dog to a few thousand people he began a promenade down Fifth avenue, but had only gone a short distance when the dog caught sight of a "fellow being" and made a leap for liberty. The long chain become entangled around the pedals of two or three pedestrians and the fun began—(for onlookers).

For a few seconds eye witnesses debated with each other as to whether the office boy would alight on the top of the new Farmers' bank building or on the West End car barns. All were wrong, for the little fellow possessed quite a bit of acrobatic ability, and after repeating a few of Creatore's stunts in midair, he landed on his feet unhurt and undaunted. He gave chase and captured the troublesome canine as it was entering the Exposition.

On delivering the costly prize to the president, the office boy gave a flowery address, pointing out a few facts why he should be given a week's vacation on full salary.

IT IS TO SMILE.

Employer—Well, my boy, how do you like your new position here?

Artie—It's all right! De bookkeeper hain't made me do a ting but watch an' tell when you're a-comin', so's he kin git busy.—Chicago News.

She—You're not paying attention to May Roxley nowadays.

He—No, she had entirely too much to say to suit me.

She—Really!

He—Yes; she said "No!"—Philadelphia Press.

"How little we really know about our neighbors, after all," said the young wife musingly.

"Yes," replied her husband, "and how much they seem to know about us."—Judge.

Mrs. Greene—You told me your landlord gave you leave to choose the wall paper for yourself. I'm surprised you picked out that pattern. It is not nearly as pretty as that other one, you know.

Mrs. Black—Tell you the truth, I don't like this a bit; but it was 5 cents more a roll than any of the others.—Boston Transcript.

"Why should religion and science quarrel?"

"Why, indeed?"

"Why not say that man is descended from the monkey, Eve made of Adam and let it go at that?"—Puck.

"Music exercises a wonderful influence," said the young woman who plays the piano.

"It does," answered Mrs. Corntossel. "Ever since one of our summer boarders sang 'Woodman, Spare the Tree,' years ago, my husband has refused to chop a stick o' firewood."—Washington Star.

"They say Otto Mobe is a confirmed pessimist."

"How so?"

"Why, he often starts out in his automobile firmly convinced that he won't be able to run over anybody without being arrested."—Baltimore Herald.

"My dear," said the young husband, "did you ever speak to the milkman about there being no cream on the milk?"

"Yes; I told him about it this morning and he has explained it satisfactorily, and I think it is quite a credit to him, too."

"What did he say?"

"He said that he always filled the bottles so full that there is no room on the top for the cream."—Kansas City Star.

DUSS CAPTURES A BIG AUDIENCE

In Whirlwind Concert at Duquesne Garden—Economite Scored a Triumph.

AN EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Bandmaster Was Greeted by Hundreds of Old Neighbors and Played "The Gazette March" as Encore.

Duquesne garden was the scene of a veritable musical storm last night. Duss, the band leader, came back home and entered into his own with a swiftness that fairly took one's breath away. The popular leader was in fine form, and, flushed with his metropolitan victories, lead his fine group of musicians gracefully and deftly through the mazes of a program that was at once popular and musically artistic.

JOHN DUSS.

The first impression of Duss and his band is encouraging. To the eye there is a picturesqueness and simplicity that sets it quite apart from the usual concert band. The leader himself is inconspicuous, that is so far as uniform goes. He is clad in semi-evening clothes, a tall, vigorous figure, clean-shaven and imposing. On closer inspection you find that he is dressed like all his players with the exception of a gold fringe on the cuffs of his Tuexedo coat and a handsome medal that adorns its lapel. When he leads he is neither a poser nor a contortionist. He lends himself gracefully to the harmony that is being evolved under the rise and fall of his baton. That is all.

It Is the Same John Duss.

He is practically the same Duss that went out from Economy, and who has led his band through successful steps of success in park concerts in Pittsburgh, and thence to the larger field of metropolitan triumph.

The concert last night was marked first by singular deftness in the selection of a program. There was the inevitable overture, by Rossini, a beautiful nocturne, "Monastery Bells," "The Battle of Manila," the sextet from "Lucia," with a fine cornet solo, concluding with airs from "Dolly Varden" and music from Liszt, Wagner and Tschaikewsky sprinkled in between. For every regular number there was an encore, demanded by the vociferous and enthusiastic applause. Especially was this the case when the little cornet soloist, Bohumir Kryl, played. Of his really splendid work the audience could not get enough. This was true also of Mrs. George's singing, which was given the enthusiastic applause it deserved.

Duss is a genial, kindly fellow for the encore fiend. He yields readily and gracefully.

The Pittsburgh Gazette March.

This popular composition came in for an encore and was quickly recognized and applauded. Speaking of the march, personally, Mr. Duss said: "It is a capital composition. Not sensationally great perhaps, but one of the best of the latter day marches. I played it in New York again and again. The people were surprised and questioning at first, but they soon caught on and gave the piece a great send-off every time I used it."

Duss undoubtedly has a splendid organization of players. There is a certain rythmic fire and vigor about their orchestration that is altogether unconventional, but which is never for a moment allowed to overreach perfect harmony and thorough technique. It is the best band concert music, touched and vitalized with the fire of earnestness. The perfection of baton work was shown in the delicate shading of the "Lohengrin" number, the beautiful bridal chorus, while a fine sample of the peculiar Duss whirlwind methods was afforded in "The Battle of Manila," one of the leader's own compositions.

The audience was evidently and continuously a friendly one. Flowers in profusion were handed over the footlights, and the bandmaster held a levee behind the scenes at the intermission. The programs for this afternoon and tonight present a varied and pleasing list of the best classic and popular music.

SIAM'S CROWN PRINCE HERE ON NOVEMBER 5

Notice of the Royal Visit to Pittsburgh Has Been Received.

Phya Prasiddhi, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary for Siam at Washington, yesterday communicated to Francis J. Torrance that the crown prince of Siam will make his visit to Pittsburgh on November 5.

No information was given as to the exact hour at which the prince will arrive, or the length of his stay. With further information, expected in a short time, Mr. Torrance will arrange with other Pittsburghers for the entertainment of the royal visitor from the Orient. So far no definite arrangements have been made.

WAR OUTRAGE STORY PURE IMAGINATION

Written by Keystone Soldier to His Mother and Started Investigation.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.

Several months ago a paper in Montour county, Pa., contained what purported to be a letter written by William J. Longenberger of Company A, Fifteenth infantry, in the Philippines, to his mother in Danville, Pa. In it he was made to say that the dead bodies of Filipinos lay around on all sides unburied, in various stages of decay, and that when a Filipino dropped "our boys always shot him seven or eight times, so that he was covered with blood from head to foot."

This story obtained general circulation and was the subject of considerable criticism against the army. The matter was made the subject of an official investigation by Gen. Chaffee, then in command of the Philippines, with the result that the story was shown to be without foundation. Private Longenberger, reputed author of the letter, wrote to the commanding officer of his regiment that the story gives a mistaken impression.

"I heard the story from another enlisted man," he said, "and have never witnessed the death of a native in the Philippines, and I now believe the story told me was only idle boasting."

First Lieut. E. M. Reve, commanding Company A of the Fifteenth infantry, reports that the man who wrote the letter mentioned is a member of his company and "his record shows that he has never been in action nor near the scene of one; in fact, he has never seen a Filipino die, not even from sickness. The whole affair is a work of imagination and not a word of truth in it."

Private Longenberger was formerly in the Eighth regiment, Pennsylvania National Guard.

SHOPLIFTERS HAD THE GOODS ON THEM

Police Believe That a Capture Made Yesterday in Downtown Store Is Important.

Through the keen sight of an aged customer two female shoplifters were captured yesterday in a downtown department store. The police think that, in spite of their assertions, the women are experts, responsible for a system of pilfering that has been carried on for months, so cleverly that private detectives and police alike have been baffled.

Two women giving their names as Mrs. Fannie Godfrey of Homestead and Mrs. Lizzie Carson of Bellaire, O., entered the store shortly after noon and went directly to the linen department. There were not many people in the store at the time, which was the lunch hour, and some of the clerks were absent.

The women priced several pieces of linen, went to another counter, but returned to the linen department in a few moments. At this counter an elderly woman was standing and she noticed the actions of the pair.

As soon as the clerk's back was turned the women started to load false pockets underneath their outer coats. They then left without making a purchase. The old woman told the clerk, who notified Joseph P. Vance, one of the confidential employes of the firm, and he stopped the women as they were about to leave the building.

They were detained a few minutes and Detectives Kennelly and Shore made the arrests. When searched at the police station about $12 worth of plunder was found in their possession. The plunder consisted of doilies, scarf dressers, table covers and small linen articles which ranged in price from 89 cents to $2.25.

In default of $500 bail they were committed to await a hearing before Magistrate McGarey this morning.

TWO CARS COLLIDED.

Motorman, Conductor and Many Passengers Were Hurt Near Browns Station.

Two cars on the lines of the Pittsburgh Railways Company ran together near Brown's station yesterday afternoon and a motorman, a conductor and many of the passengers injured.

Car No. 342, bound for Braddock and in charge of Motorman John Oldham, crashed into the rear of car No. 86, which had stopped near the Brown machine shops. The rear end of car No. 86 was demolished and Charles Taft, the conductor, was badly bruised. Motorman Oldham was pinned to the floor by the heavy controller, which fell on him when the cars crashed togther. When released it was found that both his feet were crushed and his right leg fractured.

The passengers on both cars were badly shaken up and a number received ugly bruises, but all were able to continue their journeys. Oldham was taken to his home in First street, Braddock, and Taft to his home in Glenwood. The cause of the accident is said to be the failure of the power brake.

RANSOM OF MISS STONE.

Missionary Societies Ask Uncle Sam to Demand Repayment by Turkish Government.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.—Representatives of missionary societies have formally requested the state department to demand of Turkey repayment of the ransom paid on account of the release of Miss Ellen M. Stone.

The requests assume the liability of Turkey as settled, but the state department has by no means assured itself on that point, and it is said the responsibility still lies between Turkey and Bulgaria, with, perhaps, the weight of evidence against Bulgaria.

ATTORNEYS WERE ABSENT.

"Yellow Book" Investigators Therefore Took an Adjournment.

Because President Crawford of common council and Select Councilman Douglas were not at the meeting to resume the "Yellow book" investigation the committee adjourned to meet later at the call of Chairman Lamb. All members of the committee were present. The reason given for the adjournment was the absence of the two attorneys, who at previous meetings had conducted the examination of witnesses.

Chairman Lamb said that witnesses were present to testify against the department of public safety, but that Crawford and Douglas could bring out the evidence in the best shape. Among the witnesses were ex-Policemen Wainwright Becket, Walter Marsh and Thomas Kinney, Policemen John Hardiman and William Sloan, and Firemen Barnes and Campbell.

WELSH WORKERS WILL MEET IT

Nevertheless Proposed Wage Rebate Will Soon Get Another Vote.

Arrangements are nearly completed for the special convention of the tin plate workers of the Amalgamated association, at which the officers will endeavor to secure a vote favoring a wage reduction of 25 per cent on all business which producers may be able to secure that now goes to Wales.

A Welsh worker has written to a trade paper here, which devotes much space to affairs of the Amalgamated association, saying that the Welsh workers will certainly meet any wage reduction here. He lauds the American workers, who have so far cast the majority vote against the reduction proposition.

MINERS' LOCALS NOT UNANIMOUS

Some Objection Against Arbitration, but Not Enough to Defeat It.

ELECTIONS ARE BEGUN

District President Nicholls Somewhat Concerned Over Story That He Belongs to Opposition. Mitchell's Position Is Clear.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 17.—In accordance with the call issued yesterday, all "locals" throughout the coal field began electing delegates today to the convention which will be held here next Monday to consider the arbitration plan submitted by President Roosevelt. Most of the local unions held their meetings tonight. It is practically certain that a majority of the delegates will come to the convention instructed to vote in favor of accepting arbitration.

The prominent officials of the union say there is no fear that the opposition will be strong enough to defeat it. President Mitchell does not care to anticipate the action of the convention, but from his manner it is taken that he has not the slightest doubt as to the result. He will go into the convention and make a strong speech for acceptance of the arbitration scheme.

Will Last Two Days.

The indications are the convention will last two days, and that there will be much debate on various features of the arbitration plan. The conditions at some collieries are different from those existing at other places. The principal question to be discussed before the plan is accepted will be that of taking care of all the men. The conditions of the mines are such that all cannot be given work immediately, and some will have to wait for weeks before the companies can take care of them. It is understood the union will take care of all such men who fail to find immediate employment. This will be done by drawing funds from the relief fund which is said to be still growing.

SCRANTON, PA., Oct. 17.—Reports were circulated tonight that locals of the United Mine Workers in West Scranton, Pittston and some other localities had voted to instruct their delegates to oppose the acceptance of the operators' proposition, unless the companies would agree to discharge the non-union men, take back all the old employes, drop the suits instituted against strikers and recognize the union.

Nicholls Is Worried.

A significant fact in this connection was the concern of District President Nicholls today over a report that he was at the head of a movement to oppose the acceptance of the proposition.

"This report is doing no end of mischief," said Nicholls. "It has caused our men to view the proposition with suspicion, and when they suspected it they commenced to look for the flaws which they supposed I had found in it. I have heard of locals in different places being disposed to vote against the proposition, and I must admit it is causing some worry at headquarters. I am satisfied, however, that the convention will accept the proposition.

"The report that I am opposed to the proposition is absolutely false and without foundation. I have been in favor of it from the very first, and the vote of the district officers recommending its acceptance to the convention was unanimous."

SCHOOL DIRECTOR FORCED TO RESIGN

Grant Richards, Prominent in Turtle Creek Politics, Alleged to Have Annoyed a Teacher.

Grant Richards, a member of the Turtle Creek school board, has tendered his resignation, and several stories are circulated in connection with the resignation. It is stated that the real cause is one of the teachers in the Penn avenue school, who alleges that Richards annoyed her with his attentions.

She informed the members of the school board, and at a special meeting Richards is to have acknowledged his action. His resignation was advised by the board and reluctantly given. Richards is in the butter business in Turtle Creek and for a number of years has been active in politics in that town.

Richards was a member of the Turtle Creek school board three years ago, when the smallpox riots occurred over the occupancy of the old Larimer avenue school house as a pest house. Richards was charged with riot, with a number of other well-known residents of Turtle Creek at the time. He was at that time secretary of the school board.

JUST COMMON SENSE.

Changed the Whole Thing.

"I used coffee all my life until two years ago, when I was forced to discontinue it," writes a lady from Memphis, Tenn. "My health became so wretched that life was almost a burden.

"I suffered almost continuously with nervous headache, dyspepsia and excruciating pains in my back. My heart action was very feeble, and I suffered intensely from a feeling of suffocation or oppression. Was extremely emaciated and debilitated, and so nervous that the slightest exertion or excitement would produce very distressing symptoms. My physician pronounced my trouble nervous prostration, and could give very slight relief.

"A friend urged me to stop drinking coffee and try Postum Food Coffee and note the result. My first trial was not satisfactory, owing to the indifference of the cook, but the next time she followed directions carefully, and I found it decidedly good. After using it about two months I awoke to the fact that my bad symptoms had almost totally disappeared, and that my health was better than it had been for six years. I had no headache; my heart troubled me only at rare intervals; could eat with perfect impunity; gained flesh, and was generally much stronger than formerly.

"I had discontinued medical treatment when I began to use Postum, and common sense supports me in the conviction that Postum alone was the curative agent in my case. My children are quite fond of it, and I take comfort in the thought that in Postum they obtain both food and drink and run no risk of injury to their digestive organs. No one has healthier children than I, and that alone is sufficient to prove its value." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

BOER GENERALS GET SMALL CONTRIBUTIONS

Are Sorry They Did Not Come Directly to America for Relief Funds.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—The Boer generals are sorry they did not go to America first for money, instead of making a canvass of the continent. Gen. Botha said today that they would finish their tour of Europe before undertaking the trip to America. The experience of the generals so far has been rather disappointing. There have been plenty of cheering, but little money. One American, Henry Phipps, contributed more than all Germany. The total gathered here is $67,500.

The Pan-German group, which is managing the generals, is doing everything possible to give the demonstrations an anti-British character, but the Boers have refused outright to do some of the things suggested.

Gen. DeWet remarked: "Being a personality is tiresome. I had a more pleasant time on my farm."

The only incident which disturbed the afternoon reception at the hotel was caused by a German "free lance," who arrived here today from prison in India, asking Gen. Botha to cash two Transvaal bills for $285, issued in 1890 and given to the man in payment for services. Gen. Botha said: "I cannot do it, my boy. I am a beggar myself."

Count von Norman discounted the bills, as curiosities.

WILL NOT MAKE RAILS.

New Jones & Laughlin Blooming Mill Is Almost Finished and Billet Mill Planned.

In a few months the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company will have ready for operation its new blooming mill department on the South Side. It will produce about 2,500 tons daily. As part of the plans at the time the new mill was decided on, a great new billet mill will be erected in direct connection with the blooming mill.

Contrary to persistent reports, a leading officer of the company said last night that it is not the present intention to make rails, although the plant for the billet mill will be erected something after the plan of the big plant of the National Steel Company at Youngstown, O., with room for sufficient rail rolling equipment, so that, if it is expedient, the mill may at any time be turned to the production of rails.

Two Hurt in Collision.

Robert Thompson, 60 years of age, residing on Winebiddle avenue, had his left leg broken and William Swearinger of Scioto street was badly bruised last night in a collision between car No. 60 of the Bloomfield line and a Highland park car, at Thirty-fourth and Butler streets. The men were standing on the rear of the Bloomfield car and the Highland park car struck it, injuring the men. Both men work in Park's mill on Thirtieth street. They were attended by a physician and sent home.

Coadjutor for Bishop Elder.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—A petition will shortly be sent to Rome asking for the appointment of a coadjutor in Cincinnati archdiocese for Archbishop Elder. The venerable archbishop has been in the priesthood 36 years and is the oldest member of the American hierarchy. He will soon celebrate his 84th birthday.

EVANS TELLS OF MONEY WASTED

All Good in Flinn Law Nullified by Inferior Work of Contractors.

REPAIRS NOW COSTLY

If Jobbery Is Allowed to Continue, Whole of Authorized Sum Must Be Spent in Repairs to Contractors' Work.

James Evans, Citizens party candidate for county commissioner, has issued the following statement:

"Considerable emphasis has been given in this canvass to the good roads question, a new and most important local issue, and that voters may fully understand my position in relation to it I will briefly state my views.

"The act of '95, authorizing the county commissioners to levy an annual tax of 2 mills on all property for road purposes, and commonly known as the "Flinn road bill," marked a much needed departure in the road system of the state. Prior to its passage, the primitive and crude system of "working out the tax," under the direction of supervisors, was the only law regulating the construction of roads in the state, except in some counties where special acts authorized the collection of the tax and the letting of the work by contract.

"This act of '95 does not supersede the old law, except as to the roads which the county commissioners may improve under it, which thereby becomes county roads and continue under the commissioners' care.

"That a change from the old system was urgently needed I think will at once be conceded by every intelligent person familiar with the country roads. Allegheny, the richest county in the state, and thickly settled in all its parts, was certainly 50 years behind the times when the condition of its roads was considered. The work done on them from year to year was money absolutely wasted, and no permanent improvement was ever made.

Improvement Was Needed.

"They were impassable bogs in winter, and with the exception of a few months in mid-summer, were never in fit condition for travel. The cities and towns were thus virtually cut off from communication with the surrounding country, to the great disadvantage of both country and town in all the relations of business and social life.

"The loss thus accruing to the community would be difficult to estimate, but a comparison with Philadelphia and other western counties of the state, where permanent, well-improved roads lead in all directions, will show this loss is indeed very great and that it falls on the entire community.

"The road law of '95 affords an opportunity to change this condition, and by carefully following out its provisions we can reasonably expect in the course of a few years more to make the main roads of Allegheny county compare with those of the most progressive counties in the state.

"In addition to the tax authorized by the act of 1895 an act of assembly was passed in 1899 authorizing the commissioners to issue bonds for road purposes under the provisions of which about $600,000 per year can now be spent for road improvement.

Economy Should be Used.

"A wise and economical expenditure of this money is of the highest importance to the tax-payer, since all the roads so improved become county roads, to be henceforth under the care of the commissioners and to be maintained by a special tax. All will concede that this work should be of the most substantial and permanent character, so that repairs would be reduced to a minimum.

"The work done so far has been, of course, experimental, and it can hardly be said that we have yet arrived at the best system. Experience is the true test in all work of this character, and must always be carefully considered.

"There has justly been much criticism, both as to the cost of the roads built so far, and the character of the work done. Of the 63 miles completed, according to the controller's report, the average cost has been about $17,000 per mile, on which repairs for two years after completion have cost annually an average of about $450 per mile. Considering the very high construction cost of this work, it should certainly have been of a more permanent character, and $450 per mile per year for repairs for the first and second years, is by no means a nominal charge. In a very few years at this rate the annual repairs would consume the whole tax contemplated by the act of 1895.

Jobbery Is in Evidence.

"Now that it is apparent what good roads mean in advancing the public welfare, it is the universal desire to have all the roads of the county improved as rapidly as possible, but a study of the work already done, as to its character and cost, will convince all thoughtful persons that care and economy are needed in the administration of the funds raised for this purpose, if even one-half the roads of the county shall be improved during the next 10 years.

"All material should be of the highest grade and contracts should be awarded only after free and open competition, and the work done should at all times be subject to thorough and impartial inspection. Only when strict business principles govern and the work is done under such regulations as are considered essential in private affairs will the public be satisfied.

"The act of 1895 contemplates only improved roads of a permanent character, and considering the amount spent for repairs in the first two years after the construction of the 13 roads already completed, it is quite apparent that they are far from being permanent improvements.

Work Done Is Worthless.

"Large sums have been spent in stone construction along run-valleys, which is of the most temporary character, fails to stand frost, and is undermined and carried away by the first heavy freshet. Like amounts have also been spent and are now being spent for Ligonier spalls top dressing, which will not form a bond with the body of the road and is washed away by heavy rains and even blown off by high winds, leaving the sandstone exposed, which soon wears into ruts.

"The whole inspection and repair system at present in force is the worst possible failure, resulting in poor roads and heavy loss to the county. For years past I have been interested in road improvement and have carefully observed the work done by the county in the past five years, and am confident that roads of a permanent character vastly superior to any yet built can be constructed at much less cost.

"If elected commissioner, it will be my aim to enforce the above principles in building them and to give the business of the office close attention and faithful service in all its departments."

SENATOR PENROSE WANTS TO KNOW

Some Very Pertinent Queries Are Made by Him at Machine Headquarters.

Senator Boies Penrose was in Pittsburgh for a short time yesterday, having come down from Greensburg, where he spoke Thursday evening. He went to Philadelphia last night.

Senator Penrose spent an hour or more at the machine's political headquarters in Sixth avenue, talking to the machine county and congressional candidates. Dr. A. J. Barchfield hung to him the better part of the afternoon.

It is understood that the senator demanded to know from the machine candidates how far they were implicated in the scheme known as the Ballot Reform party, which has indorsed the Democratic state ticket and the machine county ticket. He had been informed of the fact that at least one of the spellbinders in the employ of the machine not only speaks at Ballot Reform meetings, advocating the election of Pattison, but has also spoken at machine meetings and spouted for the election of Pattison and the machine county ticket.

As the machine meetings are alleged to be held under the auspices of the Republican party, the senator wanted to know how the candidates whom he met at the Sixth avenue headquarters could truthfully assert that they are loyal to the Republican state ticket. He cannot see how a speaker at an alleged Republican meeting is allowed to stab the Republican state ticket. The speaker accused of doing these things is George J. Churchill, the renegade Democrat who on the same night speaks at Ballot Reform and machine meetings.

ALL FREE OF CHARGE.

Dr. Lorenz of Vienna Performs Twenty Operations in One Day.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Dr. Adolph Lorenz will leave Chicago for Salt Lake City and San Francisco next week. His achievements in this city have brought him many requests from all parts of the United States and he has accepted one case in Salt Lake City. Dr. Lorenz performed 20 operations today, all of them being pronounced successful.

All were performed free of charge as far as the physician was concerned, the parents of the children paying a small sum to the hospital where the operation was performed.

HOISTED FLAG OVER MORRO.

Naval Appretice Who Took Part in Stirring Scene Quits Service.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The naval career of one of the apprentices who helped raise the flag over the wreck of the Maine after she had been blown up in Havana harbor, and who also flung Old Glory to the breeze from Morro Castle, Havana, after the Spaniards had evacuated, ends tomorrow, when his term of enlistment expires. He is "Toby" to the boys, but on the naval records is carried as Tobias Weiss.

At 15 years of age "Toby" entered the service, going on board the old Richmond in 1897. For three years he was signal boy on the Texas. He was on her during the Spanish-American war. He was among the sailors detailed to have charge of the dead members of the Maine's crew when they were brought to the United States from Cuba for burial in Arlington cemetery. He will go back to civil life on his 21st birthday.

WILL OPEN NEXT WEEK.

Temporary Furnishings Will Be Used in New Cafe.

The formal opening of the cafe in the Frick building will not take place for some time, although it will be in condition to serve the public about the middle of next week. It was intended to open the cafe and bar to the public next Monday, but the china, glass, linen and silver ware, ordered from abroad, have not yet been received. At present employes only are being served, but it has been arranged that all will be opened to the public next week with a temporary supply of furnishings for the restaurant.

The decoration of the rooms is already completed and the carpets and other furnishings are being placed, so that there will be no delay in this respect. It is probable that after Thursday the public will be admitted.

Bids All Too High.

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 17.—An unexpected question has arisen in connection with the bids for the construction of buildings for the permanent army post at Chickamauga park. Each of the bids received is over $1,000,000 and the appropriation by the war department is but half that amount.

END OF STRIKE AIDS THE PARTY

Greatly Increases Enthusiasm at the Pennypacker Meetings.

OPPOSITION HOPE GONE

Credit for Settlement Placed Where It Is Due, to Republican President Roosevelt—Great Demonstration at Kittanning.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Kittanning, Pa., Oct. 17.—Sturdy farmers, industrious miners, brawny ironworkers and prosperous merchants from loyal old Armstrong county tonight welcomed the Republican candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, and packed to overflowing the spacious courthouse with an enthusiastic audience, which vigorously applauded speeches by ex-Judge Pennypacker, ex-Senator Brown, ex-District Attorney W. I. Shaffer and Col. N. A. Flood.

References by the speakers to the settlement of the anthracite strike were received with wild applause, and the work of President Roosevelt and Senators Quay and Penrose in bringing about the settlement was applauded over and over again. This was especially the case when Judge Pennypacker and ex-Senator Brown vigorously reiterated that the settlement of the strike had removed the last vestige of hope of the Democratic party for success.

Met by Prominent Men.

Nearly half the town acted as a reception committee to the candidates this afternoon, prominent on the committee being Edward W. Dewey of Bradys Band, Recorder I. T. Campbell, County Chairman H. H. Carnahan, Frank Jackson, ex-Senator W. B. Meredith, George W. McKee, J. D. Dougherty, W. Fred Turner, Dr. Rodgers, Uriah Klingsmith and ex-Senator Cochran.

Lawyer W. L. Peart acted as chairman of the meeting. Judge Pennypacker was greatly applauded when he was introduced as the next governor of Pennsylvania. Among other things he said:

> There is a matter of recent date to which I want to call your attention. There has been a very serious disturbance in one of the great interests of this commonwealth. Employers and employes came into collision over the question of which should have the greater advantage in the sale and disposition of the material produced. That was a matter which affected not them alone; it affected every railroad, every mill, every factory and every business interest in this broad land.
>
> But, more than that, the most important things in life are not our material interests. It affected the homes and the happiness of every man, woman and child in this land. The poor wondered what they were going to do, threatened as they were with cold. This was a most grave situation.
>
> While it existed, what Democrats in this country raised their hands to relieve the difficulty? You are sensible men, and there are many things you know of, and you know that the hope of the Democratic party in this campaign rested upon the continuance of those difficulties.

Men Who Brought Settlement.

> Look at the other side. The Republican senators of Pennsylvania, the Republican governor of New York, the strenuous and able Republican president of the United States, combined their might in an effort to bring about a fair and reasonable solution of the trouble. They succeeded. The strike is over. Those miners who have been out of work for four or five months may now return to their occupation and get their customary wages. But the hopes of the Democratic party in this campaign have disappeared.

Senator Brown was given a great ovation as he was introduced. In disposing of Pattison's charges against the sessions of the legislature of 1899 and 1901, he said:

> It was my pleasure to serve in the session of 1899, of which your townsman, William B. Meredith, was a member. I am proud of the fact that never in my experience have I known of a more upright, conscientious body of men than controlled the senate of that year. Robert E. Pattison never saw nor handled enough money to buy that senate to do a wrong act.
>
> I denounce, in the name of everything that is reasonable and fair, the conduct of the man who has twice been made governor of Pennsylvania, who, when he finds his party in such condition as to make it necessary, goes around maligning the dead and the living. It is not because of any apparent corruption in Pennsylvania politics that that gentleman is talking in this way. It is because his party's record will not bear inspection upon any issue that is presented to the people.

Silenced an Interrupter.

During his speech Mr. Brown was interrupted by the question, "How about the anthracite strike?" Amid a whirlwind of applause that shut off all further interruptions, Mr. Brown, replied, "How about the anthracite strike? The answer is, 'Roosevelt.'"

Ex-District Attorney Shaffer of Delaware county made a strong address, in the course of which he said:

> The importance of this election in Pennsylvania to the Republicans of the nation cannot be overestimated. From end to end of the country it could not be explained or understood if Pennsylvania were to go Democratic or to fail in returning her full complement of Republican congressmen. Out in the far west, where I was this summer, we are looked upon not only as the keystone, but as the very bulwark of Republican principles.
>
> Beyond the Mississippi a tremendous struggle is being made, the struggle to return the silver states to the Republican column. If this can be done the election of a Republican president is assured beyond all doubt. If Pennsylvania should fail, consternation and dismay would reign in the camps of the Republican party throughout the west, and every close state would be debatable ground in the presidential election.
> It is said that there are no national issues in this campaign, but Pennsylvania cannot do anything in a political way which is not national. In this contest the lines for the presidential battle are being formed, and he who runs may read that the issue of the next presidential campaign will be tariff revision. With this impending, can anything be more important than that Pennsylvania shall indicate to the nation at large that she stands at the opening of the fray where she always has stood, rock-ribbed for the protective principle?

After Col. Flood had made a closing address the meeting dismissed with three cheers for Pennypacker, Brown and the whole ticket. The party tonight will meet the voters of Venango county at Franklin.

Republicans Fill Vacancies.

EASTON, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The Republican congressional conferees of the Twenty-sixth district today nominated Fred Nesbitt of Easton to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Thomas Davis of Carbon, who was named for congress two weeks ago. Harrison R. Fehr of Easton was nominated for assemblyman to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Nesbitt's nomination for congress.

Falling Mallet Hit Him.

George Murphy, a clerk at the Third National bank, is at the Homeopathic hospital in a critical condition from a wound in the head, received by being struck by a mallet while passing the new Farmers Deposit bank building. The mallet fell from the twelfth floor. Murphy is 24 years old and lives at Osborne.

Wild New Exposition finish tonight!

The "Superba Suburban."

This is the name that is given a line of ladies' shoes they sell at Campbell's, because they are made to wear in the mud, slush, snow and all the other conditions one meets when away from the well-paved streets. These shoes are made of vici kid cut from the thickest part of the skin, with oak-tanned extension soles, wood heels that give firmness and security to the step, and every pair is lined with kid instead of the usual cloth. This means warmth, freedom from dampness and all the other good points of a shoe to be worn under strenuous conditions.

BUY LOTS IN THE 2ND PLAN OF FETTERMAN

Catch the first Mt. Lebanon Hill Top car you see.

Do this before all the choice spots in the second great plan of Fetterman have been picked.

If you want to get in ahead of your neighbors you will have to make the start before they get in front of you.

It's the first crowd on the grounds today and tomorrow that will reap the greatest harvest.

You can make money like the great army did that was out here yesterday, if you take our advice and hurry. But be sure to land on the second plan of Fetterman.

Try to remember that this second plan is not tacked on to the back of the first plan. It extends along the car line same as the first plan, only out a little farther in the direction of Mt. Lebanon.

When your car reaches the first plan of Fetterman keep your seat until you ride about 300 feet farther. This is the way to protect yourself and see the new improvements located in the best part of the "MONEY-LAND."

We repeat that the second plan is on the same side of West Liberty Avenue as the first plan. It is not across the street.

It has the same great tunnel line advantages as the first plan.

It is the choice property that could not be put on the market until now owing to circumstances we could not overcome. But our delay in getting this second portion of Fetterman ready is your gain. It makes it possible for you to take advantage of money-making possibilities that are as great and greater than the opportunities presented by the first plan.

What does 300 feet farther out amount to when you can step in and get finer lying land with the same street improvements, the same marvelous chance to make a Five, Ten or Twenty-Dollar bill do fast and powerful work?

If you have not studied what the remarkable ten-minute run through the tunnel from Fifth avenue to Fetterman means for this modern second plan put on your thinking cap at once. Come up abreast with the shrewd ones who have figured this thing up and help them make history by competing with them for the prize locations.

Think of what some of the purchasers who were prompt to act have already achieved.

W. I. Craig, the well-known attorney of Fourth avenue, is one of a large number who coined money in an incredibly short time. On an investment of $37.50 he turned a profit of $150.

P. F. Forney, of Arlington ave., 31st ward, purchased lot No. 163 at $75, and resold it in three days for $150.

John Pierson bought lots No. 161 and No. 162 at $165 and sold them for $315.

F. E. Ramsdall of the P. & L. E. R. R. Co., bought lots No. 372 and No. 373 on Grandview avenue at $600 and refused $800 for them.

These are but a few of the incidents occurring in the presence of our advertising man, and are representative of what you will see most any hour you come out.

Don't forget in your enthusiasm to ask your salesman for our famous FREE-GIFT MONEY-ORDER. If you do this you will save at least $5 on the purchase of your lot.

It will be to your interest if you intend coming out today to call at our city office, 417 Fourth Avenue, directly opposite the Postoffice, and apply for certificates of request, and free car tickets. You will see the advantage of the trip after you get to the office. We cannot explain all the good things in an ad.

Always keep in mind that both the first and second plans of Fetterman are situated where the two great tunnel traction lines will come closest together. One will pass through Fetterman and the other will be but 400 feet away. You will get 7 to 10-minute traction service to the city every 3 minutes. It is the only time in the history of great cities that it has been possible to bring an unoccupied residential district almost up to the doors of a city's business marts.

In thinking over these facts take into consideration that in this wonderful second plan you can buy lots marked $100 to $600 on easy terms of 5 per cent down and pay balance at the rate of 2½ per cent per month. There will be no taxes and no interest, and if you desire to pay cash you can get a discount of 10 per cent any time within 60 days.

Bear in mind that the title of the property is guaranteed by the Fidelity Title & Trust Company and that you can get paved and improved streets with electric lights at all the crossings.

HAAS & LAUINGER, Agents, 417 Fourth Ave., DIRECTLY OPPOSITE THE POSTOFFICE. OR ON THE PROPERTY.

BROUGHT SUIT IN WRONG COURT

Criminal Judges Had No Jurisdiction in H. H. Brinker Case.

INDICTMENT IS QUASHED

Defendant, Who Was Charged With Embezzling $20,000 from German National bank Was Discharged.

When the case against H. H. Brinker, charged with the embezzlement of $20,689 25 from the German National bank, of which he was formerly a teller, was called in criminal court yesterday, on the motion of the defendants' attorney, J. L. Ritchey, the indictment was quashed and Mr. Brinker sent from the courtroom a free man.

The case was thrown out on the grounds that the entire proceedings were illegal and void, and the state courts had no jurisdiction in the matter, because the embezzlement was committed in a United States bank.

Neither District Attorney Haymaker nor Assistant District Attorney Robb was present when the case was called for trial by Assistant District Attorney Grimes before Judge Collier.

The prosecution was represented by private counsel, Attorney John D. Brown for the bank, and Stephen Stone for the Mercantile Trust Company, which had been on Brinker's bond while he was employed in the bank.

When the case was called Attorney Ritchey read his motion, asking that the indictment be quashed. He gave three reasons, the first that the court of quarter sessions had no jurisdiction to try and determine the offense charged; second, that the indictment and proceedings were illegal and void and without authority; third, that the offense charged embezzlement from a bank, organized, incorporated and established under the laws of the United States, was not an indictable offense under any statute of Pennsylvania or the common law.

The motion met no opposition from the prosecution and Judge Collier immediately quashed the bill and discharged Brinker from the custody of the sheriff.

It is understood ample restitution was made to the bank and that the trust company has been satisfied. Brinker has been in jail since September 2, when he was committed in default of $10,000 bail for a hearing on September 21, which he waived. The information charging him with embezzlement was made on August 27, 1902, before Alderman J. V. McMasters by W. D. Stockdale. It charged that he "did take into his possession fraudulently and embezzled about $20,689 27."

It is not probable that any further prosecution will follow.

RAISED RAILROAD CHECK.

Robert H. Hamilton Convicted of Forgery—Two Persons Acquitted of Barratry.

In Judge Stowe's branch of criminal court Robert H. Hamilton was convicted of forgery, but recommended to the extreme mercy of the court. He was charged with raising a Baltimore & Ohio check. When the case was concluded Assistant District Attorney Robb called the railroad officials' attention to the apparent indifference of the official in writing the amount in the check. He said if the amount had been more legibly written the alterations would not have been so easy. The officials took the advice good naturedly.

Acquittals in criminal court were: Harry Braun, charged with entering the house of Barney Freeman at 1619 Fulton street; Tony Blume, accused of a misdemeanor in knocking out the eye of a horse in a pasture, filed by R. L. Wolffs. Defendant sentenced to pay costs.

Henry Diller and Elizabeth Diller were tried for a misdemeanor termed barratry. They were accused of "maliciously annoying Minnie Snyder with vexatious suits and prosecutions." They were acquitted, but the costs were placed on them.

Charles Lily pleaded guilty to selling liquor without a license and was sentenced to the workhouse for three months.

MAY HAVE HAD CAUSE.

Contestant of Rebecca J. Friends' Will May Not Lose His Portion of Estate.

During the hearing in the audit of the estate of Rebecca J. Friend, deceased, in orphan's court yesterday a question that affects a clause in many wills came up. In the will of the testatrix, it was set forth that should any heir contest the will his or her share shall be forfeited.

Among the bequests was $20,000, which was to be held in trust for Porter Charles Friend. At the hearing the executors denied the claim on the ground that he was the legatee who had brought the contest that pended so long in the courts. In the only previous case of the kind in this county the contestant was not disinherited, because it was determined he had probable cause. The court took the papers.

WANTS JUDGMENT OPENED.

G. W. McCurdy Alleges He Was Coerced Into Signing a Note.

George W. McCurdy of Carnegie filed a petition to have a judgment opened for $2,050, entered against him by Alexander M. Scott, a member of W. M. Scott & Co. of Carnegie.

McCurdy says he was employed by the company as a clerk, and that on August 5 last, Scott and his brother compelled him to remain in the store, after which they accused him of taking from $4,500 to $5,000 from the cash drawer. McCurdy says he denied the accusation, but that they demanded that he at once give a bond and mortgage to cover the alleged shortage. While a note was being made out, he declares, he was being threatened with arrest, and when this coercion continued he signed the note to gain his liberty.

Old Litigation Ended.

Judge Buffington has filed an opinion in the United States court refusing a new trial in the case of T. C. Stevenson against Robert Scott and V. D. Jarvis. The suit was one in ejectment for land in Washington county, and has been in the supreme court three times to determine the validity of a sale made of it by the executor, Samuel Smith, for the payment of debts under an order of court. The court says that when a decree was once entered by the supreme court in a proceeding to which Stevenson was a partner all defenses were merged therein and thereafter no party thereto could attack or question that decree collaterally. Judgment was entered for the defendant.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

A divorce was granted to A. M. Thompson from Florence Thompson, for desertion.

Application was made for a charter for the Franz Schubert Choral Society of Allegheny.

The will of Christian Meyer was filed. After some small bequests the residue of the estate goes to the decedent's four sons.

The Pittsburgh Transfer & Delivery Company sued the Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Youghiogheny Railroad Company for $200 on a horse killed at a crossing.

The commissioner in the divorce case of Sarah E. St. Clair against John H. St. Clair of McKeesport, filed his report. It is set forth that the respondent was on too friendly terms with other women.

H. F. Hutchinson of Cheswick took an appeal from a decision of Alderman Groetzinger in fining him $2 for violation of the truant law.

M. S. Bankert sued Fred Toerge yesterday in common pleas court No. 3 for $534 11. It is said the defendant wanted the plaintiff to take stock in a partnership for making tools, and while he had the proposition under advisement he made loans and indorsements to the plaintiff for the sum sued for.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF W. C. T. U. OPENS

Reports of Work in Philippines Feature of First Day's Session.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

PORTLAND, ME., Oct. 17.—The 29th annual convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union opened today. Every state and territory is represented. Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, president of the national W. C. T. U., and vice president at large of the world's W. C. T. U., presided. Lady Henry Somerset, president of the world's W. C. T. P., and the Rev. Henry S. Sanders of London, England, are among the distinguished workers present.

Mrs. Susanna M. D. Fry of Illinois made her report as corresponding secretary. The report stated that the Manila organizer had reported that some ill-will had been engendered by the "canteen victory." The Manila union has provided for leaflets in Spanish and Tagalog, and had its first native woman signer of the W. C. T. U. pledge, a Tagalog, wife of a native preacher.

Mrs. Faxon, the union's worker in the Philippines, said there were three things she had determined to do: "To get the union where it will live after us, to get into the schools scientific temperance instruction, and to inaugurate a system for distributing leaflets throughout the islands."

Giving extracts from reports of 18 organizers, Mrs. Fry said: "The total number of unions organized by the 18 organizers is 120; total number of young women's unions, 40; total number of W's and Y's reorganized, 55; total active W and Y members secured, 4,702; number of new Loyal Temperance Legions organized, 60; number of new L. T. L. members secured, 2,291; number of total abstinence pledges secured, 6,928; total number of state engagements, 80. Ten state unions among the colored women increases the number of state and territorial unions to 63."

The national treasurer, Mrs. Helen Merton Barker, reported a net gain of $7,097, and reported receipts from the Frances E. Willard memorial fund $4,417. Pledges amounting to $1,132 for Manila missionary work have been received.

Lady Henry Somerset officiated at noontide prayer.

BIG CHAUTAUQUA FIRE.

Grand Hotel and Other Buildings at "The Point" Are Destroyed.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 17.—The Grand hotel at Point Chautauqua, one of the largest and finest hotels around Chautauqua lake, was burned to the ground early today, with its contents, also the amusement hall and a summer cottage owned by the hotel company.

The hotel was owned by a Beaver Falls and Buffalo syndicate. The loss will be fully $200,000.

ROCHESTER, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—H. C. Fry of this place was part owner of the Grand hotel. He said this evening that the actual loss would not be more than $60,000, which includes both the building and the furnishings. Mr. Fry and Gen. Charles Miller owned two-fifths of the stock, and on this there was no insurance.

Time Now to Select Your Trimmed Hat

Ready-to-wear Hats and Outing Hats have opened the season, but they are only the millinery forerunners of the handsomer Trimmed Hats that come, as a matter of course, when the season becomes sufficiently advanced to give a woman some assurance as to what may be regarded as the correct styles.

FIVE DOLLARS is a price we are seeking to popularize for an unpretentious trimmed hat in good materials, but without ostrich, jet, cut steel or the more expensive Paris novelty garnitures. We show fifty types of Five Dollar Hats, in which simplicity, beauty and correct style are so deftly combined that many a woman who comes in to buy something far more expensive takes a fancy to one of them and takes it home with her—and with it several dollars in change which she really expected to invest in her "best" hat for the winter.

Other and more elaborate hats, made so by the more expensive materials used in them, we have at $7.50, $10, $15 and up to $30.00.

MITCHELL'S ANSWER TO OPERATORS

It Is Contained in Letter to the President Accepting Terms.

CLAIMS VICTORY FOR THE MINERS

Denies Charges of Lawlessness and Accuses Owners of Arrogance.

BRIGHTER FUTURE SEEN

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—The telegraphic correspondence, consisting of a message from President Roosevelt to John Mitchell, and Mitchell's reply, were made public at the White House today. The president's message, dated October 16, reads:

"I have appointed as commissioners Brig.-Gen. John M. Wilson, Mr. E. W. Parker, Judge George Gray, Mr. E. E. Clark, Mr. Thomas H. Watkins and Bishop John L. Spalding, with the Hon. Carroll D. Wright as recorder. These names are accepted by the operators, and I now most earnestly ask and urge that the miners likewise accept this commission. It is a matter of vital concern to all our people, and especially to those in our great cities who are least well off, that the mining of coal should be resumed without a day's unnecessary delay."

President Mitchell's Reply.

Mitchell's reply, of the same date, addressed to the president, says:

I am in receipt of your telegram. Replying thereto, I beg to inform you that your recommendations were submitted to the members of the executive boards of district 1, 7 and 9, United Mine Workers of America, and they have unanimously agreed to call a delegate convention to be held next Monday, and will recommend to the convention that all men now on strike return to the positions and working places formerly occupied by them and submit to the commission appointed by you all questions at issue between the operators and mine workers of the anthracite coal fields.

We are glad to know that the managers of the coal companies have decided to recede from the untenable position which they so long occupied, and to accept a modified proposition for the arbitration of the coal strike and to give you full latitude in the selection of a commission. It will be remembered that we proposed, on October 3, to place the whole matter in your hand and to accept the verdict of a tribunal of your own selection. It will also be remembered that the company managers at that time refused to accept the arbitrament of the president of the United States, and preferred that of the local common pleas judges. We proposed to leave everything to you without condition or reservation, having the utmost faith in your impartiality and good judgment.

Presumed to Instruct Roosevelt.

In their refusal to accept your arbitrament the operators sought to hold you in part accountable for the very conditions which you were trying to remedy, and to instruct you as to your duties concerning them.

Eight days later they again appeared before you, dropping the common pleas judge, and proposing to abide by the verdict of a tribunal appointed by you, but attempting to prescribe within fixed and narrow limits the character and vocation of the men you were to name. To this proposition, as the operators made it, we were unalterably opposed, first, because our respect for you as a man and our ideas as to what is due to the dignity of your office demanded that we should not be a party to a request of you to accept this great responsibility accompanied by detailed and impertinent restrictions as to the manner in which you should meet it; second, because careful analysis of their proposition disclosed to us, as it did to you and the public, that the restrictions were too narrow to enable you to secure under them a well-balanced and thoroughly impartial tribunal.

But now that you have yourself removed these objections by broadening and strengthening the commission, we feel confident that our convention will declare its willingness to have all questions between the employing companies and the 5 per cent of the employes who are members of our organization determined by the board of eminent and impartial men chosen by you.

Common Ground of Sympathy.

We feel grateful to you, Mr. President, for the patriotic efforts which you have made to bring about an honorable settlement of the strike; efforts which you continued despite the remarkable spirit and conduct which you at first found in the company managers. We were in a position to sympathize with you, inasmuch as we had long been forced to endure arrogance, insult and false witness from the same source.

Our gratitude is due to you and to the American people and the press, who have supported you and us in the long struggle which we hope is now about to close. During all these long months, in which our motives have been impugned and our characters maliciously assailed, we have refrained from saying any word or taking any action which would tend to render reconciliation more difficult; but now it becomes a duty to defend ourselves against the slanders which have been heaped upon us and to proclaim that we have from the first favored practically the method which is now employed to break the deadlock.

If our proffer of arbitration had been accepted six months ago, instead of now, there need have been no strike. We have been so eager, Mr. President, to respond to the people's demand for coal, that during the progress of the strike we have more than once offered arbitration, but we have invariably been met with the reply, "We will not permit outsiders to dictate to us in the management of our affairs. We have nothing to arbitrate."

Charge of Lawlessness Met.

They charged us with being criminals, rioters and anarchists, and our organization they denounced as "lawless and irresponsible." They knew, and did know, that their charges were untrue and without foundation in fact. They knew that every officer of the United Mine Workers of America, from the president down, has constantly urged upon its membership the imperative need of respecting the law. "That every man who commits a deed of violence is an enemy to our cause," has been our watchword. Despite these admonitions, supported with all our influence, there have been a few crimes and a number of misdemeanors chargeable to those on strike; but, Mr. President, we make the unqualified declaration that the imported guardians of law and order, the companies' coal and iron police, have committed more unprovoked murders during this strike than can be charged to the great army of men who have been in idleness for the past five months.

We have repeatedly, and in language not susceptible of misconstruction, condemned transgressions of the law on the part of those on strike, and we challenge the coal companies to point to one public utterance on their part in which they have even deprecated acts of violence committed by their hired guards.

We declare that it was unfair and unmanly for the coal road presidents to insult us while we were your guests, and to charge our organization with responsibility for acts of lawlessness during the strike. It would be just as logical to charge the American army in the Philippines with being an army of murderers, torturers and robbers because a few crimes were committed by soldiers there.

Troops Did Not Help Operators.

The pretense of the operators, that they were unable to produce coal because intimidation kept from work men who were willing to work, has been proven false by the fact that the protection which they demanded has decreased rather than increased the number of men mining coal.

The operators declared that they would have nothing to do with the United Mine Workers of America, but they have found it necessary to recognize you, Mr. President, and to seek terms of peace which will enable them to resume their business of mining and selling coal. The recognition of our strength thus forced upon the operators by stern necessity we exult over, not in any narrow spirit, but because we believe it marks a forward step toward a new era. Upon the foundation laid through war we are ready to join with them in building for better conditions and a long and lasting peace.

The United Mine Workers of America, since its organization in the anthracite field, has constantly sought to establish

First—Fair wages and just condition of labor conditions; conditions just to both operators and miners.

Second—Amicable relations between employers and employes, the latter speaking through their organization, and their organization aiding the companies in maintaining discipline, adjusting all difficulties by conciliatory methods, averting local strikes and lockouts and securing stable and satisfactory conditions to the industry.

Soft Coal Operators' Experience.

Many soft coal operators have publicly declared that they would not dispense with our co-operation, and would deem it a disaster if compelled to get back to the chaotic conditions which existed when their labor was unorganized. Upon our past record we are willing to stand or fall.

By the eminent tribunal which you have named we have confidence that justice will be done our people. We are glad to have a chance to appear before such a court empowered to consider and dispose of all questions at issue. First among these is the demand of the mine workers for increased wages and a reduction in the hours of labor; second, is the relations which ought to exist between the employers and the organization which the men have formed and which they authorize to speak for them.

From this arbitration we hope and believe will come a complete, satisfactory and permanent solution of the troubles which have vexed the anthracite field from time immemorial.

DECISION SURPRISED ACHESON GREATLY

Congressman Cites the Large Popular Vote in Support of His Renomination.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Oct. 17.—Congressman Acheson said tonight concerning the Harrisburg decision: "I am very much surprised at the decision of Judge Simonton. I made fair and open contest before the Republican voters of the Twenty-fourth district for the nomination for congress. From the outstart I favored the popular vote plan of making nominations, as against the odious conferee system, for which Beaver county contended. This conferee system is not tolerated in any state of the union, except Pennsylvania. It was discarded by the committees appointed by Lawrence, Beaver and Washington counties and the popular vote plan adopted.

"My name was announced in all of the three counties. At the Republican primaries held under these rules upward of 18,000 votes were cast, and of these I received over 12,000. I had a popular majority of over 7,000. Three-fourths of all Republicans residing in the Twenty-fourth district participated in the primaries held under the rule declared to be invalid, and more than half of the total number of Republicans in the district voted for me.

"I have long contended for the right of Republicans to make their nominations direct and without the intervention of conferees or conventions. I mean to continue to fight for this right."

ROOSEVELT FEEDS HIS HORSES SUGAR LUMPS

Saddle Pets Arrive from Oyster Bay and He Goes Down to See Them Without Crutches.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.—President Roosevelt, in spite of the tremendous physical strain of the last few days incident to the settlement of the coal strike, continues to improve. His physicians today announced progress in the healing of the wound on the leg.

The president's two saddle horses, Bleinstein and Renown, which have just been brought to Washington from Oyster Bay, were taken to the temporary White House today that the president might look them over. It has been more than a month now since the president has been able to enjoy his favorite exercise of horseback riding, and it gave him pleasure today to see again his two favorite horses, both of which he fed with lumps of sugar. The president came down the steps to meet his pets without the aid of crutches.

Senator Proctor of Vermont and Bishop Talbot of Pennsylvania were among the president's social callers today. Attorney General Knox, who had just returned from Pittsburgh, also called on the president and congratulated him on the satisfactory outcome of the coal strike.

GROOM COULDN'T GO.

But He Sends Bride and Her Mother Tickets and Money—To be Married in Pittsburgh.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Katie Setterich is well known to residents of Price Hill suburb as a member of a noted family brass band that has toured the country.

On one of the trips Peter Alexander, who is employed in a Pittsburgh brewery, fell in love with Katie. He subsequently came to this city to see her. Finally it was announced that they would marry. The marriage was to have been performed last night, which was Katie's mother's birthday. There was to have been a dual celebration of wedding and birthday. A large number of the bride-elect's friends were invited.

Alexander, who gets a salary of $36 a week, however, sent a message that he had some things in his charge that he had to watch and he would be compelled to forego the pleasure of attending the celebration for fear he might lose his position. He sent Mrs. Setterich hearty congratulations on her birthday, and also tickets for mother and daughter to go to Pittsburgh that he and Katie might be married there. Alexander also sent enough money to defray the expenses of the trip of Mrs. Setterich and daughter to Pittsburgh.

Last night the birthday of Mrs. Setterich was duly celebrated and her daughter Katie was one of the happiest guests. She was somewhat disappointed over the failure of her intended husband to be present.

This morning Katie and her mother departed for Pittsburgh, and tomorrow morning Katie will become Mrs. Peter Alexander. She will make her future home in Pittsburgh.

BANK LOCKED OUT OF MONEY.

Expert Safe Crackers Try in Vain to Chisel Into the Vault.

FORT CHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Officers of the First National bank are still locked out of their money vault. The expert safe-openers who have been trying to chisel their way through the huge steel door, have accomplished little. Nitro-glycerin may be used if the men fail to cut through the door. The bank is doing business on borrowed money from other banks.

Annual School Report.

An interesting report of the Pittsburgh public schools for the term of 1901-1902 has just been issued. Superintendent Hamilton requests that more attention be paid to physical culture in the schools. He recommends the establishment of a school of detention, as an auxiliary to the enforcement of the compulsory school law. The enrollment of pupils was 18,352. The financial report shows total receipts of $2,083,803.46 and expenditures of $1,658,715.04. The total bonded indebtedness is $1,967,000, and the floating debt $21,265.63.

THE HORSE SHOW DREW BIG CROWD

Society Was Out in Autumn Glory at First Open Air Event.

FINE ANIMALS SHOWN

Pittsburgh's Stock of Thoroughbreds Has Improved Greatly Since Last Show—Judges Had Difficulty in Picking Winners.

An open-air horse show is something entirely new to Pittsburghers, but judging from the crowds attending the initial event at the Pittsburgh Country club yesterday afternoon it will become an annual event, rivaling in popularity anything that so far has taken the fancy of Pittsburgh's swell set. It can be said that the affair yesterday was a social and an equine success in every respect.

Pittsburgh society was out en masse. Arrangements had been made to accommodate 500 rigs at the club stables and on the grounds surrounding the square in which the show was held, and every available point of view was taken advantage of. The crowd began coming shortly after noon. The entire club house was thrown open to the members and their friends, and from noon until 6 o'clock light refreshments were served.

Late in Starting.

The show was scheduled to begin at 1:30, but as is usual with such events, there was some delay, and it was not until almost 3 o'clock that the first class was called. By this time all the carriage space and every seat on the hill above the square was occupied and hundreds were standing.

It is probable that never before in Pittsburgh has there been seen such a gathering of handsome equipages. There were all kinds of pleasure vehicles, with coachmen in immaculate liveries. And as for automobiles, they were out in scores and bowled into the club grounds at a speed several miles in excess of the prescribed limit.

Senator Flinn was there. Politics, contracts and all else seemed to have been forgotten, for during the three hours that were consumed in showing all the classes Mr. Flinn leaned on the rail encircling the big enclosure and smoked big cigars. He seemed to be enjoying the thing immensely, and the Flinn horses carried away as many ribbons as any one family could wish for.

Judge Was Bowled Over.

There were 20 entries in the pony class, and in each pony cart there were two or more children. In fact, it looked as though there were more children than anything else at the show, and it is likely that some of the private schools and kindergartens in the East End suspended work yesterday.

All the events were finished with but one accident to mar the afternoon's pleasure.

N. S. Van Voorhis, one of the judges, was run down and badly bruised by E. H. Houses, London. The horse refused to take the first fence in the hunters' class, and suddenly swerving aside from the hurdle, struck Mr. Van Voorhis, who was knocked down and trampled. Fortunately no bones were broken and he was able to continue his duties. Many pretty scenes were enacted during the afternoon.

The inclosure is said to be as big as that in Madison Square garden, and every care was taken to have it in the best of condition. A surface of tan bark, rolled solidly, made good footing for the horses. Every animal in the show was of good blood and handsome appearance. It is evident that since the last horse show here many fine horses have been added to Pittsburgh's ribbon winners.

Some Fine Riding.

The first class called was the horses to runabouts. There were 15 entries and four ribbons. The blue ribbon was awarded to D. M. Clemson's Major. J. B. Vandergrift's Hermia got the red ribbon, and Miss Jane Bennett's Teddy and Miss Ruth Miller's Beau Maris took white and yellow respectively.

In the ladies' hunter class many of the young women showed excellent horsewomanship. Mikado, ridden by Miss Winifred Jones, got the blue ribbon. The red was given to Big Red, Miss Mary Flinn's horse; the white to Searchlight, ridden by Miss Rebecca Jones, and the yellow to Headlight, ridden by Miss Winifred Jones. Miss Gertrude Mueller's Perfect and Miss Edith Flinn's Pendennis were close to the winners.

In the class for harness teams Senator Flinn's team of chestnuts, Prince and Queen, got the honors. They are probably as perfectly matched as it is possible to get them, and both behaved admirably. J. B. Vandergrift's team, Cordelia and Little John, were awarded the red, and H. P. Bope's Duke and Earl got the white ribbons. Frank and Harry, belonging to F. T. F. Lovejoy, were given the yellow ribbon.

Searchlight, the Prize Jumper.

A lot of interest was displayed in the men's hunters class. The hurdles were high and the sport had an element of danger in it. Probably for this reason more than usual enthusiasm was manifested when this class was called. Most of the horses took the fences well, but only one got over every time without touching the bars with at least one shoe. Searchlight, owned and ridden by Dallas C. Byers, proved the cleanest jumper and got the blue ribbon. F. M. Lowry's Countess took second; J. E. Phillip's Renleigh, third, and D. Hayden Collin's Volley, fourth.

In the high-stepper class the horses entered were given an opportunity to show their paces. Some of the prettiest horses ever seen at a Pittsburgh show were entered in this class, and the showing they made brought applause from the spectators. After some deliberation the blue ribbon was awarded to Miss Louise Elkins, who drove her Prince Albert. The decision evidently pleased the crowd, for when the award was announced Miss Elkins was loudly cheered and had to drive her horse around the ring several times, to satisfy those outside the rail. The other winners were J. B. Vandergrift's Alarm, E. Groetsinger's Leading Lady and F. E. McClure's Peaches.

Flinn Took Another Ribbon.

Senator Flinn got another blue ribbon in the tandem class when the award went to his Prince and Queen. It was their second blue ribbon. They were driven by F. M. Lowry, who contributed greatly to the showing they made by doing some very clever driving. J. G. Bennett's Queen and Lady got the red ribbon, and George E. Macklin's Princess and Mignon got the white.

There was a long list of roadsters entered, and some difficulty was found in naming a winner. The horses were brought out four at a time and judgment passed on them separately. John A. Davidson's Jenney Merriman was finally given the blue ribbon. The other winners in order were: W. H. Keech's Billy Burns, J. P. Murphy's Hopeful and Frank E. McClure's Dan.

The pony class was shown last and was an amusing event. The tiny animals, driven by very small children, trotted around the ring for fully 10 minutes. When they were all in, it was discovered that in justice to the smallest animals it would be necessary to divide the number into two classes. The largest ponies were driven off and made up a class of themselves.

Ponies Were Divided.

In the class for small ones, Brownie, driven by Frank and Kenneth Lovejoy, got the blue ribbon. The other winners in order were: Peanut, owned by Joseph Adam Giesenkamp, Ned, owned by Norley Queen, and Standford L. H. Mueller's Ruth.

In the other class the awards went to Joseph J. Vandergrift's Ratchen, Miss Edith Flinn's Gypsy, Albert Fack's Rose Bud and Miss Laura E. Bope's Bobby. At the conclusion of this race all those who were not awarded prizes were given either white or yellow ribbons, so that each could have a souvenir.

When all the classes had been shown, Mr. F. M. Lowry, with two of the club's huntsmen, brought out the hounds, a pack of about 50, and trotted them once around the ring.

The success that attended the show yesterday will probably result in the organization of a permanent horse show association.

King Edward Interested.

The Pittsburgh Carnegie institute has attracted the attention of King Edward, who, on his recent visit to Skibo castle, the home of Andrew Carnegie in Scotland, expressed a desire to visit the institute. In a letter received by Dr. Holland, director of the museum, from Mr. Carnegie, the latter states that King Edward expressed himself as greatly interested in the institute and the recent discoveries of the Carnegie paleontologists in Wyoming.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR PITTSBURGH

Will Compete With the Few Makers of Coal-Mining Machines.

$300,000 PLANT PLANNED

Lloyd Mfg. Co. Will Produce Machines from Plans and Patents of F. C. Lechner, Former Expert of Established Rival.

Pittsburgh is to be headquarters and manufacturing center of a new concern which will make a new coal mining machine in competition with the few interests which now divide this trade. The new company is the Lloyd Manufacturing Company, which perfected a preliminary organization some time ago and has been manufacturing machines in a small way in South avenue, Allegheny. The syndicate forming the company is now ready to erect a large plant, to be located somewhere in the Pittsburgh district, the site not yet being selected from several on which options are held.

The syndicate is satisfied with the machines now being produced at the Allegheny plant and has arranged to increase its investment and expend about $300,000 on a new plant. The machine is built on plans and patents of F. C. Lechner, formerly connected with the Jeffrey Manufacturing Company of Columbus, O.

The Lloyd company enters the field against the competition of only a few concerns, none of which is located in Pittsburgh. These concerns are now rushed to supply the growing demand of coal operators. The most important of these concerns are the Morgan-Gardner Electric Company, the Goodman Manufacturing Company of Chicago and the Jeffrey Manufacturing Company of Columbus, O.

The Lloyd company is organized with the following officers and directors: C. H. Lloyd, president; Stephen Newburn, vice president; John C. Donehoo, secretary and treasurer; Former Sheriff James F. Richards, F. C. Lechner and F. G. Andrews, purchasing agent of the Pittsburgh Coal Company. The directorate is soon to be increased to seven members. Among other shareholders are W. M. Laird, David Rees and other members of James Rees & Sons Company, John W. Bolleau and George S. Houghton. The last two acted as promoters in the organization of the company.

At a meting Thursday night the stockholders, of whom 40 were present, voted for an increase of the capital stock from $150,000 to $300,000, and application was made through Attorney George M. Hosack for authority to issue the additional stock. The present shareholders will have the first call for the new stock at share for share already held. Several of the coal-producing interests are represented as some of the largest shareholders. The stock is all common and the company will have no bonds.

COURT EXPUNGES ACHESON'S NAME

Not Legally Nominated for Congress by Republicans, Holds Dauphin Judge.

BALLOT PLACE A BLANK

His Name Will Appear in Column Headed "Regular"—Cunningham, Beaver Rival, on an Equal Footing With Him.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 17.—The certificate of Congressman Ernest F. Acheson of Washington, Pa., Republican nominee for congress in the Twenty-fourth district, composed of Beaver, Lawrence and Washington counties, was declared invalid today by the Dauphin county court.

The decision leaves the Republicans without a regular candidate in this district, although Acheson's name will appear on the ballot by nomination papers under the head of "regular." James H. Cunningham, Beaver's choice for congress, has filed nomination papers as the Citizens party candidate. Charles H. Eckert of Beaver is the nominee of the Democratic and Flinn-Grimes Ballot Reform parties.

Cunningham claims, in his objections to Acheson's certificate, which are sustained by the court in an opinion written by Judge Simonton, that the nomination of Acheson by Lawrence and Washington counties without the concurrence and consent of Beaver county, was illegal.

A conference of leading Republicans of the counties composing the district was held in Pittsburgh last February, at which a rule was adopted by the votes of Lawrence and Washington counties providing for the nomination of Republican candidates for congress in the district by popular vote. The Beaver county conferees voted against this proposition, and subsequently the Beaver county Republican committee refused to ratify the action of the conference.

At the primary election Acheson received a majority of the votes cast in the district, while Cunningham had a majority in Beaver county. Beaver declined to appoint a return judge to meet with the judges from the other two counties, who computed the votes of Lawrence and Washington and nominated Acheson.

Judge Simonton says that, if the rule adopted at the Pittsburgh conference was not binding on the Republican party of Beaver county, there was no rule providing the manner in which nominations for congress should be made in the district.

"It is to be regretted," he adds, "that the representatives of the party in Washington and Lawrence counties did not proceed with more deliberation.

"We are forced to the conclusion that the nomination having been made by two of the counties forming the district, without the concurrence of the third, it cannot stand, and the nomination certificate of Mr. Acheson is, therefore, adjudged invalid."

The Children's Toyland.

Be a child once again and come with the children today to the Toy Department, 6th Floor, and enjoy the sight of the Christmas Toys. We spent months collecting these Toys and we are firmly of the opinion that no such liberal collections were ever seen before in Pittsburg—or will be during the coming Christmas festival.

And we desire to say to parents and all relatives of children that the best time to make selections is when lines are full and complete. Anyone asking us to lay aside toys for them, from the smallest example to the largest, will be accommodated. We will hold such selections up to the evening of the 24th of December and deliver to any place in the city or nearby towns.

To add spice to today's gathering in the Toy Store, we will sell that delightful game, Parcheesi, at the less price of 70c. Generally this game brings $1. And we will also sell Parlor Golf and the new Air Ship Game for $1.20 each. Any amount of fun can be extracted from either of these games.

Our Great Dollar Gloves for Women.

The Superba.

We will stand back of this splendid kid glove, one made especially for us by a noted French manufacturer, as being the best glove for that money that any woman ever had upon her hand, this so far as sightliness goes, and general good looks and perfect fit.

This Superba Glove will stand side by side with many that cost a half dollar or seventy-five cents more. That is not saying they are as good in quality—only in looks.

To take up the matter of quality we simply say they are dependable in every respect.

All colors, all tints of colors, as well as black and white.

Other special gloves at $1.25 and $1.50—the last price for our own Duquesne and Penn Avenue—two of the neatest kid gloves in the market today.

Misses' Box Pleated Skirts.

To our already large line of different kinds of skirts for young ladies two new numbers were added yesterday in box pleated effects. They are just the kind that any young lady of taste will admire, and they are not at all expensive, as you will see.

The first is of oxford and black cheviot and sells for $5.50. The lengths are 32 and up to 40 inches. We do not know where you could spend $5.50 and get as much satisfaction as in laying that amount out for this special skirt.

The other arrival was a mixed blue and black cheviot skirt with box pleated front and also pleats on the side. This is a particularly well tailored skirt and, of course, it goes without saying that the fit is perfect as can be. The price is $7.50.

Chafing Dish Sets.

Anticipating a great demand for this handy culinary implement, we laid in a great stock, and the variety goes from the inexpensive but serviceable dish to one with lots of fancy work that costs quite a neat sum.

For today we offer Chafing Dishes with good alcohol lamp, extra hot water pan and high dome cover, fork, spoon and tray, $7.

The Chafing Dish alone, $4.

Kin-Hee Coffee and the Kin-Hee Coffee Pot.

Perhaps you will recollect last spring, when we had a demonstration of the quickness with which coffee could be made in this coffee pot with the unique name.

It set a great many women to thinking, and the result was that all through the summer and up to the present time we have sold a great number of these excellent coffee pots. The young man, who is an expert in pointing out the workings of this vessel, happened in Pittsburg one day this week, and he consented to stay awhile and give daily demonstrations. So anyone stepping or riding down to the basement and going around to where the Kin-Hee booth is will be treated to a cup of the most delicious coffee that was ever brewed.

It is not alone in the vessel that the pleasing results are obtained.

However, ask him all about the coffee pot and the coffee, and you may find out something that is rather surprising.

Men's Shirts and Underwear.

We are told we have the best assortment of shirts in the greater city. Have you been to see? The styles for fall are ready. Fancy shirts that just escape being all white by the neatest of little figures and modest stripes. The markings are blue, red and black. Pleated bosoms and plain—both styles, opening in front.

The line of Men's Shirts at $1 is exceptionally complete.

We are selling a great many Manhattan Shirts with pleated bosoms, for $1.50. They are the newest of Fall effects—neat markings but very little color, with black and white as a favorite. Cuffs attached or separate.

In the underwear for cold weather, we have bigger stocks because we have bigger space. More variety. More chance to suit the greater variety of tastes—or notions, if you will.

Finest qualities in imported and domestic makes.

The heavier weights are now in demand and you are sure to find what you want here.

Gray merino, $1 to $1.50 a garment.

Drab merino, $1.75 each.

Brown merino, $2 a garment.

White merino, $1.75 a garment.

Natural wool, $1.50 to $2 each.

White wool, $2.25 each.

Ribbed Balbriggan, $1.25 to $1.50.

"Kotedsilk" Underwear, $2.50 a garment.

Dr. Deimel's linen mesh, $3.25 a garment.

Dr. Jaeger's pure undyed wool underwear, all weights, at their catalogue prices.

For men who prefer Combination Suits we have ribbed heavy Balbriggan at $2 the suit, and merino at $4, $5 and $5.50.

Some Great News of Silk Waists.

We have been selling more silk waists in the past three or four weeks than we ever did in the same time, since we began selling silk waists, and that is a good many years back. Of course, in such great selling as this necessarily some of the waists become slightly soiled. We have quite a number that are hurt somewhat.

There are no blacks, but you will find plenty of colors—probably the very thing you will want.

At $5 instead of $10.
At $7.50 instead of $15.
At $10 instead of $20.

Some very pretty Silk Waists, rather delicate of color, such as pale blue, gray, yellow, and the preferable black, at $4 and $5 each.

Special Prices for Good Lights.

Drop lights for easy and comfortable reading, and a particularly low price for a good kitchen light.

Brass Portables, fitted with 10-inch shade, burner, mantle, chimney, goose-neck and tubing, for only $2.25.

For the kitchen an extra good light consisting of gas burner, globe and mantle, for the very special price of 20c complete.

FREDERICKS WON THE GOLF HONOR

Giles Defeated After 39 Holes of Hard Fought Contest.

RECORD LENGTH MATCH

Longest Ever Played on Local Links—Giles Lost by Weak Putting—King Beat Thompson for Second Cup.

Dr. D. P. Fredericks of Oil City won the open tournament of the Country club yesterday, defeating E. E. Giles, the dark horse in the event and the victor over Champion Byers by one up in 39 holes.

The sensational close to the greatest golf tournament ever held in the Pittsburgh district was the longest contest ever decided in a local golf event of any nature. It was far from the most brilliant, however, as both of the players were decidedly erratic during the last part of the afternoon round and offered some remarkably weak putting. The feature above all else was the nervous play of Giles on the last six holes, where he threw the match away several times by the missing of 18-inch and two-foot putts.

Possibly a bigger surprise than the defeat of Byers was the winning of the second cup by Willis L. King, Jr., of the Pittsburgh Golf club, who defeated O. D. Thompson in the 36-hole contest by 4 up and 3 to play. King is scarce out of his teens and has never figured prominently in a local tournament before, while Thompson qualified in the first eight of the recent championship tournament and was regarded as an almost sure winner, when he was found to have fallen into the second 16 in the present event.

DR. D. P. FREDERICKS, of Oil City, the Winner.

Golf Was Not Fast.

Neither Fredericks or Giles in their match qualified the golf played by Porter and Ormiston in their match, nor did they approach the best medal scores of the tournament. The special 36-hole match arranged for today between Fredericks and Porter is, therefore, arousing great interest. Several hundred dollars have been wagered on the result. They have never met in match play and the contest is to be decided on the Country club course.

Both Fredericks and Giles played evenly on their long games in the morning and were only fair in putting. Fredericks was one up with a medal score of 84 to 83 for Giles. In the afternoon Giles grew very nervous and was unsteady in his putting. He was 4 down at the 26th hole. G. W. Porter here became his caddie and the dark horse, who is much younger than Fredericks, steadied down. He took five out of six holes and was one up, with four to play. Fredericks took the next and Giles missed a two-foot putt for the 34th. As he took the next the match would have been over but for this wretched putt. Fredericks won the home hole on better approaching and they started on the extra holes.

Giles Threw It Away.

Giles was still throwing matches away, however, and after reaching the green in two by a beautiful brassey from a bad hanging lie, the verdict was "all over" with Fredericks over the green on his third stroke. Giles missed a 15-inch put, however, midst groans and the hole was halved on Fredericks holing from a beautiful approach out of the grass. The next was halved on Giles missing a three-foot putt and then came the greatest play of the match. Giles played sensationally on to the green, six feet from the hole, from a sliced drive over the fence in the edge of the woods, a wonderful shot. Fredericks was lucky to roll a half topped approach three feet from the hole and won the match by holing, while Giles' putt stopped six inches from the cup.

MATCH CONTEST POSTPONED.

Golf Events Scheduled for Local Courses Today.

The match golf contest scheduled for today between the Edgeworth and Westmoreland County club teams has been postponed. On the Edgewood course an 18-hole handicap qualifying round will be played for the J. S. George cup.

On the Highland course the best eight net scores qualify for the President's cup, offered by E. Z. Smith.

On the Schenley course the first 18-hole preliminary rounds for men and women will be played for the Laughlin challenge cups.

An 18-hole handicap will be decided on the Allegheny Country club course for the cup offered by H. R. Rea.

The first 18 holes under handicaps will be decided on the Country club course for the Manor cup, and second cup offered by J. Grout Anderson. The second round is scheduled for October 25. The fourth contest for the Wilbur Shenk cup will also be played.

On the Edgewood course there will be 18 holes of handicap play for the President's cup, being competed for under the point system.

Mrs. R. P. Nevin, Jr., Won Cup.

Mrs. R. P. Nevin, Jr., won the cup offered by Miss Lucy Christy in the final match of the women's tournament on the Edgeworth course at Sewickley yesterday, defeating Mrs. Elliott Rodgers by 4 up and 3 to play. Mrs Rodgers had a handicap of two strokes in 18 holes.

J. R. TAYLOR WON THE HANDICAP GOLF CUP

Had Net Score of 77, While Ormiston Took 78 Strokes from a Scratch.

The only cup of the tournament going the Country club, was won by J. R. Taylor in the 18-hole handicap, with a net score of 77 from a handicap of 16 strokes. George Ormiston of Highland, who had the best gross score, tied with J. H. Snowden of Oil City for the second cup. They will play 18 holes today. The excellence of the handicapping proved a feature of the tournament, as shown by the closeness of the net scores in the following list:

ST. LOUIS COUNCILMEN BEFORE GRAND JURY

Supposed to Be Telling Secrets of Bribery Combine in House of Delegates.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—William L. Tamblyn, John Helms and Otto Schumacher, former members of the house of delgates, who have been in jail for six weeks on the charge of boodling, went before the grand jury as witnesses this afternoon after a conference with Circuit Attorney Folk.

It is not known why they went before the grand jury, but as J. K. Murrell, E. E. Murrell and George F. Robertson are ready to give testimony against their former colleagues in the house, it was at once concluded that the three new witnesses must have testimony such as the Murrells and Robertson cannot give against the alleged bribe givers in the lighting case—such testimony as is wanted from Charles F. Kelly, a fugitive from justice.

Arguments for a new trial in the case of R. M. Snyder, banker and promoter, convicted of bribery and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, were continued for one week in Judge Ryan's court today, at the request of Judge Priest, counsel for defense.

WILL KEEP PRICES UP TO PROFIT LIMIT

Flint Bottle Manufacturers Getting Into Closer Agreement May Form Selling Agency.

A new executive committee of the American Flint Bottle Manufacturers' association will meet in Pittsburgh October 23, to further develop the co-operative policy of the manufacturers. An advance of 20 per cent in prices, decided on at a meeting held at the Hotel Lincoln recently, has been put into effect and is being maintained.

Leading members of the organization hold that the continuance of profitable prices is a certainty, partly from the increased cost of coal everywhere, the waning gas supply in the Indiana belt and a curtailment in production, which has been brought about, so that the market requirements are about equalled by production.

The big association, which has been rather cumbersome in its operations, has been divided into a Pittsburgh, an eastern and a western branch. The plan is to have the members of each branch organization meet more frequently than has been possible before and to adjust general questions through the representation on the general executive committee.

The Pittsburgh branch of the organization has named as its members on the executive committee: George W. Yost, of the Bellaire Bottle Company, Bellaire, O.; John Morrison, of the Fidelity Glass Company, Tarentum, Pa.; and C. H. Beach, of the Saltsburg Bottle Works Company, limited, McDonald, Pa.

While the present organization has been strengthened the frequent meetings are understood to be considering plans for the formation of a still closer organization, possibly the establishment of a general selling agency company, or an organization which will absorb the producing interests to within 10 per cent of the capacity of the country.

IRISH PARTY ARRIVES.

John E. Redmond Says Land Question Is on Eve of Settlement. Discusses Coercion.

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—On the steamship New England, which arrived from Queenstown and Liverpool today, were John E. Redmond, M. P., chairman of the Irish Parliamentary party and president of the United Irish league; John Dillon, member of parliament for East Mayo, and Michael Davitt.

Mr. Redmond, speaking of the present condition in Ireland and of matters relating to the United Irish league, said:

"The United Irish league is the ruling power in Ireland today, as truly as ever the Land league was. The government played into our hands by the coercion policy, and now the country is aroused. We are on the eve of a settlement of the Irish land question, and after that national self-government will speedily come to Ireland.

"The Irish party now in the house of commons is the only real opposition in the English parliament, and I believe the day is near at hand when it will have the controlling influence in Great Britain."

EAGER FOR ANNEXATION.

Danish Anti-Sale Emissary Visits the West Indies and Finds His Mission a Failure.

ST. THOMAS, D. W. I., Oct. 17.—(Copyright Cable.)—Residents of the Danish West Indies are rejoicing at the prospect of an early settlement of the sale question. They all are in favor of annexation.

Col. Rambusch, emissary of the anti-sale party in Denmark, sailed yesterday on the Fontabele for New York. His mission to the islands was a failure. He is reported to have said that there had been a misrepresentation of the situation to the anti-sale party in Denmark. He found the people of the islands strongly in favor of annexation to the United States.

MEETINGS OF ENGINEERS.

Programs Prepared for Engineers' Society of Western Pennsylvania.

At the next meeting of the Engineers Society of Western Pennsylvania, on Tuesday evening, October 21, Henry S. Mould will read a paper on "Briquetting," and Antes Snyder, engineer right-of-way, Pennsylvania railroad, will present a history of the bridges, preceding, and on the site of the structure now being erected by the Pennsylvania lines over the Allegheny river at Pittsburgh. The reception committee has arranged for the usual dinner at the University club, preceding the meeting.

At the November meeting, which will probably be held on Saturday evening, November 22, Prof. Albert Sauveur, manager of the Boston testing laboratories, will read a paper on "The Use of the Microscope in the Determination of the Properties of Steel."

Society

EXCLUSIVE and fashionable society met last evening in the North Presbyterian church to witness the marriage of Miss Lois Livingston Bailey, the second daughter of James Madison Bailey of Lincoln avenue, Allegheny, and Edward Duff Balken of the East End. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock, the pastor of the North church, the Rev. Dr. Henry D. Lindsay, officiating, assisted by the Rev. S. Edward Young, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church.

The handsome interior of the church was richly decorated with stately palms and potted plants, huge white chrysanthemums, completing a beautiful effect. The bride entered with her father, and was preceded by but one maid, Miss Mathilda Allen of Boston, a former classmate of the bride at Miss Peeble's school in New York. Mr. Balken's best man was Lusius Hopkins Miller of New York, and the ushers were William Booth Trainer of Philadelphia, Edward Augustus McAlpin, Jr., New York; Robert Garrett, Baltimore; Colbert Anderson McClure, Fitzhugh Speer, Robert Pitcairn, Jr., Stuart Robinson and David Aiken Reed, Pittsburgh.

The bride was given away by her father. Her gown was a beautiful imported lace robe over white liberty satin. Her veil of tulle and lace was caught with a jewelled ornament and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, maiden-hair ferns and orchids. The maid of honor was gowned in white chiffon, tucked and trimmed with exquisite lace. She carried a bouquet of orchids and ferns.

After the ceremony a reception was conducted at the Bailey residence, a few steps away from the church, the hours being from 8 until 11. The decorations were superb. In the drawing room, where Mr. and Mrs. Balken received, towering palms and smilax, with white chrysanthemums, were artistically arranged. In the library, yellow chrysanthemums prevailed, and the decorations in the dining room were in pink, myrads of pink roses with pink capped candelabra producing an exquisitely beautiful effect. During the evening Mr. Balken and his bride left on their wedding trip and have announced no time for their return. They will live in Colonial place, Shadyside.

The bride made her social debut several seasons ago, and was the maid of honor at the brilliant wedding of her sister, Mrs. Birney K. McMeeken, a year later. She is related to the Dalzells, the Tindles and other old Pittsburgh families. Last year she spent abroad with her sister. Mr. Balken is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Balken of College avenue, East End. He was graduated from Princeton with the class of '97 and is a member of the Princeton club of New York, the University club of Pittsburgh and several of the local fashionable clubs.

The Return of the Delegates.

In a special car arriving in Pittsburgh shortly after noon yesterday, the local delegates and visiting club women, 40 strong, came home from Titusville. The Pittsburgh women had a prominent part in the program of the annual meeting of the state federation of Pennsylvania women and the voice of a Pittsburgh singer was one of the last heard on the platform. The meeting closed on Thursday evening with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," Mrs. Myron R. Stowell, a delegate from the Tuesday Musical club, singing two stanzas of the song, the other two being sung by Miss Hench of Harrisburg, while the entire company of club women from all over the state sang the choruses.

One of the most pleasant features of the meetings of the federation was the appearance of Mrs. Stowell and Miss Elizabeth Webster, the delegates from the Tuesday Musical club of Pittsburgh. On Wednesday evening Miss Webster played a "Caprice," written for the left hand alone, which was so brilliant a performance that it was repeated on Thursday evening by request of the federation. Mrs. Stowell sang on both evenings with marked effect, her voice showing its rare lyric qualities and beauty of tone.

One of the most interesting sessions of the federation was that presided over by Miss Kate McKnight on Thursday and devoted to the discussion of civics. Mrs. Franklin P. Iams told of the work of her special sanitation committee in this city; Mrs. Mattie Patterson read a paper prepared by Mrs. Frank Wallace on one phase of the work, and Mrs. W. F. Abel read Suzanne Beatty's paper on "The Abatement of the Smoke Nuisance."

The club women of Titusville entertained their guests right royally and gave a reception in their honor. One evening a concert was given and on still another occasion Miss Marie Shedlock from London gave a talk on "Hans Christian Anderson's Fairy Tales."

All the returning delegates regard the meeting of the federation just closed as the most harmonious yet held in Pennsylvania. Pittsburgh was represented by 20 delegates from the local clubs, nine clubs having been enrolled in the state federation this year, and was also represented by 20 visiting club women.

Wedding Invitation Out.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Humbird on Thursday issued invitations for the wedding of their eldest daughter, Miss Grace Humbird, and Ralph Longenecker. The marriage will be solemnized at the home of the Humbirds in Morewood avenue, Shadyside, on Thursday evening, October 30, at 8:30 o'clock, and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Henry D. McClelland, pastor of the Bellefield Presbyterian church.

The bride will be attended by her sisters, Miss Eleanor Humbird being the maid of honor, and the two younger sisters, Miss Emma C. Humbird and Miss Anita B. Humbird, will be the bridesmaids. This will be Miss Anita Humbird's first appearance in society, Miss Emma Humbird having been introduced only last winter. Russell Longenecker of Bedford, Pa., will be his brother's best man, and the four ushers will be Charles Longenecker, John C. Humbird, Southard Hay and King Scott.

Miss Humbird made her debut several seasons ago, and has been very popular socially. Mr. Longenecker has made his home in Pittsburgh since graduating from college and from the law school, and is one of the younger attorneys. His former home was in Bedford, Pa., where his parents still live.

Bonar—Patterson.

WASHINGTON, PA., Oct. 17.—A prettily appointed wedding of yesterday was that of Miss Margaret Bonar of Vienna and James Patterson of Buffalo Village, this county. The ceremony was performed at high noon at the home of the bride's father, Samuel Bonar, at Vienna, in the presence of about 100 guests, by the Rev. Mr. Grant of West Alexandria, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Lester of West Alexandria. Miss Jenny Snodgrass of Claysville was maid of honor, and Dr. John Maxwell of Washington was best man.

A Tea for the Sunshine Society.

The Pittsburgh branch of the International Sunshine society will give a tea and musicale at the residence of Mrs. William Darsie, No. 1530 Shady avenue, near Forbes street, on Wednesday, October 29. The hours will be from 2 o'clock until 5. An interesting program will be given by Miss Mary Hackett, Mrs. F. R. Babcock, Mrs. Clase Andrews, Miss Charlotte Pendleton, Miss Lila McClaine, Miss Burt, Mr. Jiles and Mr. Ewart.

Frederick—Seager.

The wedding of Miss Minnie Frederick of Allegheny and Percy R. Seager of the firm of Seager Bros. took place at the home of the bride's mother on Wednesday evening. Only the members of the two families were in attendance. After the wedding supper the bride and bridegroom left for the east. They will be at home after November 1 in their new home, No. 1414 Chartiers street, Allegheny.

Union Club Meeting.

The women's clubs of the Monongahela valley will hold a union meeting on Thursday afternoon, October 23, in Hamnett hall, No. 735 Penn avenue, Wilkinsburg. Mrs. Samuel Hamilton and others will speak. This is the fourth union meeting to be held by these clubs, the movement being inaugurated in Western Pennsylvania by the Woman's club of Braddock.

Entertaining at Lenox.

Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse have been entertaining extensively at Lenox this fall and among their recent guests were the Austrian minister and Madame Hengelmuller. Mrs. Westinghouse is not expected to open her house in Washington, D. C., until after the Christmas holidays. Since returning from England a few weeks ago she had been mastering the art of automobiling.

Paper Wedding Anniversary.

Mrs. James Scott of Sewickley celebrated her second wedding anniversary yesterday. The house was beautifully decorated with different colored paper, it being the paper anniversary. The parlor was in green, the reception hall in red and the dining room in white. Mrs. Scott wore her wedding gown. Receiving with the hostess were Miss Clara Little, Mrs. G. A. Chaplin, Miss Clara Schlumps and Mrs. M. L. Oan. Those who assisted her in serving were: Mrs. McPherson, the Misses McPherson and Miss Stella Lucas.

Notes of Society.

The Pittsburgh Cotillion club gave the first of its winter series of dances last evening at the Cyclorama parlors, Allegheny.

Mrs. Robert Wardrop of Academy avenue, Sewickley, gave a dinner last evening. Twelve guests were present, a number of whom were from the city.

The last of the series of four garden parties and dances at the Brighton Country club was held last evening, the coolness of the evening necessitating dancing indoors.

On Monday evening, October 20, the Margaret Finch Rebekah lodge, No. 124, will celebrate the first anniversary of its institution at Industry hall, East Lacock street, Allegheny.

The young ladies of the Margaret McCandless Missionary society of the Sixth Presbyterian church will conduct a sale of home-made bread and cake this afternoon from 2 o'clock until 5, at the home of Miss Gertrude McCandless, Center avenue and Dinwiddie street.

The Rev. Dr. L. C. Barnes and Mrs. Barnes have been spending this week in Michigan visiting their relatives, preparatory to leaving Pittsburgh for Worcester, Mass., where Mr. Barnes will settle the first of November. Mrs. Barnes has been in Michigan for several weeks.

The usual Sunday afternoon free organ recital at Carnegie Music hall, Schenley park, will be given today by William K. Steiner of Pittsburgh, the organist at last evening's recitals. Mr. E. H. Lemare, organist of Carnegie institute, will take up his work again in about two weeks.

Tomorrow evening at 7:15, H. Lee Cornwall, organist of St. Peter's Episcopal church, will give the third recital of the Sunday evening series. The program will include, Finale in F, Capocci, Invocation in B flat, Guilmant; Offertory in D flat, Salome, and Marche Triomphale, Dubois.

DELAY FOR M'KEESPORT.

Selection of a Public Building Site Postponed for a Time.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.—The question of a selection of a site at McKeesport, Pa., has been temporarily postponed. The postmaster at McKeesport was here yesterday afternoon for the purpose of discussing the matter with Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Taylor.

The site for a public building at Warren, O., corner High street and Mahoning avenue, owned by Miss Warren Packard, price $10,500, was approved today.

The treasury department today awarded the contract for the structural steel work on the government building at the St. Louis world's fair to the Pennsylvania Bridge Company of Beaver, Pa., for $102,570.

FEMININE FADS AND FANCIES

A New Departure in Luncheons.

A hostess, tired of the everlasting centerpieces of flowers and ferns, recently varied things by making a wreath near the edge of her round table. This wreath was of regular nosegays, set in frills of different colored tissue paper, in china flower pots of different sizes and forms. Violets were in violet paper, scarlet tulips in scarlet, yellow jonquils in yellow, rose-colored azaleas in rose color, lilies of the valley were in pale green, white hyacinths were in white. A little flock of swans in white bisque, filled with violets, swam on a mirror placque before the hostess' place, and these were the favors.

The table service was exquisite, and nearly everything was brought on in big silver dishes. Grape fruit was served in its own cups set in a wreath of smilax. The center was scooped out and there was sugar and a dash of wine in the fruit. Cream vegetable soup was served in bouillon cups, the vegetables being chopped as fine as possible. Creamed lobster patties were served with tiny sweet pickles and olives. Little chicken pies and baked stuffed tomatoes were followed by a delicious apple salad.

The ice cream was in shape of fruits resting on a bed of green spun sugar. Then came black coffee.

Favored Bijouterie.

An odd bit is a little finger ring, curved and elongated to fit around the lowest joint on the inside of the hand and extend about an inch and a quarter down over the back of the hand. A really exquisite design is a slender bracelet of rose gold encircled by two women's figures, heads claspward and hands outstretched to touch the clasp jewel, a particularly fine sapphire, while in the fine fretwork just above this are three chip diamonds, whose tiny flashes accentuate the deep glow of the larger jewel and most artistically finish the whole unique design.

A reddish gold bulldog head with eyes and collar of amethyst, rubies or diamonds, has long been considered a favorite tie or stock clasp, but it has remained for the new art to introduce elephants' and lions' heads. All manner of trinkets are to be found in this odd design and some young women have taken to wearing sets that suggest a menagerie.

A revived fancy is in having one's photograph taken in a low-necked gown and a large picture hat. The effect is attractive and picturesque, but I cannot advise it as a desirable fashion. The idea is copied from old portraits by Gainsborough and has originated among a few women who are fond of novelty. Large black hats with waving plumes, or adorned with wreaths of flowers seem inharmonious when worn with evening gowns, but artists approve of this combination in portraiture.

How to Clean the Chatelaine.

A weak point in the much worn steel-embroidered chatelaine bags is that once tarnished by dampness or salt air their brightness cannot be restored. A suggestion for the improvement of tarnished steel work is to use burnt alum. Burn some alum and pound it fine and sift through coarse muslin. Apply dry with a soft brush. Powdered burnt alum can be bought at a drug store. Emery powder well rubbed on will often remove small spots of tarnish on steel. Either application needs thoroughness in using.

The American Girl As Seen in England.

A prominent English woman writing of English versus American girls says: "The average American girl is, on ordinary occasions, a far better hair dresser than the average English girl and does not require the ministrations of a lady's maid to turn her out bien coiffee. Her neat little head with the hair becomingly raised off her forehead and poufed around the temples is quite unmistakable, and she never goes to extremes in its arrangement unless, perhaps, in the matter of her bows. It was she who first discovered the becoming qualities of the double bow on the crown of the head and at the nape of the neck, and very deftly does she manipulate it, although I am bound to add its proportions, judging from some of those I have seen in the theaters lately, are a trifle exaggerated. Provided, however, that her hair is dressed simply on the top of her head it is always combed well up behind after the fashion of the Parisienne, and she never goes to the length of having it bouffant all around her head, a mistake which the English women are still often guilty of making."

WILL DEDICATE THE NEW CHURCH

Braddock Baptists Rejoice in Formal Opening of Handsome Structure.

RALLY DAY IN CHURCHES

North Avenue and Christ Methodist Episcopal Congregations Will Observe It—Presbyterian Synod Visitors in Pulpits.

The handsome new building of the First Baptist church, Braddock, will be dedicated tomorrow. Three services will be given, one in the morning, another in the afternoon, and in the evening the principal dedicatory service will be held. The new building is located at Seventh street and Talbot avenue and cost $20,000. It is thoroughly equipped with all modern conveniences.

A sermon will be preached at 10:30 in the morning by the Rev. Dr. J. Howard Harris, president of Bucknell college. The service will include an elaborate musical program, and the new pipe organ presented the church by Andrew Carnegie will be used. The prayer of dedication will be delivered in the evening by the Rev. George H. Trapp of Germantown, Philadelphia, a former pastor of the church.

At the Reformed Church of the Ascension, Allegheny, tomorrow morning, the Rev. A. C. Dieffenbach will review the work of the recent session of the Pittsburgh synod, which adjourned last Monday at Jeannette. The most encouraging work in the history of the synod was reported and the unusual demonstration of ministers and laymen urging upon themselves greater obligations in money and labors, was the feature of the meeting. The entire work will be discussed.

Rally Day in Two Churches.

The annual Rally Day of the North avenue Methodist Episcopal churches will be observed tomorrow. This will be the first Sunday of the conference year and appropriate exercises will be held morning and evening. The singing at both services in the North avenue church will be a feature. Those in charge are the pastor of the church, the Rev. Dr. E. L. Eaton, J. A. McConnell, A. D. Sharpe and Harvey Henderson.

The meeting of the Pennsylvania synod of the Presbyterian church in the First church, Allegheny, during the week focused the eyes of all Presbyterians to that church. The meeting adjourned last night, but many of the visiting clergy will remain in town and occupy pulpits tomorrow morning and evening. The moderator, the Rev. W. L. McEwan, will preach in the Synod church. The Rev. John H. Boggs of Philadelphia, a prominent minister attending the synod, will preach in the Ninth United Presbyterian church. In the morning his subject will be: "Our Elder Brother," and in the evening he will preach on "The Rich Fool."

Sermon on the Strike.

Of especial interest at this time will be a sermon on "The Anthracite Strike," which will be preached by the Rev. G. E. Hawes, in the Braddock United Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. Mr. Hawes will review the strike from its inception to the present, and will give some interesting facts anent the present situation.

The success of the Sunday evening popular services held at St. Andrew's Episcopal church has encouraged the leader to continue the social hour throughout the winter. Three additional instruments will be added to the orchestra tomorrow evening and the hymns chosen will be of a popular and well-known character.

The usual afternoon meeting at the Bijou theater will be conducted by the Rev. S. Edward Young. An elaborate musical program has been arranged. Benjamin Franklin Butts and the greater portion of the Festival chorus will render the vocal portion of the program and a full orchestration will be present. The congregational hymns will also be a feature.

FAREWELL PROGRAM AT THE BIG EXPOSITION

Damrosch Will Give a Patriotic Tone to the Wind-Up of a Most Remarkable Season.

The last day of the Pittsburgh exposition's remarkable season of 1902 is here and unless all signs fail this day will be "red lettered," both for attendance and enthusiasm. The Damrosch engagement has proven brilliant and successful beyond all expectations and so enthusiastic has Mr. Damrosch found his reception that he regrets the parting and has placed on his program as the final orchestral number the Lassen "Festival Overture," built upon the lovely and significant melody, "How Can I Leave Thee?"

From the first number to the last the program for this, the "banner day," is of Mr. Damrosch's choicest selection. At the 2 o'clock concert today David Mannes will play one of his brilliant violin solos; at 4 p. m. Harry Luckstone will sing the dashing "Toreador" song from Carmen; at the first evening concert Mr. Damrosch's beautiful "Cyrano" music will again be heard; while at the closing concert of the day and of the season Mr. Luckstone will repeat Mr. Damrosch's stirring "Danny Deever," which evoked such tremendous enthusiasm on Thursday evening.

And finally, as a glorious farewell to a glorious season, "America" will be intoned by the orchestra under Mr. Damrosch's baton, while Harry Luckstone will act as percentor and the entire audience will join in singing two verses of the great patriotic hymn.

Mr. Damrosch's afternoon program follows:

2 P. M.
"Romantic Overture"	Thuille
(New; first time.)
"Slavonic Dances"	Dvorak
Violin Solo, "Romance"	Svendsen
David Mannes.
Andante from Fifth Symphony	Beethoven
Waltz, "Morning Papers"	Strauss
"Jubilee Overture"	Weber
(a) "Traeumerei"	Schumann
(b) Rigaudon, "Xaviere"	Dubois
Ballet Music, "Henry VIII"	Saint-Saens
(a) "Gipsy Dance;" (b) "Scotch Idyl;" (c) "Jig"
"Song of the Toreador, from "Carmen"	Bizet
Mr. Harry Luckstone.
March, "Slav"	Tschaikowsky

Hughes Is a Hustler.

John Hughes, aged 10, of No. 2328 Webster avenue, was presented with a $25 gold watch by Miss Clara U. Frazier for selling the largest number of copies of the Newsboys Magazine in the recent contest, in which many of the newsboys took part. Young Hughes, who has been a newsboy for two years, sold 550 copies. He also received a suit of clothes for making the largest sales in the month of July.

ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY

Pittsburgh Synod Yesterday Celebrated Its Centennial.

NOTED ORATORS SPOKE

The Day Was Notable Because of the Many Masterly Addresses Heard at Different Sessions. Home Missions' Centennial.

The one hundredth anniversary of the organization of the old Pittsburgh synod and of the Presbyterian board of home missions was celebrated yesterday by the commissioners attending the Presbyterian synod of Pennsylvania in the First church, Allegheny. The celebration began in the morning and the building was crowded, about one-half of the audience being women.

The Rev. Dr. Henry D. Lindsay presided at the morning session and the Rev. Dr. William S. Plumer Bryan of Chicago, a nephew of the Rev. Dr. William Plumer, the famous preacher and theological professor of Allegheny 30 years ago, delivered the principal address. Dr. Bryan, who spoke on "Christian Education," during the day, was greeted by many relatives and friends. The Rev. Dr. William Henry Roberts of Philadelphia, stated clerk of the Presbyterian general assembly, gave "The General Historical Review."

Meed of Honor to Dead.

The report of the death of ministers during the year was read and a memorial minute adopted on the death of the Rev. Dr. J. J. Beacom of Coraopolis.

The several standing committees were then announced and met. They will report at this morning's session.

The afternoon session was presided over by the Rev. Dr. Frank A. Sneed and was devoted exclusively to the centennial exercises, commemorating the founding of the Western Missionary society. The Rev. Dr. Arthur Brown, a foreign missionary, delivered the address of the afternoon on "Foreign Missions."

The Rev. Dr. George S. Chambers delivered an address on "The Relationship and Claims of the Home Missions." He said the home missions are identical with the interests of the church and the agency for the multiplication of the churches. He said that while 600,000 immigrants came to the United States during the past year it hardly made a ripple of excitement among the people at large, yet the home missionaries should look after the evangelization of this great influx of population.

Roosevelt Commended.

He was vigorously applauded when he said, "God bless President Roosevelt for his work in bringing the anthracite strike to a settlement."

Dr. J. S. Fisher took the place of the Rev. Dr. McClelland, who is ill, and closed the exercises with an interesting talk on "Missions for Freedmen."

The meeting of the judicial committee was probably the most important held while the celebration was in progress. The committee took up the case of the church covenant of Williamsport, Pa., which has been up before three synods and three general assemblies. The trouble began in 1899, when the Williamsport session was brought before the Northumberland presbytery regarding the election of members of the session, and was turned down by the presbytery. The old members appealed to the synod, and then appealed to the general assembly, and now complain that their delegate was not seated in the Northumberland presbytery last spring nor this fall. The judicial committee yesterday refused to consider their complaint justifiable.

Two Masterly Addresses.

The session of the synod last night was presided over by the Rev. Dr. W. S. Shrom, who took the place of former Gov. Beaver, who was unable to be present.

"Some Movements in Present Day Evangelism" was the subject of a masterly address by the Rev. David R. Breed.

The Rev. Dr. D. S. Kennedy spoke on "Apostolic Evangelism," and in his address closely followed the thought of the previous speaker. Dr. Kennedy's address was one of the most brilliant heard at the sessions of the synod, and during his description of the crucifixion and Calvary he held the audience spellbound. At its conclusion almost every person present crowded to the platform to congratulate the speaker on his effort.

There will be a morning and afternoon session today, but none this evening.

In Local Pulpits.

The ministers attending the synod of Pennsylvania, now meeting in the First church of Allegheny, will preach Sabbath in the following churches:

President Strong Inaugurated.

LAWRENCE, KAS., Oct. 17.—Frank Strong, former president of the Oregon State university, was today installed as chancellor of the University of Kansas. The exercises were largely attended by the alumni and several noted educators were present. President Hadley of Yale was the leading speaker. Gov. Stanley spoke for the state.

FUSE FAILS TO BURN.

Evidence of Attempt to Blow Up Non-Union Man's House Found Near Scranton.

SCRANTON, PA., Oct. 17.—A box containing 10 links of giant powder, two sacks of gunpowder, two sticks of dynamite and a partly burned fuse was found in a recently vacated house owend by a non-union man at Grassy Island, near the Thirteenth regiment's camp, last night. A defect in the fuse prevented an explosion, which would have demolished the building.

The find was made by soldiers, acting as an escort to the owner of the house, Hendrick Bargoka, when he went to board up the windows.

Four foreigners, Anthony Betti, Paul Martelli, Hugo and Dominick Tribuse, who are suspected of knowing something of how the explosives came to be placed where they were found, are in the Thirteenth regiment's guard house awaiting a hearing.

Pittsburgh Student Chairman.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—John F. Byers of Allegheny was today elected chairman of the committee of nine which will have charge of the Yale junior promenade.

Disciples of Carrie Nation.

LONGFORD, KAN., Oct. 17.—Two hundred people last night wrecked the building in which Riseman's "joint" was conducted, smashed 20 cases of beer and 10 kegs of whisky and tarred and feathered a woman inmate.

WILL INTEREST EVERYBODY

Or at Least Everyone Who Suffers from Catarrh.

Catarrh in its various forms is a national disease, and the fact that nearly everybody suffers from it more or less leads many to neglect its proper treatment.

Nasal catarrh is a common cause of headaches, destroys sense of smell and if neglected reaches the throat, causing impairment and sometimes total loss of voice. Bronchial catarrh leads easily to consumption. Catarrh of stomach and liver are very serious and obstinate troubles, while it is now generally admitted that catarrh is the most common of all causes of deafness.

All of the more serious forms of catarrh begin with nasal catarrh, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge, stoppage of nostrils, irritation and frequent clearing of the throat, sneezing, coughing and gagging.

The old style of treatment with douches, inhalers, sprays, salves, etc., simply give temporary relief and everyone who has used any of them knows how useless they are and their inconvenience is such that very few have the time or patience to continue their use.

A radical cure of catarrh can only be obtained from a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood because no one will now dispute that catarrh is a constitutional or blood disease, and local applications can have no effect except to temporarily relieve local symptoms.

A new remedy which has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is a pleasant tasting tablet which is taken internally and acts upon the blood and mucous membranes.

It is composed of antiseptic remedies like Red Gum, Blood root and similar cleansing specifics which eliminate the catarrhal poison from the system.

The tablets being pleasant to the taste are dissolved in the mouth and thus reach the throat, trachea and finally the stomach and entire alimentary canal. They are sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

If desired, when there is much stoppage of the nose, the tablets may be dissolved in warm water and used as a douche in addition to internal use, but a douche is not at all necessary. A few dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. Dr. Ainslee says: "The regular daily use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets taken internally will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche or an inhaler."

They seem to give a healthy tone to the whole mucous membrane and it is really remarkable how soon they will clear the head and throat of the unnatural and poisonous catarrhal secretion.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is undoubtedly the safest, most palatable and certainly the most efficient and convenient remedy for any form of catarrh.

FATAL DISEASES.

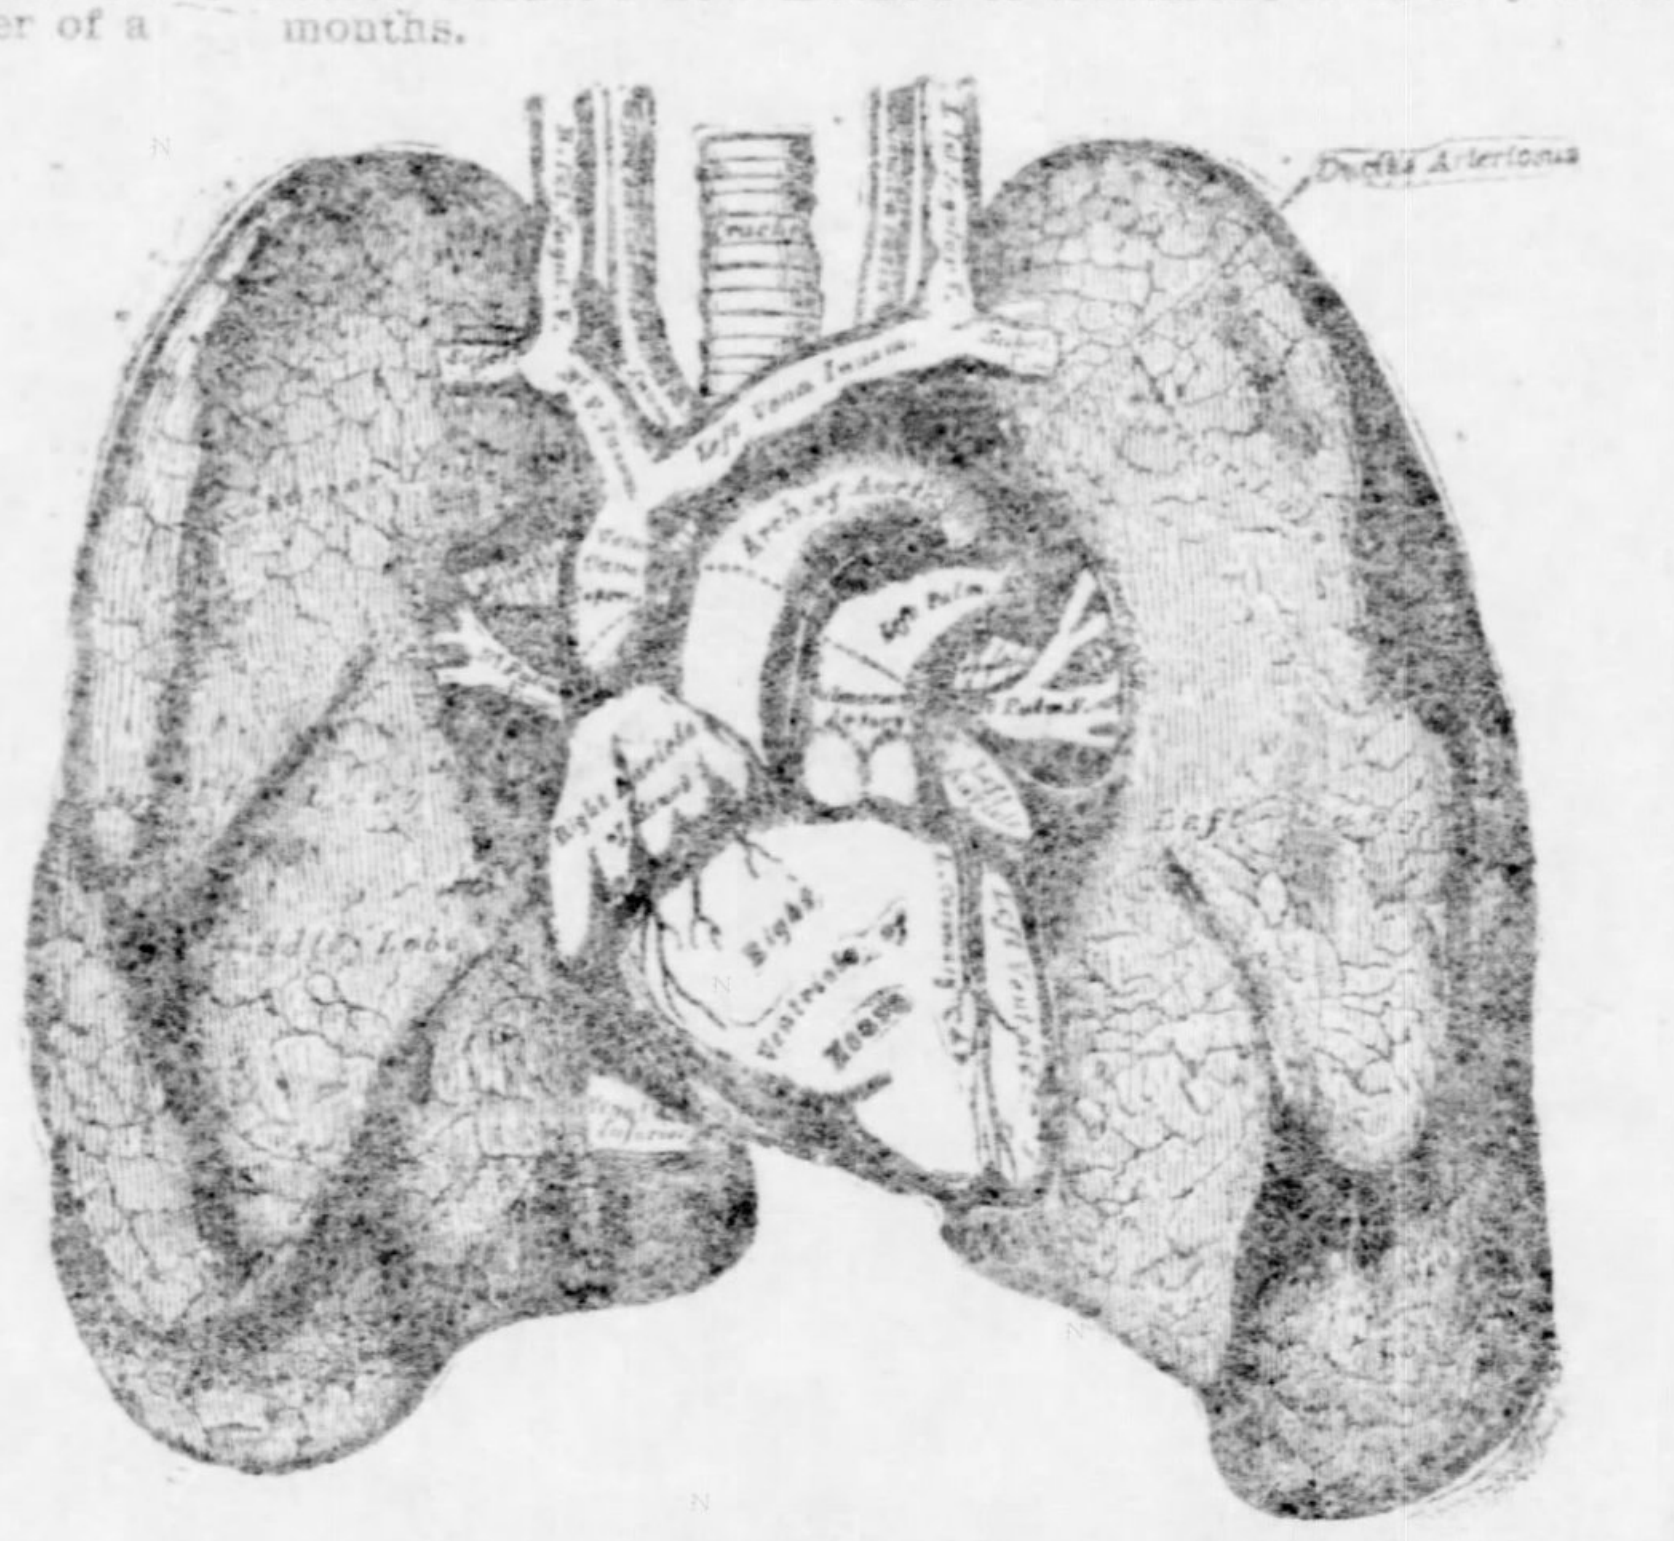
Diseases that destroy life do not begin as such, but are always the result of neglect, carelessness, putting off until some future time.

The story that has been told to Doctor Tucker in hundreds of cases by consumptives every year, and told in nearly the same words, began with a cold or the grip during the fall and winter months. More colds developed, which drove the disease deeper into the air passages, thereby weakening the system by loss of sleep, by fever, by a racking cough and exhaustive night sweats.

Consumption usually starts with catarrhal conditions that are developed during the fall and winter or early spring.

The best time to correct the processes that lead to consumption is manifestly the present time, before the trouble becomes too deep-seated.

Those who are threatened with Lung Diseases should make every effort to obtain a cure before the disease becomes too chronic. The cure of these diseases under Doctor Tucker's new method of treatment is usually a simple matter of a months.



VITAL ORGANS OF THE CHEST CAVITY.

Doctor Tucker's skill in the cure of lung diseases, bronchial trouble, catarrh, eye and ear disturbances needs no elaborate newspaper praise. It has so far surpassed and eclipsed the efforts of all other specialists that his name is a guarantee of the most skillful up-to-date medical service—and, best of all, SUCCESSFUL RESULTS.

DO YOU LIVE OUT OF TOWN?

If you do, you want to know that instead af wasting time and money with local doctors who cannot have any knowledge of chronic diseases and their cure, you can be cured by our new method of HOME TREATMENT as surely and quickly as if you consulted us in person.

BUCKNELL'S TEAM READY FOR GAME

College Eleven Arrived Last Night With Players in Fine Shape.

HOSKINS IS CONFIDENT

The Old P. A. C. Coach Thinks His Team Will Turn a Surprise—Stars Are Looking for a Lively Contest.

The Bucknell college football team, which stacks up against the Pittsburgh Stars at the Colosseum this afternoon, arrived in the city last night and took up quarters at the Seventh Avenue hotel. The team is headed by George Hoskins, the old P. A. C. coach, who is enthusiastic over his players and asserts that they will make the Stars do some lively hustling for a victory today.

Following the rather aggressive game with the Cottage team on Thursday, the Pittsburgh eleven had short, but snappy practice yesterday under the direction of Coach Richardson. Several of the men were slightly injured in the Cottage game, and only a few of the regular players were in their positions, although the full strength of the Pittsburgh team will be on the field today against Bucknell. In speaking of today's game, Coach Richardson said.

"Bucknell is a very fast team this year, and will be the toughest proposition that we will strike before the league games. A college team can always be depended on to fight for the last inch, and Hoskins, I think, is as good a coach as there is in the business today. He knows the game from A to Z, and has the faculty of coaching the men from the start of the game. We count on a hard game. Bucknell will probably score, but we will depend on Matthewson's foot to regain the territory."

The Pittsburgh team will come over from Greensburg on the noon train, and quite a crowd of Westmoreland county fans will be on the same train. The team will line up as follows:

Pittsburgh.		Bucknell.
Donohue	L. E.	Cockill
McNulty	L. T.	Shipp
Kerkhoff	L. G.	Taylor
Shirring	C.	Wilcox

MAHER'S GREAT RECORD.

Yankee Jockey Won One Hundred Races in England.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—(Special Cable)—The Newmarket meeting, which ended today, has almost been a record as regards attendance and good racing. The king's presence each day drew all the fashionable world of the turf.

While no American horses won today, Danny Maher, the American jockey, by guiding Sir Daniel Cooper's Flotsam to victory in the Middle Park plate, completed his century of winning mounts since the season began. His one hundred wins have netted his patrons $300,000 in stakes alone, which is a record sum.

Mr. W. C. Whitney, who sailed on Monday by the Celtic, purchased two fine brood mares for export to America.

WILL BE A DIFFERENCE.

The New Shamrock Will Contain Many Improvements.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—(Special Cable.)—Quite a radical difference between the Shamrock III. and her two predecessors will be found in the lines of the bow. The new challenger will not have the familiar blunt nose, but will be cut away much finer, with the idea of preventing her pounding when there is any sea.

Among Sir Thomas Lipton's friends there is quite a feeling of confidence that Shamrock III. will do the trick. Already there is some show of money to back the opinion, but long odds are demanded.

WILTZE FOR NEW YORK.

Ex-Pirate Will Be with the Invading American League.

SYRACUSE, Oct. 17.—Lewis Wiltse of this city has signed with the New York American league team for next season. He pitched for the Baltimore American team last season.

Announcement was made today that Dineen, the Boston American league pitcher, would retire from the game at the end of next season and engage in commercial pursuits.

Put Up Six Fast Rounds.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Billy Haynard of New York and Billy Ryan of Syracuse sparred six rounds tonight at the Ariel club. The result was a good go with little or nothing to choose between them at the finish. Ryan's work was the more spectacular. Maynard's body blows though, had force behind them and in a finish affair would have been effective.

WON BY SOPHOMORES.

W. U. P. Freshmen Beaten in the Field Meet.

The sophomore class at W. U. P. won the annual meet yesterday afternoon with the freshmen by a score of 80 to 23. The star of the meet was Clarke, a new man, and a soph who did some fine work in sprinting. McKee, a freshman, also did good work. Davis, an '05 man, came near breaking the record for the 220-yard dash, but failed by ¼ of a second. Following is a list of the events:

100-yard dash—Clarke, '05, first; Jackson, '05, second; Kennedy, '06, third.

One-half mile run—Page, '05, first; Crea, '05, second; Silliman, '05, third.

Low hurdles—Amberson, '05, first; Jackson, '05, second; Clarke, '05, third.

440-yard dash—Davis, '05, first; Mellon, '05, second; Silliman, '05, third.

Shot put—McKee, '06, first; Oliver, '06, second; Jackson, '05, third.

Broad jump—Clarke, '05, first; McKee, '06, second; Schaffer, '06, third.

High hurdles—Dambach, '05, first; Amberson, '05, second; Clarke, '05, third.

High jump—Amberson, '05, first; Clarke, '05, second; Berder, '06, third.

220-yard dash—Davis, '05, first; McKee, '06, second; Kennedy, '06, third.

Mile run—Page, '05, first; Crow, '05, second; Cooper, '06, third.

Hammer throw—No freshmen entered.

Pole vault—Clarke, '05 first; Shaw, '06, second.

Relay race—After three times around of the fastest kind of running and with the freshmen ahead Davis, the captain of the sophomores, beat his opponent, thus scoring five points for his class.

TIGERS READY FOR WASH.-JEFF.

GAME LOOKED ON AS A TEST FOR PRINCETON.

Regular Team Will Be Used in First Half—Yale and State Will Do Battle.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 17.—The Tigers were given light practice today and the coaches warned the players to save themselves and not take any chances, as they regard tomorrow's game with the Washington and Jefferson eleven as anything but an easy one.

The fact that Lafayette defeated W. & J. on Tuesday by 12 to 0 does not lessen the strength of the Pennsylvanians any in the eyes of the Princeton coaches, as the western team, with Dave Fultz as its head, is regarded as a very strong one this year, in fact its recent development of strength has caused the big eleven to be fearful of it.

In today's game the regulars will be used in the first half and the score at the end of that time will guide the coaches as to who shall be put in the second half of the game. This game is looked on as a real test of the Tigers' strength. The 'varsity was scored on today for the first time this season by the scrub eleven, the touchdown being made by Rafferty, who secured the ball on a fumble on the 20-yard line.

Yale Ready for State.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Yale's football players were sent through a rugged practice of 20-minute halves this afternoon in spite of the hard game expected with Pennsylvania State tomorrow. Hare and Hyatt, who played left end, were injured and retired. The 'varsity scored twice, but were held once at the two-yard line. The scrubs tried a place kick and drop kick against the regulars, but failed in both.

A swarm of new coachers poured in today, including ex-Capt. Murphy, the Rev. Mr. Cullen, Coy, 1900, and the old guard Heffelfinger, who had sent word from Minneapolis that he would be here next week. Capt. Chadwick has not played for four days, and will not go into the game tomorrow because of an injured knee.

Harvard Off to West Point.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The Harvard football squad left for West Point today. The men are: Bowditch, Mills, Barnard, King, A. Marshall, Wright, Jones, Kernan, C. Marshall, Leatherbee, Stillman, Mottley, Shea, Coburn, Lyon, Hovey, Whitwell, Matthews, Daly, Knowles, Forter, Meier, Oveson, Piper and McGlensey.

The competition for quarterback between Marshall and Daly at Harvard is one of the healthiest and most interesting contests that has ever occurred in picking a Harvard team. Marshall is a favorite because he played so well against Yale last year. Marshall in running excels Daly and is a more valuable man than Daly in the interference. Both men are well up to 'varsity standard and neither can afford to let up in his work or the other will displace him.

Strong Test for Pennsy's Team.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—There is no denying the fact that the University of Pennsylvania football team is in a crippled condition to meet the Brown university eleven on Franklin field tomorrow afternoon. This game is considered one of the most important of the early football season for the red-and-blue, and is usually arranged with the idea of testing the championship caliber of Penn. Brown has been the stumbling block of more than one team with championship aspirations, and it is feared that with unfavorable weather conditions the local players will not be able to make a satisfactory defense against the Providence team's heavy line.

Nearly ever player on the 'varsity squad is bruised in one way or another, and discolored eyes seemed to be quite the fashion.

Cornell and the Indians.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The last practice before Cornell's hardest game of the season—with the Carlisle Indians—proved a fitting climax to a disappointing week's work. Although signal practice only was on the program, the 'varsity ran through their plays in such ragged fashion that Coach Morrison was decidedly blue over the chances of success tomorrow. The line men did not possess the proper snap and ginger, while the backs ran loosely. No one seemed to know the signals. Some players claimed that they did not undertsand the plays, and much confusion resulted.

This poor showing, together with the fact that half a dozen players are more or less injured, makes Cornell's rooters not very confident.

MAY RACE IN EAST.

McChesney's Owners Will Do Anything for a Test Match.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—There is still a chance for a match race between McChesney, the best 3-year-old of the west, and Hermis, the champion 3-year-old of the east.

McChesney owners said today that they will ship their horse to Morris park and race him against Hermis, if the Morris Park Jockey club will hang up a purse of $5,000, such as the Worth Jockey club had offered for a similar match at the Worth track. McChesney's owners say they are so confident that they have the best horse that they will make a side bet for any reasonable amount.

RUNNELS BROKE TRACK RECORD

Won Sixth Race at Morris Park and Shoved Mark Down.

ROSSIGNOL BEAT MERITO

Had a Battle in the Williams Bridge Selling Stake—The First Race Proved to Be a Good Thing.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Oct. 17.—John A. Drake's Runnels, with Lyne in the saddle, won the sixth race, one mile and three-sixteenths, at Morris park today. He also smashed the track record for the distance, covering it in 2:01 flat, which is ¾ of a second faster than Sir Walter's record, made in 1897. The Charade colt was an odds-on favorite and won driving by one-half a length from Warrented. Rossignol, owned by O. L. Richards, won the first Williams Bridge selling stakes, from the favorite, Merito. Summaries:

ANOTHER GOOD THING.

St. Louis People Spring Another Surprise at Worth.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—E. J. Arnold & Co. of St. Louis put through another coup today at Worth. Their 3-year-old filly Ethylene, which they backed from 8 to 1 down to 4 to 1 in the fourth race at a mile, broke second, took a lead of a length at the quarter, increased it to five lengths in the stretch and won as she pleased from Sidney C. Love, with The Lady third, a length away. Ethylene equaled the track record of 1:39 4-5 for the mile, and if driven out could have set a new mark for the course. Weather cloudy and cold; track fast. Preparatory Team's Big Score.

The Allegheny Preparatory school team easily defeated the Lincoln A. C. by the score of 36 to 0. A. P. S. made several big gains, and their line held well, compelling the Lincolns to punt many times.

Knox Entertains Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.—President Roosevelt dined tonight at the home of Attorney General Knox, where Secretary Root also was a guest.

WILL PLAY AT BEAVER.

Cottage Players Are Sore but Still Full of Fight.

With the exception of a little soreness the Cottage players are none the worse as a result of their hard game with the Pittsburgh All-Stars on Thursday, and the boys are anxious for the fray with the Beaver A. A. this afternoon at Beaver.

Keally, the old Cottage team's crack half back, will again don the uniform and play at right half back. In Blunt, Manager Morgan has picked up another star. Blunt played for three years on the New York university team, and is well known to the football followers in New York city, having played with Knickerbocker A. C. in several championship games against Orange.

NEW CUP DEFENDER.

Builders Are Ready to Start on the New Yacht.

BRISTOL, R. I., Oct. 17.—The order for the new cup defender in the races with Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock III. has been placed with the Herreshoffs here, according to a report from an authoritative source.

Plans for the new craft were drawn many weeks ago in anticipation of the challenge and orders were placed for constructional metal and other requisites so that the builders are now ready to begin work as soon as the material has been assembled.

EAST END TEAM WILL DO BATTLE

PLAYERS ARE READY FOR THE THREE A'S GAME.

It Will Be Played at Friendship Park and Some Warm Rooting Is Looked For.

The East End Athletic football team will line up for its second game of the season against the strong Allegheny Athletic association eleven at Friendship park this afternoon. The game will be called promptly at 3:30 o'clock, and much interest is centered in the contest.

The Three A team is composed of some of the best local amateur players on the gridiron, and every member on the eleven is experienced in the great college game. East End Athletics went through light signal practice last night, and the team is in good shape for the contest. Women will be admitted free to the game. The line-up will be as follows:

FAVORITES WON AT LEXINGTON

Heats Were All Closely Contested and Sport Exciting.

2:02 PACE WAS LIVELY

It Was Won by Dan R., Who Had to Do Some Fast Traveling—Major Delmar Won the 2:09 Trot.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 17.—Favorites won the four events on today's card, but the opposition that each had made the sport exciting at all stages. Save in the last race the events were taken in straight heats.

Special interest centered in the 2:02 pace. Harold and Edith W. fought it out with Dan R. all the way in each heat, but he was good enough to land both. The time was 2:05 and 2:04.

The 2:09 trot led to another game struggle between Monte Carlo, Belle Kiser and Major Delmar, the latter winning. The time was within the class of the race in each heat.

Direct Hal won the Wilson stake, 2:20 class, and the fact that he had to cover the three miles in 2:09, 2:07 and 2:07¼ is proof of the character of the competition. The stake record is 2:06¾, made by Audubon Boy last year.

Dr. Straig had the hardest struggle of the day when he defeated Beldo in the 2:16 class trot.

Attendance, 5,000; track fast. The meeting will close with to-morrow's card.

FOUND A SISTER.

Parkersburg Man Lived Near a Relative and Didn't Know It.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—For 20 years George F. Albright, Jr., has lived within a few blocks of his sister, but until today he never even knew he had a sister. Neither did Mary Ashburn know she had a brother. Neither Albright nor Ashburn is their right name, but they were children of Mr. and Mrs. William Thornburg, both of whom died when the children were too small to remember them.

A sister who was older and married to a coal miner near Morgantown wrote to George today and told him of the relationship. George is an employe of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and Mary is a handsome young woman in good circumstances.

Cardinal Gibbons at Home.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—Cardinal Gibbons, who went to New Orleans about 10 days ago to see his brother, Maj. John T. Gibbons, returned to Baltimore today. His eminence was much improved in health by his brief vacation.

German Epworth League.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—The National German Epworth League union is holding its annual convention in this city with nearly 400 delegates. Sessions will last until Sunday.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

—Swissvale borough wants a fire department and a borough lockup, and both matters are to be taken up at the next regular meeting of the council.

—Burgess Welsh of Wilmerding, at a meeting of the council yesterday, tendered his resignation, to take effect at once. He said the honor was not worth the trouble and attention it required. Council has asked the court to appoint William D. George successor.

—The Crumpton family, one of the oldest and largest in the Turtle Creek valley, will hold a reunion at the North Versailles hotel, October 23. Nearly 200 members are expected to attend.

—Three laborers, James Reigho, John Cyran and James Maurauski, all of James street, Carnegie, were badly injured in Beechwood avenue Carnegie, yesterday morning. The men were employed digging a ditch for sewer pipes, when the braces holding the ditch's sides gave way, burying them under considerable earth.

U. S. PACKING COMPANY FILES ITS PAPERS

Concern Incorporated in New Jersey Believed to Be Combine of Beef Barons.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 17.—The United States Packing Company, which is understood to be the beef combine, was incorporated here today with an authorized capital of $1,000,000. It is understood that this amount will be subsequently increased to probably $500,000,000.

The company is authorized to purchase and deal in cattle and other live stock, carry on the business of butchers, packers, storekeeperes, construct and operate steamship lines, etc. The capital stock is divided into one-half preferred and one-half common.

The dividends are to be paid upon the preferred stock semi-annually, but are not to be cumulative. The dividends, however, are to be at no time less than 1 per cent, or more than 6 per cent per annum.

The incorporators of the company are Horace S. Gould, Frederick K. Seward and Kenneth K. McLaren, all of whom are clerks in a New Jersey corporation agency.

DELEGATES LEAVE TODAY.

Go to Convention of United Irish League.

The delegates to the first national convention of the United Irish league of America, to be held in Boston October 20 and 21, will leave Pittsburgh this evening. Among the 16 delegates from the several councils in Western Pennsylvania are the Rev. Father Toner, the Rev. Father John Price, Edward F. Duffy, Coleman Connelly, John Kane, Michael Scanlon, M. Gallagher, P. M. Fitzgerald, John McGenly and Michael Scanlon.

At the conclusion of the convention the envoys from Ireland are expected to visit several of the most prominent cities in the country, and it has been specially arranged that John Dillon will be in Pittsburgh to address a meeting of the United Irish league on November 11.

CLARKSON WILL SPEAK.

Noted Republican Campaigner to Appear at Kenwood Lawn.

It was announced late last night that Gen. J. S. Clarkson of New York would be one of the speakers at the machine mass meeting to be held at Kenwood lawn, in the East End, this evening. The committee arranging for the affair received a telegram from New York last night that Gen. Clarkson would surely be present.

Seven torchlight parades and an equal number of meetings, held in different parts of Allegheny county, was the "organization's" record last night.

HUGE BLANKET MORTGAGE.

It Is for $100,000,000 and Covers International Telephone Property.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Capitalists of Baltimore, Washington and this city today recorded a blanket mortgage of $100,000,000, covering all the property of the International Telephone Company of America, to the Trust Company of the Republic.

The International Telephone Company was recently incorporated in Delaware. Its president is S. B. Rhinehart, a banker of Waynesboro, Pa.

The President a Slave to Catarrh.
D. T. Sample, President of Sample's Installment Company, Wash., Pa., writes: "For years I was afflicted with Chronic Catarrh. Remedies and treatments by specialists only gave me temporary relief, until I was induced to use Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. It gave almost instant relief and has proved the one good thing in my case.—21.

BANQUET FOR PEARY.

Explorer Tells New York Arctic Club That He Discovered Most Northerly Land.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—At a meeting here today of the Peary Arctic club, it was decided to give Lieut. Peary a dinner when the explorer's physical condition will permit of his attendance.

Secretary Bridgeman read a letter from Lieut. Peary in which the latter expressed regret at his failure to attain the pole and pointed out that among the discoveries made was unquestionably the most northerly land on the globe.

He said that he would transmit to the club a complete report of his work of the past four years, accompanied by charts bearing the new nomenclatures, which, he declared, was his prerogative by right of discovery.

COMBINED AGAINST LABOR.

Alleged Object of Consolidation of Hat Making Companies.

YONKERS, N. Y., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—It is reported that a number of hat companies, headed by the Waring Hat Manufacturing Company of Yonkers, have combined.

One of the objects of the consolidation is said to be protection against the Hatters' union, which from time to time makes demands for better conditions. The Waring company has gained notoriety by its antagonistic attitude toward labor unions.

Fatal Fire in Ohio.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 17.—Charles Migret was burned to death and his brother, Carl Migret, was so seriously injured that he may die, in a fire which destroyed the Hucker wood rim factory at Urbana today. The Migrets were sons of the watchman. The property loss is $70,000.

Simms Gets Off With Draw.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 17.—Art Simms of Akron, O., and Otto Sieloff of Chicago fought a six-round draw before the Milwaukee Boxing club tonight. With the exception of the third round, the bout was a hugging match all the way through. In the third Simms floored Sieloff, who took seven of the count.

"YANKEE OAK."—UNMASKED.

"Yankee Oak" is a name covering a multitude of substitutes for genuine Oak Sole leather.

Common "Hemlock" or "Red" leather is now chemically bleached and softened, till it looks like genuine "Oak."

It is then re-christened under some fancy trade name which includes the word "Oak."

But though it looks like Oak, its wear is inferior even to honest Hemlock, which is brittle, heavy, spongy, crumbly and cheap.

Ninety per cent. of all $3.50 shoes are made of this kind of leather, which the U. S. Government specifically debars from use in Army brogans.

Using such leather in shoe soles, is like putting a mud foundation under a steel structure.

It costs the Regal factory over $400.00 per day to put the best Oak bark tanned sole leather into every pair, instead of the "Yankee Oak," "Union," and straight "Hemlock" used in other $3.50 shoes.

This adds a dollar to the wear of every pair of Regals—at no extra cost to you.

Observe in our Windows, the shoe dissection test which no other store dare offer.

Fall styles now on sale.
Style Book on request.

NOTICE is hereby given that the burgess and council of the borough of East Washington, Pennsylvania, will, until October 21, 1902, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., receive sealed proposals for the purchase of bonds of said borough, as follows: First—Sewer bonds, Nos. 1 to 40, inclusive, Series "A," par value $20,000.00. Second—Street paving and grading bonds, Nos. 1 to 60, inclusive, Series "B," par value $30,000. Said bonds are all to be dated November 1, 1902, of the denomination of $500.00 each, to bear interest from date at the rate of 4 per cent per annum, payable on May and November 1st of each year, to be coupon or registered at the option of the purchaser, free of all taxes and only so many are to be sold under this proposal as may be required to pay for the work for which the same were authorized. The said bonds are to be divided into blocks of the par value of $5,000.00 each, and the proposals offered must be for each block separately. The dates of maturity of the said bonds in Series "A." are as follows: Nos. 1 to 10, inclusive, par value $5,000.00, one November 1 of each year from 1903 to 1912, inclusive; Nos. 11 to 22, inclusive, par value $6,000.00, two November 1 of each year from 1913 to 1918, inclusive; Nos. 23 to 26, inclusive, par value $2,000.00, November 1, 1919; Nos. 27 to 30, inclusive, par value $2,000.00, two November 1 of each year from 1920 to 1921, inclusive; Nos. 31 to 36, inclusive, par value $3,000.00, three November 1 of each year from 1922 to 1923, inclusive; Nos. 37 to 40, inclusive, par value $2,000.00, November 1, 1924, and of said Series "B," as follows: Nos. 1 to 12, inclusive, par value $6,000.00, one November 1 of each year from 1908 to 1919, inclusive; Nos. 13 to 16, inclusive, par value $2,000.00, November 1, 1920; Nos. 17 to 21, inclusive, par value $2,500.00, November 1, 1921; Nos. 22 to 27, inclusive, par value $3,000.00, November 1, 1922; Nos. 28 to 33, inclusive, par value $3,000.00, November 1, 1923; Nos. 34 to 40, inclusive, par value $3,500.00, November 1, 1924; Nos. 41 to 47, inclusive, par value $3,500.00, November 1, 1925; Nos. 48 to 54, inclusive, par value $3,500, November 1, 1926; Nos. 55 to 60, par value $3,000, November 1, 1927. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. Norman E. Clark, Secretary Pro. Tem. Washington, Pa.

SEALED PROPOSALS—Sealed proposals will be received at the office of Rieger & Currier, architects, 310-310½-311 Smith block, Pittsburgh, Pa., until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, of October 21, 1902, for the construction of a municipal building to be located on Eighth avenue and Andrew street, Munhall borough; also for the construction of an engine house to be located on Eleventh avenue extension and Martha street, Munhall, Pa., both buildings to be in accordance with the plans and specifications, copies of which may be had at the above office at the discretion of the architects. Above bids to be opened at the Munhall, Pa., council chamber between the hours of 8 and 10 p. m. on the said date of October 21, 1902. Contractor will be required to furnish a twenty thousand dollar bond for the municipal building and a bond for the full amount of the contract for the engine house. Said bonds to be a trust company bond and to be furnished within 10 days after the contract has been awarded. Bond to be approved by the borough council. The bids to be sealed and marked "Proposals for Municipal Buildings of Munhall, Pa.," and delivered to Rieger & Currier on or before the time above specified. The borough council in conjunction with the architects reserve the right to require each bidder to submit to them for examination and approval or rejection the bids of all sub-bidders. The borough council furthermore reserves the right to reject any or all proposals submitted. Rieger & Currier, Architects. W. W. Mechling, President Council. C. E. Alman, Secretary Council.

PROPOSALS—Sealed proposals will be received until 7:30 p. m. Monday evening, October 27, 1902, at room 13 Allegheny High school, Allegheny, Pa., for the purchase of coupon bonds of the Allegheny school district amounting to one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000). The bonds will bear interest at the rate of three and one-half (3½) per cent per annum, and will be free from state tax. They will mature as follows: Ten thousand dollars ($10,000) on October 1, 1913, and ten thousand dollars ($10,000) on October 1 of each succeeding year thereafter up to and including 1926; five thousand dollars ($5,000) on October 1, 1927. The bids must be accompanied by a certified check, payable to the order of the Allegheny school district, as a guarantee for the bid, amounting to $5,000. The High school committee reserve the right to reject any or all bids. The highest and best bid will be referred to the board of controllers for approval at the meeting Monday, November 3, 1902. For further information apply to
G. W. GERWIG, Secretary,
Box 77, Allegheny, Pa.

DEPOT Q. M. DEPT., Jeffersonville, Ind., October 16, 1902.—Sealed proposals, in triplicate indorsed on cover, "Proposals for Q. M. Supplies," and addressed to undersigned, will be received here until 10 o'clock a. m., October 30, 1902, for circulating boilers, horse shoes, sheet zinc, leather, etc., as per schedule, which will be furnished to applicants. Preference given to articles of domestic production or manufacture. The right reserved to reject or accept any or all bids, or any part thereof. Envelopes containing proposals should be marked "Proposals for Q. M. Supplies," and addressed to J. M. MARSHALL, Assistant Q. M. General.

OFFICIAL—ALLEGHENY.

INCREASE OF THE BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OF THE CITY OF ALLEGHENY, PA.

NOTICE is hereby given to the electors of the city of Allegheny that, in pursuance of ordinances passed by the select and common councils of the said city on March 20, 1902, approved by the city recorder March 25, 1902, and on September 18, 1902, approved by the city recorder September 22, 1902, an election will be held in said city, at the usual place of holding municipal elections therein, on the first Tuesday of November next, being the 4th day of November, 1902, and being the day of the next general election in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of obtaining the assent of the electors of the said city to an increase of its bonded indebtedness in the sum of forty-two thousand six hundred thirty-five ($42,635.00) dollars, or such portions thereof as may be authorized by the said electors for the following purposes, to-wit:

For the grading, paving and curbing of McIntyre avenue, Tenth ward, from Perrysville avenue to Ellwood avenue ....$ 20,635 00

For the grading, paving and curbing of Chester avenue, Tenth ward, from Harrison avenue to Irwin avenue 22,000 00

Percentage of this proposed increase to the last assessed valuation of the city is two thousand five hundred seventy-two one hundred thousandths of one per cent plus.

The gross debt of the city of Allegheny on October 1, 1902, was ....$ 6,406,233 00
Amount in the sinking fund on the same day was.......... 1,342,437 62
Net bonded indebtedness on said date was ....$ 5,063,795 38
The last assessed valuation of the city of Allegheny was $85,513,125 00

Percentage of the total of the proposed increase of indebtedness to the last assessed valuation is four thousand nine hundred eighty-five hundred thousandths of one per cent plus.

The above propositions will be submitted to the electors of the city of Allegheny at the said next general election in such manner that each and every elector will have the opportunity to vote for or against, either or both of the said propositions to increase the city's debt.

EASIER MONEY OUTLOOK BOOMED STOCK MARKET

The Treasury Buys Government Bonds and the Old Speculative Clique Resumes Its Bull Campaign in Wall Street.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The revulsion of sentiment which has occurred in Wall street within the past 48 hours has no parallel since the notable recovery which followed the slump on May 9 last year. Last Monday there was a rush to unload stocks at any price, banks were calling loans, and call money rates ranged between 10 and 15 per cent. Yesterday there was a scramble to buy the same stocks at prices from 5 to 15 per cent higher than those current a few days ago, and the market closed at or near the top prices of the day. The movement was almost entirely dominated by the old speculative clique that was so prominent during the summer, and whose successful operations attracted such a large following that the market became overbought and necessitated the heavy liquidation which has been witnessed during the past three weeks. During the early part of the session there was some hesitation, which was also manifested in London, where quotations were irregular, and the operations of foreigners were about evenly divided between sales and purchases. There had been numerous rumors of government bond purchases by the treasury department, but it was not until shortly after noon that the official announcement was made from Washington that the treasury had bought $5,000,000 "long 4s" optioned on Monday at 138 flat, and that it would acept additional offers at 137¾ and accrued interest up to and including Monday next. There was a perceptible easing of call money rates from 7 per cent to 5 per cent, and an outburst of speculative activity that has not been witnessed since the deal last summer in which control of Louisville & Nashville changed hands over night. St. Paul advanced 4 per cent to 194¼ on transactions reaching 58,700 shares. A stimulating influence in the movement was the official announcement that a traffic arrangement had been closed whereby St. Paul would be enabled to send its through Pacific coast business over the Union Pacific lines. This arrangement, it is inferred, will obviate the building by St. Paul of an extension to the coast, and inasmuch as the company recently authorized an increase of $25,000,000 in its capital, it is also inferred that a stock dividend or other valuable consideration will go to the stockholders. The same speculative clique was credited with purchases of Baltimore & Ohio and Pennsylvania, and added another fraction to the price of Norfolk & Western, which crossed 80. Missouri Pacific, which was one of the weakest stocks in the recent liquidation was one of the strongest yesterday, and in the final dealings New York Central became very strong. The lines of the bull campaign were stretched to include United States Steel, and the western clique became very prominent in this stock. The leading issues closed at or near the highest of the day, and the total transactions exceeded 1,000,000 shares.

* * *

Conservative bankers feel that a resumption of speculative activity at this time can only end in serious disturbance of the money market at the end of the year. Business conditions are sound, and it is freely admitted that, based upon earnings and prospects, prices of many securities are relatively low. But a rampant speculation that will quickly absorb the relief funds coming into the market—which were released from the treasury vaults, as Secretary Shaw distintly points out, not because of any local stringency, but because banks all over the country are closely loaned up—will inevitably bring about a recurrence of tight money and forced liquidation. As a rule the banks of New York have plainly indicated their desire to keep the stock market within conservative bounds; but the trouble about carrying out this policy is that the banks only observe concerted action in times of financial storm. In fair weather, it is every one for himself, call rates decline, as they did yesterday, and overtrading is encouraged. There was less guessing than usual on today's bank statement. For weeks past the estimates have been far out of line. The known movements of currency during the week about offset the gain from the sub-treasury. The purchase of bonds announced yesterday will not appear in the figures today, and the change in the loan item, as usual, is the unknown quantity that will determine the character of the showing.

Pittsburgh Coal common was the most active stock in the local market yesterday, advancing to 30¼ on sales reaching nearly 1,200 shares, and closing within a fraction of the best price. The preferred stock was dull and unchanged at 89⅞@90. River Coal common declined a fraction to 11½, while the preferred remained steady at 40@40⅛. The largest advance was scored by Westinghouse Electric second preferred, which opened at 107, advanced to 109¼, at which the final sale was made, and closed at 109⅛ bid. The stock was also stronger in the east, and the movement here was in sympathy. There was a good demand for United States Steel, under which the common advanced to 41 and the preferred to 90⅝. The condition of the money market at the time of the appearance of the recent quartely report of earnings was such as to restrict buying, and the market did not therefore respond to the increased earnings, but the buying in New York yesterday was of a more confident character than for some time past. Crucible Steel preferred was dull, but advanced to 86¼, while the common sold off to 21⅛. Pressed Steel Car preferred sold at 93½. Windown Glass sold unchanged at 60, but closed at 60½ bid. Brewing common and Fire Proofing preferred declined a fraction on light trading, and Air Brake sold off 2 points to 176. There was very little news or gossip current during the day affecting values. The firmer tone was due to the improvement in the Eastern market, but there has as yet been no appreciable increase in the offerings of loanable funds here, and the bulk of the commission business is still restricted to a cash basis.

The only noteworthy change in the trust company list was the sale of a small lot of Fidelity Title & Trust at 625, a decline of $60 a share from the last previous sale last Friday. Colonial Trust closed at 623, a gain of 3 points, and Commonwealth Trust also closed 3 per cent higher at 248. Real Estate Trust sold at 305@306, a net gain of $1 a share over the previous close. Dealings in bonds were light and prices nominally unchanged.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Sharon Steel was quoted at 160 bid.

Mortgage Banking Company stock was quoted at 100 bid.

North American Savings Company stock was quoted at 118 asked.

At the gait set in yesterday's stock market the funds being released by the government will not last long.

It is reported that the Philadelphia Company statement for September will show an increase in gross earnings of $150,000.

Sproul & Co. sold a block of 500 shares of Westinghouse Electric to D. M. Campbell, and Darr, Luke & Moore sold 500 shares Pittsburgh Coal to McMullin.

A Wall street dispatch to a local house stated that John W. Gates was the largest buyer of United States Steel common and preferred yesterday.

Sales of United States Steel in New York yesterday reached 61,100 shares common and 36,300 shares preferred, the largest transaction in the stock for a long time.

The comptroller of the currency has approved of the selection of the Mellon National bank of Pittsburgh as a reserve agent for the First National bank of Grafton, W. Va.

Wheeling Gas yesterday advanced to 76 bid, the highest price ever quoted. Manufacturers Light & Heat was also firmer at 89, equivalent to 90¼ with the dividend.

The fact has been commented upon this week that during the worst stringency in money there has been a market for Westinghouse Electric, and the stock yesterday quickly responded to the easier tendency in money.

Pennsylvania led yesterday's market in point of activity, the sales reaching 96,200 shares. After the price reached 165 some enormous blocks of stock changed hands, indicating extensive liquidation, but the market absorbed it all and continued to advance.

The report of the auditor appointed by the Orphans court to examine into the condition of the Equitable Trust Company of Pittsburgh, is highly commendatory of the management and the institution, and called forth the personal approval of the court. The Equitable has published the report in full and sent a copy to its stockholders.

The short interest is likely to be a sustaining influence in the eastern market. Many of the large commission houses were compelled to liquidate a considerable percentage of their holdings. They are now out of sympathy with the rise. They look upon the movement yesterday as a one-man market, and there were very general suggestions that if the advance continued at today's short session, the market would be a short sale on Monday.

Secretary Shaw says: "Conditions which have made the purchase of bonds advisable are by no means local. The September statement revealed the fact that the banks of Lincoln, Neb., which should have 25 per cent reserve, had less than 10 per cent, and the banks of Des Moines, which should have had 25 per cent reserve, had less than 20 per cent. While the money for the bonds has gone largely to eastern holders, it will very naturally find its way into all channels of trade."

The Pennsylvania's statement of the coal and coke originating on its lines east of Pittsburgh and Erie, for the week ended October 11, with comparisons, follows:

	Week end. Oct. 11	Year to Oct. 11.	1901 to Oct. 12.
An'cite, short tons	4,889	1,927,920	3,626,963
Bit'ous, short tons	546,349	20,350,218	15,405,395
Coke, short tons	177,653	7,624,956	6,333,773
Total	728,891	29,903,094	25,366,131

"Persons who have talked with Mr. Morgan lately about matters other than the coal strike are now very bullish on the steels. They do not say that Mr. Morgan told them, but they hint mysteriously that the steels are expected to sell at par and 50, respectively, before the end of the year. The only objection traders have to the steels is that they are too slow. The way in which they have withstood general market tendencies these three or four weeks last past has made a great many bull converts."—New York Commercial.

Jules S. Bache, head of J. S. Bache & Co., who has just returned from abroad, says: "Europe is thoroughly scared over the continued large flotation of securities. Europe sees only the face value and draws deductions from that. Special attention has been given there to the flotation of Atlantic Coast Line securities, the new Pennsylvania stock, Baltimore & Ohio issues, and others. People there figure that we have issued from two to three hundred million sterling of new securities here. Of course there is no use arguing with them, that all the money remains in this country, except what is paid for ocean steamships abroad. For the present, therefore, Europe will not buy American securities until it gets used to these figures. Europe also is not over anxious to discount American bills. It considers, however, that one year's exports will pay off the floating indebtedness of America. In a word, Europe is not pessimistic as to our future, but is doubtful as to the pace we are making financially."

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Coffee futures opened steady, with prices unchanged to 5 points higher, following favorable European cables and rumors that private cables had been received from Brazilian houses to the effect that a lessening crop movement might be expected from now out. Local shorts covered on the call and were fair buyers later. By midday prices were net 5 to 10 points higher. In the last half hour under realizing and bear selling, the market reacted to the opening level and closed steady, net unchanged to 10 points higher, August only being 10 up. Interior receipts today and to be reported tomorrow were light, but the port movement was heavy. Primary markets were no more than steady, with Santos 100 reis lower. The local business amounted to only 33,750 bags, including October at 5.05@5.10c; November, 5.15c; December, 5.25@5.30c; March, 5.45@5.50c; May, 5.60@5.65c; July, 5.75@5.80c; August, 5.80c. Sugar, raw firm; fair refining, 3c; centrifugal, 96 test, 3 9-16c; molasses sugar, 2¾c; refined steady.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The Commercial Bulletin will say in tomorrow's report on the wool trade of the United States: "The feature of the week has been the heavy purchases by Philadelphia buyers of territory and other wools. The demand from other sources has been steady and the business of the week in the aggregate has been large. Prices firm on all grades, but no important advances have been made. Foreign markets are firmer above the importing point. The receipts of wool in Boston since January 1, 1902, have been 272,673,358 pounds, against 225,692,664 pounds the same period in 1901. The Boston shipments to date are 222,578,141 pounds, against shipments of 204,582 pounds for the same period in 1901. The stock on hand in Boston January 1, 1902, was 77,340,463 pounds; the total stock today is 127,435,680 pounds. The stock on hand October 19, 1901, was 97,454,707 pounds."

TOWBOAT HORNET SINKS FOUR BARGES

Another Costly Accident to the Coal Fleet—Eighteen Barges Sunk This Week.

The many accidents which have this week befallen the Pittsburgh coal fleet occurred after the steamers had passed over the worst part of the Ohio river. The latest accident reported occurred to the towboat Hornet No. 2, the last of the coal fleet to leave Pittsburgh. The boat hit the head of Williamson's island, sinking four barges, one of which has gone to pieces. The boat has laid up on the West Virginia side of the river, near Sistersville, and will have to wait on more water.

While the nights at this end of the Ohio river have been clear, fog and smoke have greatly interfered with the boats 200 miles down the river, and the water being scant, the greatest precaution had to be exercised.

Boats meeting with accidents this week were the Fred Wilson, which sank eight barges of coal, Hornet four barges, Gleaner three barges and the Jack Frost three barges, a total of 18 barges, containing about 252,000 bushels of coal.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal & Coke Company lost 12 barges, C. Jutte & Co. three barges and the Convoy Towboat Company three barges. Barges are worth from $1,400 to $1,600, but many of those sunk can be saved. The total loss probably will not be less than $30,000, the coal combination and the Convoy Towboat Company being the heaviest losers. Diggers are now at work trying to recover some of the coal.

The Gleaner grounded her tow at Twelve Pole, near Catlettsburg. The pilot mistook the lower government light for the upper one, because the latter was not burning, and his boat got out of her natural course. The Wilson ran into the Gleaner and the wreck of the latter's tow followed. The Wilson had 17 barges in her tow when the accident occurred. The Gleaner will go on the docks today at Cincinnati, to have a broken rudder and several timbers in her hull replaced with new ones. The coal fleet commenced arriving yesterday at Cincinnati.

ALONG THE RIVERS.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—River 10 feet and rising. Packets in and out on time. The flagship of the Pittsburgh coal fleet arrived at the upper landing in Columbia at 4 o'clock today. The order of their arrival was: Josh Cook, Tom Rees No. 2, Joe Walton and Fred Wilson. All of the tows will be left here except that of the Tom Rees, which will be taken to Louisville. Each boat had 17 pieces, which was the original tow brought from Pittsburgh. The total output of coal for this market by the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal & Coke Company is 15 boats, which towed 17 barges each. The towboat Gleaner, which was damaged in the grounding of the coal fleet above Catlettsburg yesterday, will be sent here for repairs. The craft will have a new rudder and part of a wheel put on her. The following warning is sent out to pilots and masters of boats and crafts plying the upper Ohio river: "The secretary of the Portsmouth waterworks, Henry Scott, Jr., warns all pilots and masters to keep out at least 100 feet from the Ohio shore at Portsmouth near the waterworks. This warning is sent on account of the submerged trestle works south of the ice piers.

News of the Rivers.

The steamboat inspectors yesterday inspected the towboat John W. Alles, which has been rebuilt.

The Lotus Sims will be placed in the Natchez-St. Louis trade, making her first trip October 27.

The towboat Oakland has four of her six new boilers aboard, and they will all be in place next week.

Capt. W. H. Wolfe has hired with the Peoples Coal Company and has been assigned to command the W. C. Jute.

Capt. R. W. Wise, superintendent of the Cincinnati, Memphis and New Orleans Packet Company, will leave today for a trip to Colorado.

The towboat Sam Brown struck the bar at Mill Creek, going south with her coal tow, and swung around in the river, but held her tow intact.

The towboats were compelled to double trip past the wrecks left at Twelve Pole by the Fred Wilson. This caused some delay to the coal fleet.

Capt. Charles Stewart, who recently returned from California, is one of the pilots of the towboat Ed Roberts, and William Blackstock is steersman.

Capt. James A. Henderson said last night that if he had ordered the Cincinnati packets out the Keystone State would not have been able to come into port Monday.

It is reported that C. M. Buchanan, president of the Peoples Coal Company, has resigned, but Mr. Buchanan is out of the city and the report could not be verified.

The Allegheny river is rising and rivermen are of the opinion that the Ohio will swell some today, probably three or four inches. It will be of great advantage to the packets.

The steamer Bessie Smith is coming to Pittsburgh in place of the packet Ben Hur, and will leave Monday for Parkersburg. The repairs to the Ben Hur have not yet been completed.

Capt. Gordon Greene says that the new steamer Evergreen, of which is the owner, is doing a splendid business on the Kanawha river. The boat is a splendid handler and is very light on fuel.

The Evansville Contracting Company, which is building the upper Ohio river dams, has been awarded the contract to build a lock and chanoine dam on the Congree river in South Carolina. The contract price is $200,000, and 200 men are already employed on the job.

It is doubtful whether any of the coal now on the way south will go to New Orleans. Some think the rise will just about last until the present fleet gets to Louisville. The lower Ohio needs lots of water in it to keep up the rise below there.

Capt. Harry Black is ill aboard his steamer, the Defender, being confined to his room with malarial fever. The Defender since she was last here has been fitted out in fine style. She will go to New Orleans with a coal tow as soon as there is water.

The marine ways and shipyard at Madison present a scene of business activity. Capt. Clyde Howard has nearly 100 men at work rebuilding and repairing steamboats, and has engagements ahead that will keep him busy for some time to come.

The steamer Greenwood did not get away for Charleston until after 6 o'clock last night, her freight offerings being heavy. The amount of freight offered yesterday, rivermen say, demonstrates that the freight business on the river will show a decided improvement this fall. Labor, however, is scarce and coal is much higher, and it may be necessary to raise the freight rates. One boat owner said that present conditions warranted a readjustment of of the freight rates. The Lorena is receiving liberally for Zanesville.

Nearly All Are Prisoners.

The Waters family of Thirty-eighth street and Mulberry alley, which recently was declared the most depraved family ever brought to the attention of the Western Pennsylvania Humane society, was again before the magistrate at No. 5 police station yesterday morning. Several members of tthe family are now serving time in the workhouse. Yesterday morning James Waters, the father, and Mary, 19 years, got 90 days, and his cousin, Edward McInierney, received 30 days. The prisoners were caught in a raid. Only three members of the family are now outside the workhouse.

SHAW VERY POPULAR NOW IN WALL STREET

His Release of $20,000,000 More Treasury Money Pleases Bull Party.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The Herald this (Saturday) morning says: Pools, big and little, resumed active operation in the stock market yesterday and succeeded in advancing prices materially before the close of the trading. Final figures were generally the best, and a bullish appearance was given to the list, under the belief, apparently, that the settlement of the anthracite coal strike and the relief afforded to the money market by the resumption of bond purchases by the treasury department will result in outside speculative buying. According to commission house brokers, manipulation has not yet resulted in bringing any extensive following into the street, but that is scarcely to be expected as yet.

Yesterday's dealings were solely of a professional character. There was some distributive selling on the advance in some issues, but operations were of such an aggressive character as to overcome the force of this profit taking.

The chief stimulus to the market naturally was the relief measure of Secretary Shaw offering to buy bonds, releasing upwards of $20,000,000 of public money. Only a few weeks ago Mr. Shaw was a most unpopular man among the speculative contingent, but it was reckoned up yesterday that he has done more for Wall street than any secretary of the treasury in recent years. In consequence, condemnation naturally gave way to praise, and if he appeared in Wall street now he probably would be given the freedom of the stock exchange.

Demand sterling exchange moved erratically during the day. In the forenoon sight bills sold low, but when the treasury department circulars officially announcing the bond purchases came out, the rate began to harden. Demand bills closed strong and high at $4 85¼. Sales at $4 80 for next week's steamships were reported by some brokers.

The relaxation in the sale of money which is expected through the influx of $20,000,000 public money into the market will, it is believed, render the renewal of finance bills more difficult in future, and in creating a demand for exchange will result in higher rates.

Gold imports are thought to be entirely out of the question now. The price of bar gold in the London market was advanced ⅛ pence yesterday to 77s 10¼d per ounce, while American eagles were advanced. The trend of the market is much more favorable to gold exports than imports.

For the first time in several months there was a large crowd of brokers gathered around the steel post on the stock exchange today. It was estimated that at one time fully 100 brokers were gathered at that post, dealing in the steel combine issues. Large blocks of both the common and preferred stocks changed hands at fractionally higher prices.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

[BY LEASED WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Fargo Gold Mining Company and Eureka Smelting Company have formed a company to operate a boat line between Lewiston and Pittsburgh Landing, on the upper Snake river. One boat will be put in operation in January. Machinery for an electric smelter at the mouth of the Innaha river is en route. The smelter and boat line will cost $250,000.

Eastern capitalists have taken hold of the Parlette Gilsonite mines at Price, Utah, and will work them on a large scale.

During sinking operations for water a copper-bearing placer was discovered last week in Cherry Creek canon, Summit county, Utah. Less than a mile from where the placer was tapped a one-foot ledge in sandstone is being developed. The ore runs 35 per cent copper and 19 ounces silver.

Arrangements have been made for the transfer of the Grand View mine and mill at Ouray, Col., to New York capitalists. The property has a production record of $125,000.

Up to last week the Boundary shipments for the year amounted to 336,000 tons.

Notwithstanding repeated assertions that it is played out, Stratton's Independence at Cripple Creek is outputting from 250 to 300 tons a day.

A dispatch from Silverton, Col., says a body of gold ore averaging as high as $2,500 a ton has been struck on the Mabel and Minnie of the Alpha Mining Company.

Ore from the recent strike at Silver King, near Reno, Nev., is said to yield from 1,600 to 2,000 ounces silver to the ton.

By January 1 the output of the Greene Consolidated at Cananae, Mexico, will be increased to 6,000,000 pounds of blister copper a month.

The Metal Market.

The feature of today's metal markets was the sensational advance in tin at London, due, it is said to manipulation on the part of bulls in that market for the purpose of squeezing the short interest, which they claim to have at a disadvantage. Whether or not this explanation be accurate, prices there advanced £3 for the day, spot closing at £120 and futures at £118 10s. Locally there was little business, but prices were higher in sympathy with the London developments, spot being quoted at 26.50@26.95c. Copper also advanced in London, gaining 11s 3d, which brought the closing figure up to £53 for spot and £53 2s 6d for futures. As was the case with tin, copper here also advanced, but without important business. Standard closed at 11c, nominal; electrolytic at 11.70@11.85c, Lake at 11.75@11.85c and casting at 11.65@11.75. Lead was quiet and unchanged here at 4⅛c and in London at £10 13s 9d. Spelter remained unchanged in both markets, New York closing at 5½c and London at £19 2s 6d. The English iron markets were a trifle irregular, Glasgow closing a shade lower and at 57s 8d, and Middlesboro a little higher at 53s 3d. Locally iron was quiet. Warrants continue nominal. No. 1 foundry, northern, is quoted at $23@25c; No. 2 foundry northern, No. 1 foundry southern and No. 1 foundry southern soft at $22@23.

Enormous Trade in Corn With Business to Lively to Distinguish Buyers.

WHEAT IS IRREGULAR

Weather Conditions Against the Market, but Higher Cables Bring Strength—Little Doing in Oats.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—There was an enormous trade in corn on the board of trade today and prices on both grains and provisions were higher, December corn closing 1½@1¾ higher, December wheat ⅛@¼c, oats ½c higher with January provisions unchanged to 7½c higher.

Wheat was again irregular and volume of business was fairly large. Weather conditions were against this market, but higher cables and decided advance in corn caused a strong feeling to the situation. Early in the session prices were higher, but a large amount of long stuff, especially May, was dumped on the market, together with considerable short selling and these factors in conjunction with a temporary decline in corn brought about a reaction. With improvement in outside markets there was another rally and the close was firm and higher. December opened a shade to ⅛@¼c lower at 71⅛@71⅜c, advanced to 72⅜, declined to 71⅛, only to rally again to 72⅛c. The close was ⅛@¼c higher at 72⅛c.

Receipts Continue Large.

Primary receipts were 1,209,000 bushels, compared with 930,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 764 cars which with local receipts of 110 cars—three of contract grade—made total receipts for three points of 874 cars against 904 cars last week and 787 cars against 787 cars a year ago.

Trade in corn reached such immense proportions that it was impossible to tell who was buying or who was selling, but in spite of the large volume of business there was no new features to the situation. It was simply a case of one or two prominent longs holding the whip over the shorts who covered freely today, resulting in a sharp advance. At one time December was over 2c above yesterday's closing price. The excitement did not subside until large quantities of long corn had been thrown into the pit. After the lull in December commission houses took on considerable May, advancing that option also.

Market Closes Strong.

The close was strong and higher. December opened a shade lower to ⅝@½c higher at 51@51½c. From the opening there was a steady advance to 53⅛c, declining later to 52c. The close was 1⅛@1⅜c higher at 52⅝c. Local receipts were 335 cars with 63 of contract grade.

There was little trading in oats, but the market was firm in sympathy with corn. Fluctuations were confined within a narrow range and the close was slightly higher, December being up ⅛c at 31⅝c, after selling between 31½c and 31⅞c. Local receipts were 163 cars.

Provisions opened strong on higher prices of hogs and on strength in corn and while trading was not heavy there was a good demand from brokers and commission houses and with light offerings the market held strong. January pork closed 7½c higher at $16 02½, lard was unchanged at $9 30 with ribs 5c higher at $8 47½.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 95 cars; corn, 310 cars; oats, 270 cars; hogs, 10,000 head.

Options opened easy on disappointing cables and larger northwest receipts, but speedily rallied and had an irregular advance with corn, holding firm all day. Buying was also stimulated by large clearances, talk of rain and lessened crop estimates until the last half hour, when it ceased because of poor export trade. SQUIRREL HILL DEAL PENDING

New Land Company Has Secured Option on 24 Acres for $165,500.

C. H. HALCOMB SELLS SITE

Fifth Avenue Residence Sold for $26,000—Good Exchange Was Effected—Building Records for September Show a Gain.

A big deal in Squirrel Hill property is likely to be closed in a few days as the result of an option recently secured on the Hallman property. The option amounts to $165,500 an dis held by a new land company now being formed. The property comprises 24 acres on the west side of Dallas avenue, extending from Wilkins to Homewood avenues, Twenty-second ward. It is also intersected by Kilcardine and Knowles streets. All the streets except Kilcardine are paved, making the property very desirable for residence sites. The total frotnage is 6,673 feet, making the option price $24 a foot or about $7,000 an acre. C. G. Paul has been appointed agent to receive subscriptions for the stock to the new company and the Union Trust Company will act as trustee for the collection of the capital stock of the proposed corporation. The deal is significant from a real estate standpoint as showing that Squirrel hill property in big blocks of acreage will soon be out of the market and those who wish to buy home sites in this exclusive section must pay at the usual frontage rates.

Valuable Property Taken Back.

C. H. Halcomb, formerly president of the Crucible Steel Company of America, has resold to Mary C. Thaw the residence site which he lately bought from her, the consideration in the latter transaction being $137,102. The property consists of 5.6 acres having a frontage of 494 feet on the east side of Beechwood boulevard near Fifth avenue, Twenty-second ward. Mr. Halcomb made the purchase early in the summer with the intention of erecting a $100,000 residence on the site. After his retirement from the presidency of the steel company and his subsequent removal to New York he abandoned the idea and arranged with Mrs. Thaw to take the property off his hands at the figure named. The site is directly across the boulevard from the plot lately bought by Richard B. Mellon for a residence site, and is one of the few large plots left in that vicinity. Both the purchase and the sale were made through the agency of George Bros.

Last of Ten Houses Sold.

Further proof that high class residence property in the East End is one of the best sellers on the real estate market was furnished yesterday in the sale by Richard E. Edsall of a handsome new colonial brick house at No. 5815 Fifth avenue for $26,000. The deal was made through the office of Edsall & Hamm and the purchaser is David Kirk, who it is understood, will occupy the residence for a home. The house stands on a lot 50x125 feet, facing on the south side of Fifth avenue, near College avenue, Twentieth ward. It is a thoroughly modern residence in every respect, having 12 large rooms, two bath rooms, china closets and a hardwood finish. This is the last of 10 similar houses which Mr. Edsall has built and sold within the past two years. Three of them were in Fifth avenue, and the others in Stanton avenue.

The Pittsburgh Association for the Improvement of the Poor has bought from James B. Meeds a lot 30x124 feet in Collins avenue, Nineteenth ward, for $10,800. The society is now having plans drawn for a new building.

Pittsburgh Makes Good Showing.

Statistics compiled by Construction News of Chicago for the month of September show that in the 23 largest cities of the country there was a wonderful increase in the amount of building done. Sixteen cities show gains over September, 1901, varying from 7 to 436 per cent. Seven have a loss of from 1 to 68 per cent to account for. The total number of permits issued in the 23 cities was 7,727, representing an investment of $23,640,045, or a total gain of 32 per cent.

Pittsburgh still holds third place in the list, New York and Chicago leading. Her gain for the month was 33 per cent, as compared with 44 per cent in New York and 21 in Chicago. Washington, D. C., and Buffalo show the most remarkable increases, the former's gain being 436 per cent and the latter's 217 per cent. In Washington one building made the big showing, and in Buffalo a number of costly factories were proposed. Memphis and Indianapolis show a loss of 68 and 48 per cent respectively.

Commenting on the situation the report says: "This is probably the best showing that has been made in any month this year and there are good reasons for believing that the present activity will continue throughout the year. The significance of building operations in Pittsburgh compels respect, for during the month she made an increase of 33 per cent, as compared with the same month a year ago."

Exchange Deal of $46,000.

Through the office of C. H. Struble an exchange deal amounting to $46,000 has just been effected. By the transaction Ila I. Hill disposes of three parcels of real estate valued at $28,000. These are a plot 50x140 feet, improved with four frame houses, in McNair street, near Pitt street, Wilkinsburg; three frame houses, lots 25x110 feet each, in DeSoto and Florence streets, East McKeesport, and four vacant lots measuring together 80x132.5 feet in George street, Eighteenth ward. These properties were sold to Olive and Raymond J. Luse, who tendered in part payment a farm of 180 acres four miles northeast of Niles, Trumbull county, O. The farm is improved with buildings valued at $10,000. The trade value of the farm was $18,000, the balance in the deal being paid in cash.

Jason A. Fisher has bought from Frederick Fuher a plot of vacant property, having a frontage of 114 feet on the south side of Thomas avenue, near Homewood avenue, Twenty-first ward, for $17,134 50.

A $100,000 Plant in Prospect.

Lawrenceville is likely to get another big manufacturing plant in the near future. Acting under orders from an eastern syndicate a down-town broker has this week secured options on the property on the north side of Pike street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets. The plot measures 140x155 feet and is improved with seven brick houses and shops in the hands of five different owners. The price offered is about $44,000, or a little over $300 a front foot. In case the deal goes through, which seems reasonably certain, the purchasers will erect a manufacturing plant to cost at least $100,000. Nothing could be learned concerning the nature of the industry, but it was stated positively that the deal has no connection in any way with the Pennsylvania railroad, which is supposed to the picking up properties in this neighborhood. The tracks of the Allegheny Valley railroad run along Pike street in front of this property, making it an excellent location for a factory.

Long Lease Signed.

B. E. Arons, the jeweler, has leased from Kaufmann Bros. the building at No. 205 Smithfield street for a period of five years. The consideration was not learned. Mr. Arons will take possession on April 1.

W. H. Whitfield has broken ground for an $18,000 colonial brick house, to be built on a lot 100x150 feet on the south side of Darlington road, near Wightman street, Twenty-second ward. The site was bought from C. H. Siedle a few days ago for $6,250.

D. W. Pershing is taking estimates on the $10,900 colonial brick house which he will build in Fairmount avenue. The plans were drawn by Architect W. A. Thomas.

A permit was issued yesterday to W. S. King for the erection of a $16,000 brick residence in Highland avenue, Nineteenth ward. C. H. Kerr was granted permission to build four three-story brick buildings in a row in Forbes street, near Seneca street, at a cost of $8,000. A permit was also issued to M. Lenz & Son for a one-story ironclad belt works at Thirteenth street and Custom alley, to cost $5,000, and to the Joseph Horne Company for a 25-foot addition to its smoke stack at Penn avenue and Fifth street, to cost $1,100.

In Allegheny permits were granted as follows: Perry Charles, a two-story brick stable at the corner of West and South Diamonds, $6,000; A. P. Meyers, a brick addition and remodeling to the dwelling at No. 1500 Beaver avenue, $3,000; J. A. Stevenson, a two-story and attic frame house in McClure avenue, $3,000.

New Realty Firm.

Moore & Little is the name of a new real estate firm which has opened offices at No. 217 Ferguson building. The firm will do a general real estate and mortgage business and will make a specialty of coal lands, in which the members have already dealt considerably.

The City Realty Trust Company sold for the Watson Land Improvement Company the following properties in the Watson place plan in Allegheny: To David G. Bieler, four lots in East street, $1,600; to Dr. William Beach, five lots in East street, $3,000; to A. Herman Morrow, one lot in the Watson boulevard, $1,300; to Charles F. Schwen, a lot in the Watson boulevard, $500, and to Joseph Loeffler, a lot in Valley street, $300. The lots average 30x140 feet each.

Trumbull county: Murray Bros. sold for E. A. Sigler to S. C. Beeson a farm of 154 acres in Fowler township, Trumbull county, Ohio, for $4,500. They also sold for George D. Bruce to E. O. Wilson a fruit and poultry farm of 26 acres, near Warren, Ohio, for $3,000.

Small House Sold.

Webster avenue: The Commonwealth Real Estate & Trust Company sold for H. Egan to Feliclo Canuti a six-room brick house, lot 25x120 feet, in Webster avenue, near Logan street, Seventh ward, for $3,500.

Tustin street: W. J. White sold for Julius Bieler to Frank W. Hanitch No. 2232 Tustin street, a three-story brick dwelling, lot 25x34 feet, for $4,200.

Eldora: M. V. Stewart sold to Frances Schroer a lot 197x207 feet, at the corner of Ringgold and East Monessen avenues, in the Eldora plan, for $500.

Dallas avenue: Anna B. Miller sold to George N. Chalfant an improved lot, 50x75 feet, at the corner of Dallas and Hamilton avenues, Twenty-first ward, for $6,100.

Morgan street: The Life Protective Savings and Loan association sold to Frank Markilnicz a lot 40x60 feet, in Morgan street, near Quarry run, Twenty-seventh ward, for $1,200.

Deal of $6,500.

Chatham street: Peter A. Pascale sold to Solomon Jacobson an improved lot, 20x96 feet, on the east side of Chatham street, Seventh ward, for $6,500.

McDonald street: John H. Geis sold to Sarah Thomas a lot, 25x96 feet, on the north side of McDonald street, Twenty-first ward, for $800.

Rosetta street: Edward R. Hugus sold to George H. Auth a lot, 25x105 feet, on the south side of Rosetta street, Nineteenth ward, for $790.

Wall street: The Pennsylvania Savings and Loan association sold to Antonio Luonzo a lot, 80x39 feet, on the southeast side of Wall street, Twenty-first ward, for $800.

Park avenue: James Hamilton sold to William S. Ekey a lot, 28x111 feet, on the southeast side of Park avenue, Twenty-first ward, for $700.

Wyola street: G. Bunn sold to Generoso Fogilce a lot, 40x105 feet, on the west side of Wyola street, Thirty-fifth ward, for $900.

Made Two Sales.

Denmarsh street: F. F. Nicola sold to John Dwyer a lot, 20x94 feet, in Denmarsh street, near Winterburne street, Twenty-third ward, for $2,150. The same party sold to Emma L. Welber a lot, 34x80 feet, on the south side of the same street, for $2,200.

Sarah street: William H. Wagner sold to the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston Railroad Company a lot, 20x119 feet, on the southeast side of Sarah street, near South Twenty-ninth street, Twenty-fourth ward, for $4,700.

Sarah street: Frank J. Winter sold to Katharine Winter a lot, 24x65 feet, in Sarah street, near South Nineteenth street, Twenty-sixth ward, for $1,000.

W. L. Scott & Co. sold for P. J. Ritter to L. W. Swope No. 948 Morrison avenue, Allegheny, for $2,000.

The Union Realty Company sold to Mr. W. A. Gaven for the Allaire Land Company the following lots in the Allaire plan, near the Colonial steel works: No. 251, for $1,000; No. 257, for $750; No. 19, for $625; No. 90, for $600; No. 89, for $250.

IN THE OIL FIELDS

The Big Injun sand producer on the Z. T. Francis farm on Fallen Timber run, Wetzel county, West Virginia, and leases on 500 acres on the Francis and adjacent farms has changed owners and the purchasers have secured a bargain, all things in connection with the deal considered. The well on the Francis farm was drilled in about a month ago by the Philadelphia Company and J. C. Trees & Co. and started to produce at the rate of 350 barrels a day, and is still holding up at about 175 barrels a day. A. W. Mellon, T. W. & E. P. Mellon are the purchasers of the seven-eighths interest in the well, leases and three wells now drilling. N. S. Snyder, who was associated with J. C. Trees & Co., retains his one-eighth interest.

The price paid for the seven-eighths interest in the property secured by the Mellons is said to have been between $175,000 and $200,000. When the Francis farm well was drilled in it was generally accepted as the discovery of a new belt paralleling the old Smith field development, and those familiar with the staying qualities of the wells in the last-named field know that they are second to none in the lower southwest. Incidentally it may be added that Recorder J. O. Brown was an eighth owner in the property sold.

Field Developments.

In the Salem district, Harrison county, West Virginia, the South Penn Oil Company has completed its No. 2 on the M. T. Williams farm and has a producer good for 125 barrels a day in the Gordon.

In the same district the Southern Oil Company has completed its test well on the Isaac Eddy farm and has a duster.

The Bobinette Oil Creek Oil and Gas Company has completed No. 2 on the William Sadler farm and has a show for a 10-barrel pumper in the Gordon.

On the west side of the same district in Doddridge county the Carter Oil Company has completed No. 5 on the John W. Carpenter farm and has a duster. The well will be abandoned without a shot.

On Grass run, Harrison county, Van Wormer & Park's Nos. 2 and 3 on the G. W. Williams farm are holding up at 230 barrels a day and are the only two wells in this district that now have a production of 100 or more barrels a day.

In the northwest corner of Harrison county the South Penn Oil Company's No. 1 on the William G. R. Hall farm is holding up at 120 barrels a day.

In the Folsom district, Wetzel county, the same company has completed its No. 21 on the Genine Robinson tract and has a show for a 100-barrel producer.

In the Bristoria field, Greene county, the South Penn has completed its No. 2 on the James McVey farm and has a very light pumper, not good for more than two barrels a day in the deep sand.

Good Show in the Big Injun.

In the Burning Springs district, Wirt county, the Bridgewater Gas Company has just tapped the Big Injun sand at its No. 12 on the J. S. Swisher farm and has a show for a good producer. The Swisher farm joins the F. F. Binley farm, on which Stuart & Young have been getting some fine producers. Operations in this development are increasing. The Bickel Oil Company has commenced to spud at No. 7 on the George Miller farm, and the Expansion Oil Company has the rig up for No. 14 on the J. C. Hall farm.

In the Waverly district, Wood county, the Lincoln Oil Company has completed No. 13 on the J. Hunter farm and has a show for a 10-barrel pumper in the Cow Run sand.

The Keener sand development on Big Knot run, Ritchie county is not improving in its production. The aggregate output of the 16 large wells shows no change from the last gauge reported. It is producing about 1,500 barrels a day.

On Big Knot run the Cleveland and Parkersburg Oil Company's No. 5 Thomas E. Dye is holding up at 500 barrels a day. Smith, Wilkinson & Co.'s No. 3 Dora Arnett has declined to 300 barrels a day, and No. 2 on the same farm is now down to 80 barrels a day.

A few days ago No. 4 on this farm was erroneously reported through the Keener and dry. It should have been reported fishing for a string of tools in the top of the sand.

Southeastern Ohio.

South of Knoxville, Jefferson county, O., the Consolidated Oil Company's No. 1 on the Warren farm is still flowing by heads and producing 160 barrels a day.

This is the best producer completed in this county since the old Gould field on Cross creek was developed more than six years ago. New rigs are starting and locations being made for test wells in every direction from the Warren farm producer.

East of the Harper pool, near Jerusalem, Monroe county, the Ohio Oil Company has drilled its No. 2 on the G. W. Eaton farm through the Big Injun sand and has a duster. It will be abandoned without drilling deeper.

Southeast of Monroefield the Unity Oil Company's No. 2 on the F. F. Cooper farm is holding up at 180 barrels a day.

In the Benwood district the Fisher Oil Company & Solleny have drilled their No. 2 on the Jacob Affolter farm 50 feet into the Big Injun sand and have no show for a producer.

In the Wolf Creek district, Morgan county, A. Girard & Co. have completed No. 3 on the G. W. Murdock farm and have a duster.

In the same district H. A. Henne has completed his No. 22 on the John Lightner farm and has a producer good for 85 barrels a day from the shallow sand.

Hundred Foot Producer.

In the Brush Creek district, Allegheny county, W. A. Goehring & Co. have drilled in a test well on the Ott farm and have a show for a good producer in the 100-foot sand.

BUYING IN BIG BLOCKS

Loans Show Easy Condition and Expected Today—Shorts Are Favorable Bank Statement Is Being Driven to Cover.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Oct. 17.—Another day of rising prices characterized the stock speculation today, and the degree of confidence that prevailed was a notable contrast to the depressed feeling that existed at the outset of the week. The formal announcement that Secretary Shaw had agreed to purchase all bonds of the issue of 1925 presented at the sub-treasury today and tomorrow was an effectual tonic to the market. It was stated that a block of $5,000,000 had been accepted, and it was predicted that fully twice as much more would be immediately turned in by a syndicate at 137¾ and interest, which would net about 138. All told it was expected that the tenders under this offer would result in the release of about $20,000,000 treasury funds, which would be speedily available to the local money market. With this prospect of new material in sight to continue active operations, the pools went to work with considerable confidence and bid up their favorites actively. The call money market showed great ease today, and there were confident expectations that a good bank statement would be issued tomorrow, which would contribute toward further ease next week.

Much Money Released.

Active operations by a noted speculative clique was said to be based on the money received from the Louisville & Nashville settlement, and was pointed out that the early closing of the Rock Island capital rearrangement would release a large amount of money which has been tied up in arbitrage operations between the old and new securities. The usual crop of rumors respecting this or that stock was put to good usage during the day, but the most tangible assertion was that a favorable traffic alliance had been effected between St. Paul and Union Pacific. The soft coal stocks as a group were a notable feature of the day, and an early rise of almost 4 points in Baltimore & Ohio caused an increased demand for other stocks of this class. Heavy operations were resumed in Norfolk & Western at the opening, but after a rise to 80⅞ the stock was liquidated heavily and sold under yesterday's close for a considerable part of the day. Trading was furiously active during the first two hours, and when the list showed some disposition to lag, St. Paul was brought forward as a leader. Immense blocks of this stock were taken, lifting it 4⅛ to 194¼.

Steel Stocks Prominent.

The United States Steel stocks became prominent after a long period of neglect, and their rise started on active demand for various other independent iron and steel stocks. The high-priced specialties were not much of a factor in the market, but there was an increased demand for many low-priced stocks. Professional traders quite generally shifted their operations to the long side, and were active in driving some of the stubborn shorts to cover. Late in the day a heavy buying movement developed in the eastern trunk lines, led by New York Central, and there was a more general inquiry for the higher-priced railroads, including Illinois Central and the grangers. Top prices showed a fair sprinkling of gains, reaching two points and over, and there were many of a point or more. The closing was active and strong, but some of the leading features of the day were below the best.

Railroad bonds sympathized moderately with the rise in stocks, and there was heavy buying in the speculative issues. Total sales par value, $3,900,000. United States old 4s and new 4s coupon advanced ½ per cent on the last call.

ACTIVE MARKETS FOR HAY AND GRAIN

Sweet Potato Prices Will Likely Go Higher—Heavy Arrivals of Grapes.

Not for a long time has there been such a spirited call at the grain exchange as was held yesterday morning, more stock changing hands at the one session than is often sold in a week. No. 1 timothy hay was especially active, and its movement was the feature of the day. There was also a sharp request for oats, buyers meeting sellers more than half way. Straw was asked for, with but little offering. The only changes made in quotations were in mixed and clover hay, both of which advanced. Corn and oats were steady, and new ear corn was offered, 5 days' time, at 55c with 50c bid. Throughout all the markets there is a firmness which grows more noticeable each day.

Mills are again demanding increased prices for flour, and local jobbers are stiffening up quotations, clinging firmly to listed figures, with a decided tendency to ask more. While a range of $4 10@4 20 is made necessary by the fact that there is some selling of desirable orders at the lower figure, actual value is about $4 15, and this will be higher at the beginning of next week if present wheat conditions hold.

Coffee has not been advanced nor has it declined. A waiting attitude is at present held by local dealers, and this reflects the condition among eastern importers. Brazilians are still claiming damage to the growing trees by frost, but how great is the injury will only be known when the time for flowering arrives. There is also some uncertainty as to the present crop, estimates as to its size varying from 8,000,000 to 11,000,000 bags. Coffee is now very cheap, and dealers hardly expect to see it go any lower, while whether there will be any movement in an upward direction can only be determined when conditions in South America are definitely known.

Other groceries are unchanged. Sugar is dull, with demand growing less all the time. Navy beans are holding their own. Cereals are firm, and daily business is steadily growing in volume. Canned goods are moving rapidly at unchanged figures, and dried fruits are firm.

Apples are coming forward in great variety and of variable quality. Fancy stock commands top prices, and these have been moved up, while lower grades and windfalls are offering at low figures.

Potatoes in carlots are higher, while quotations for smaller quantities remain unchanged. Sweet potatoes are firmer at points of shipment, and indications point to higher prices in this market after some of the large stocks are out of the way. Tomatoes are freely offered, with quotations about the same as for several days. String beans are steady, and green corn is slowly closing its season with little change in selling figures. Grapes are in heavy supply, and the market is easy. Eighty carloads in the produce yards yesterday caused the railroad company to place an embargo on grapes, which is now in force. Peaches are offering, but are slow of sale.

Butter holds firm, and higher quotations are predicted for next week by local dealers. Cheese is very firm, and is advancing, some jobbers who have not yet put up prices expecting to do so by the first of the week. Eggs are unchanged in price, and a little easier. Demand is not so large as it was a week ago, and receipts are heavier. The opening of navigation on the Ohio river brought in considerable quantities of eggs yesterday, which caused some weakening in the market. Sales of several round lots at forced prices were reported.

Poultry unchanged and steady.

TRANSPORTATION WORST FEATURE

The Railroads Are Unable to Handle Business Now Coming to Them.

MORE FOREIGN IRON

Want of Fuel Causes More Banking of Furnaces—Little Interruption in Finishing Mills. Dun's Weekly Review of Trade

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Oct. 17.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Settlement of the coal strike removes the only serious handicap to industrial progress. Five months of restricted fuel production had begun to check the wheels at many manufacturing centers. Transportation is now the worst feature and threatens to continue disturbing. While the grain crops are being moved the supply of rolling stock and motive power will prove insufficient, although every effort is made at the shops, liberal premiums being offered for early delivery. That the railways are well occupied is evidenced by earnings for the first week of October, 8.5 per cent larger than last year and 10.9 per cent above 1900.

Inadequate supplies of fuel caused further banking of furnaces, but the effect of a decreased output of domestic pig iron has been partially neutralized by large arrivals from abroad.

No Figures on Home Iron.

Practically no price can be named for immediate delivery of home iron, and there is no disposition to make concessions on distant contracts owing to the abnormal coke situation. Fortunately there has been little interruption at finishing mills, and the output of rails, structural material and kindred lines is well maintained.

Consumers not only find difficulty in securing steel from the mills, but encounter a further delay on the railways which are unable to handle freight promptly. Orders come forward freely for the heavier lines, numerous contracts being offered for steel rails for next year's delivery, and the plans for buildings and bridges keep a lot of business in sight in beams, channels and angles. Plates for ship yards are also sought freely, prices tending upwards on tank steel. Higher freight rates have checked imports of finished steel.

Boots and Shoes Active.

Footwear shops are actively engaged, many producers having added to their long lists of orders, and while practically all the New England manufacturers are assured full time to the end of the year, they are also taking orders for deliveries in March. Leather is slightly weaker owing to the sharp fall in hides which has been accentuated by the poorer quality now coming on the market.

In cotton goods the feature was a purchase of about 250,000 pieces of print cloths. While quotations were not altered the tone became decidedly firmer. In other divisions of the market buyers are only interested in meeting current demands, future requirements being held back by evidences of weakness in the raw material.

Failures for the week numbered 206 in the United States against 220 last year and 24 in Canada compared with 31.

Two Thousand Railway Conductors Will Gather Here for Convention.

The next meeting of the Order of Railway Conductors, to be held in this city, promises to be of more than ordinary interest and importance. The meeting will last three days, commencing the second Tuesday in May. A meeting of the local committee has been called for next Wendesday, to outline a program.

It is expected that the convention will be attended by not fewer than 2,000 conductors, representing all the railroads in the United States. The election of officers will be an important feature. There are three candidates for all offices except that of president, for which there will be no opposition.

The local committee promises to provide interesting entertainment. On account of the large number of delegates, the committee has found difficulty in getting a hall large enough. The order has a membership of 26,000.

THREE NEW STATIONS.

Structures Almost Complete at Latrobe, Youngwood and Edgewood.

Three new stations will be put in service on the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad within three weeks, at Latrobe, Youngwood and Edgewood, their total cost being $100,000. The station at Latrobe, the largest of the three, replaces an old wooden structure. The new building is of brick with stone trimmings, two stories high and constructed to meet the changes made in the tracks of the main line at that point.

At Youngwood, the junction of the Southwest branch, the company is building a handsome depot with twice the capacity of the old structure. The station at Edgewood replaces one recently destroyed by fire, and will be much larger than the old depot. The Pennsylvania railroad will construct six more depots on the Pittsburgh division, plans for which are now in the hands of the engineers.

Will Elect New Directors.

At the meeting of directors of subsidiary lines of the Baltimore & Ohio system, to be held in this city on Monday, two vacancies on the boards of the Pittsburgh & Western and Pittsburgh Junction will be filled. On account of the retirement of D. F. Maroney and John Barron from the Baltimore & Ohio they have resigned as members of the board of directors. L. G. Haas, general superintendent, and H. P. Hutchinson, superintendent of the Pittsburgh division, will be elected to fill their places. It is expected that President L. F. Loree will attend the meeting.

Homeseekers Get Low Rates.

An important announcement was made yesterday by the lines in the Central Passenger association regarding home-seekers' rates. It was decided at the last meeting of the association to continue the rates from November to April, inclusive, to points in the west and southwest, excepting California. The tickets will be sold on the first and third Tuesday of each month at one fare plus $2. Passenger agents of the central lines predict that in the near future the home-seekers' rates will be continued through the year on account of the large business accruing from this source.

May Establish Detective Bureau.

Contrary to expectations, no action was taken at the annual meeting of the General Passenger Agents' association at Portland, Me., on the formation of a protective bureau to prevent the operation of scalpers. A plan is on foot to establish a bureau of detectives, for the purpose of preventing the manipulation of tickets by brokers in those states where anti-scalping legislation has not been secured. L. A. Robinson, general passenger agent of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, returned from the convention yesterday.

Averaged 58 Miles an Hour.

Speed records on the Pennsylvania system were broken on Thursday night by the Pennsylvania special, the new 20-hour train from New York to Chicago. Reports received at the general offices yesterday state that on the run from Pittsburgh to Chicago the special made up one hour and 20 minutes lost time, averaging about 58 miles an hour, and at times attaining speed of more than 100 miles an hour. This is the best record ever made on the Pennsylvania.

Railroad Notes.

A. B. Starr, general superintendent of freight transportation on the Pennsylvania lines, returned yesterday from an eastern business trip.

Officials of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie met yesterday afternoon to hear suggestions on schedule changes. Few changes will be made this year.

It is reported that the Pennsylvania has plans under way for an extension of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh from Tuscarawas, O., to Dennison, to connect with the Panhandle.

L. G. Haas, general superintendent of the Pittsburgh division, Baltimore & Ohio, left yesterday for an inspection trip over the main line to Connellsville to look over the improvements at that place.

SHE PREFERS DEATH TO CELL IN PRISON

High Priestess of "Church of of Yoga" Commits Suicide to Escape Sentence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—In fear of another term in prison or spending the remainder of her days in an insane asylum, Miss Ida Craddock, high priestess and pastor of the "Church of the Yoga," in Chicago, and missionary here of her peculiar belief, committed suicide today by inhaling gas.

Her body was found by her mother, Mrs. Decker, by whom the suicide was to have been accompanied to the United States court today to be sentenced under a conviction for sending obscene matter through the mail.

She left a most affectionate letter to her mother, in which she said:

"I will not consent to go to the asylum, as you are evidently planning to have me go."

Miss Craddock served three months on Blackwells island for circulating an objectionable book. Her counsel appealed the case, and called the attention of Gov. Odell to it, asking him to have the sentence set aside. The governor asked the judge who tried Miss Craddock for the evidence in the case, but he said that it was of such a character that it could not be sent through the mails.

Upon her release, she was prosecuted by the federal authorities for sending the books through the mails. Before coming here she was convicted in Chicago and prosecuted in Philadelphia and Washington for circulating her books, which were alleged by the authorities to be indecent. Miss Craddock came originally from Denver and first drew public attention by her defense of the "dance du ventre" at the World's fair, which she maintained was a solemn religious performance. She was a woman of culture.

CANDY COMBINE FORMED.

Manufacturers from All Sections of Country Said to Be Interested. Headquarters in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—The National Candy Company, composed of candy firms all over the country, has been organized by the election of officers.

O. H. Peckham of this city was elected president, A. J. Walter secretary, and F. D. Seward treasurer.

Four vice presidents were elected as follows: Peter Echert, Cincinnati; John F. Gray, Detroit; Frank Sibley, Buffalo; V. L. Price, Chicago.

TRAINMEN ARRESTED.

In Mexican Jail for Running Over Two Natives, Killing One.

BISBEE, ARIZ., Oct. 17.—Two Mexicans were run over by a train at Agua Priota, across the international line from Douglass, Ariz., yesterday. One was killed and the other badly injured. The American trainmen were immediately arrested and placed in the Mexican jail.

Excitement is intense at Douglass. Supt. Morgan has persuaded a party of railroad men not to cross the line to liberate the Americans.

A Cure for Asthma

The worst cases of Asthma in the world succumb readily to the one great cure that never fails. Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann's Asthma Cure almost performs miracles.

Mr. R. M. Spencer, 2380 Vermont avenue, Toledo, O., says: "Asthma has been growing on me for 3 years, until last summer the attacks became so severe that many nights I spent half the time gasping for breath. Doctors seemed to give no relief whatever, and I felt there was no hope for me, when a drug clerk recommended your Asthma Cure. Its effect is truly magical and gives complete relief in from 2 to 5 minutes."

Sold by all druggists at 50c and $1.00. Send 2c stamp to Dr. R. Schiffmann, Box 893, St. Paul, Minn., for a free sample package.

"The Survival of the Fittest"

Herbert Spencer's apt phrase is applicable to bodies corporate as well as individuals. That at the end of three-quarters of a century the Mission Board Adjourns.

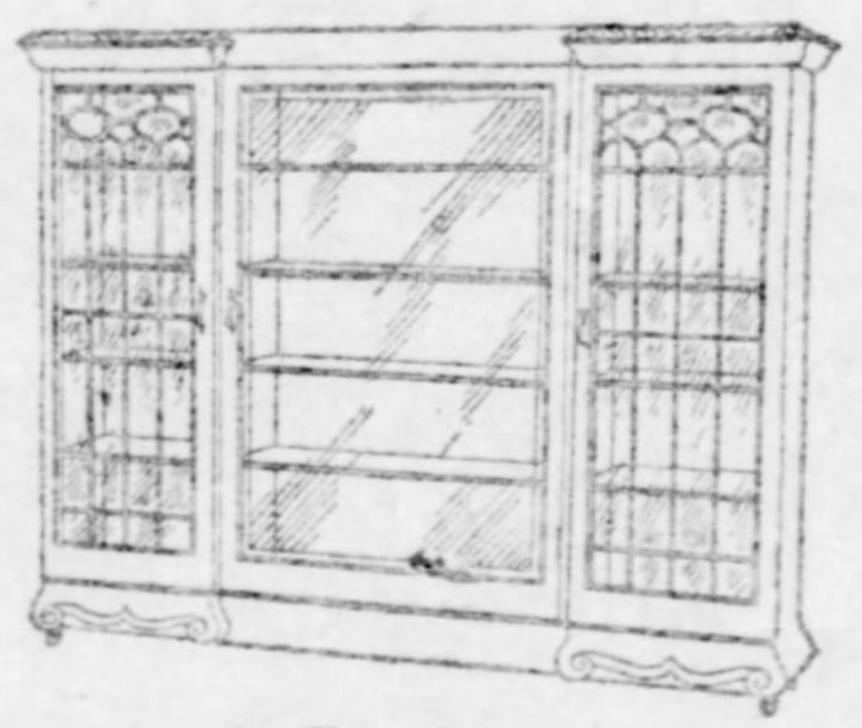
OBERLIN, O., Oct. 17.—The closing session of the American board of foreign missions was held today. President W. G. Sperry of Olivet college of Michigan was nominated as preacher next year, and the Rev. Reuben Thomas, D. D., of Brookline, Mass., as alternate. The deficit of the advisory committee of the forward movement was shown to be $2,000.



McELVEEN'S
(McElveen Furniture Co.)

A Bookcase for the Lover of Good Literature.

If you expect to devote much time to reading this winter you are no doubt interested in a new Bookcase in which to store your literary treasures. It is a fact that the world of books has additional charms for those who can contemplate their volumes snugly ensconced upon shelves of a case which is in itself a work of art.

Of the many Bookcases contained in this stock the one shown above is selected for representation here because of its beauty and moderate price.

Made of quartered golden oak, weathered oak and solid mahogany—leaded glass doors; case is 66 inches wide by 52 inches high.

Library Chairs, Tables and Couches are also shown here in unequaled variety—and each piece has that distinction which has made this store's reputation. Every style is exclusive—none is ever duplicated elsewhere—and price is always an inducement at

SYRUP OF FIGS

Acts Gently;
Acts Pleasantly;
Acts Beneficially;
Acts truly as a Laxative.

Syrup of Figs appeals to the cultured and the well-informed and to the healthy, because its component parts are simple and wholesome and because it acts without disturbing the natural functions, as it is wholly free from every objectionable quality or substance. In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal virtues of Syrup of Figs are obtained from an excellent combination of plants known to be medicinally laxative and to act most beneficially.

To get its beneficial effects—buy the genuine—manufactured by the
